2 Iraq veterans commit suicide near Fort Hood

11:19 PM CDT on Wednesday, August 3, 2005

Associated Press

FORT HOOD, Texas — Two Fort Hood soldiers who served in Iraq have killed themselves in separate incidents in Killeen.

Officials say 24-year-old Sgt. Robert Decouteaux of Rosedale, N.Y., died Saturday from a self-inflicted gunshot wound.

He'd been airlifted from his home to a Temple hospital for emergency surgery, but died while doctors tried to save his life.

On Monday, 22-year-old Spc. Robert Hunt of Houston was found dead in his apartment by Killeen police.

Officers were alerted after Hunt failed to report to work.

Police say Hunt's cause of death was listed as asphyxiation.

Of course, these two don't count when it comes to the "official" statistics. Dead, just under the wrong circumstances, that's all.

Don't want to go inflating any bad news beyond where it absolutely, positively needs to be, y'know?

We train people to kill, and then we're surprised when they come home and can't stop killing.
