It is more than ironic that G W Bush, Tony Blair, and Ariel Sharon are spiritual brothers. Bush and Blair have created "Islamists out of thin air, out of lies, and now have joined in making war on the Muslim world" first in Afghanistan, now in Iraq and perhaps tomorrow in Iran, Syria or wherever Bush feels he can find an easy target. Sharon has opened Bush's nose to order an attack on Iraq through false Mossad/Israeli intelligence, and now is pushing for an attack on Iran. In all cases, these men have bonded in their ways "all these men love to kill others, all these men see the world in absolute good and evil terms and they are always on the side of "good (even though the facts speak otherwise).

Sharon, Bush and Blair have created more fantasy Islamists than existed in the world; now, because of their behavior toward the Palestinians, Afghans, Iraqis and threats against Iran, they are making more and more radical Muslims who have no trust in the West and see Israel as the country that runs American foreign policy. At this time, I would be willing to guess, with some authority, that at least 95% of all Muslims in the world are fed up with Bush, Blair and Sharon and have lost trust in America as a moral leader. In fact, America is now seen as "the great satan" something that Ayatollah Khomeini had called America, but until Bush's presidency, no one in the world believed such a label; now, with Bush in power, most of the world, especially the Muslim world, would agree with Khomeini.

What is worse is that the American people have been lied to so much by Bush and by the major media that they no longer know the truth of what is going on in the world. The worst nightmares of Orwell's, 1984 have come true "Bush keeps talking about the "Islamic threat" while taking away American rights, freedoms of speech and assembly, arresting people without cause or data, and bombing innocent people and calling it "killing the enemy. At this time,

A friend of mine said that Iraq and the debacle there would stop Bush from attacking Iran. I told him, "On the contrary, when you are losing in Iraq, what better thing to take people's mind off the losses than to start another war with Iran! Unfortunately, that is what has happened with dictators in the past; they've yelled "wolf, then after a while, when the wolf doesn't come, they change tactics and create another problem so as to take our minds off the failure on another front.

Sharon is doing the same thing in Palestine; pretending to be pulling out of territories (which were illegal for Israel to occupy in the first place), but has reserved the right to invade and to attack Palestinians at any time, anywhere, so long as he wants. Bush has supported Sharon's policies and funded them with our U.S. tax payer monies. The average Israeli gets at least $18,000 per year in U.S. subsidies. On the other hand, the rate of homeless, uninsured, unemployed and penniless in America is climbing at an alarming rate"so much so that even Alan Greenspan, the architect of much of this failed economic disaster, has now begun warning people about the financial bubble bursting in the near future. Of course, it was he and Henry Kissinger who led us into cheap paper money with no real support.

What we have no is a trio of men who have led the world into a disastrous state"creating the clash of Israel, America and England against the Muslim countries of the world, and the rest of the world watching to see how long it will be before the three of them collapse from within, implode, or fall from an assassins bullet, or before their populations finally stand up and say, "That,s ; enough"it,s time for you to resign or be kicked out of office for the sake of sanity, peace and morality.

At this point, I,m not sure how it will all end, but it must end soon, before Bush and his two allies do more damage to America and England than Bin Laden ever thought could be possible.
