Updated - CIA torture flight spotted in Estonia. A Boeing 737 once registered to Premier Executive Transport Services, Inc. (registration N313P and also N4476S), and reportedly sold to a limited liability corporation -- Keeler and Tate Management (which reportedly shares a Nevada office and phone number with Ronald Reagan's best friend, former Nevada GOP Senator Paul Laxalt), was photographed in Estonia (thanks to T.P.) on Jan. 12, 2003. The 32-seat Boeing, reportedly another plane used by the CIA to transport prisoners for torture, was spotted at a number of airports around Europe, including Shannon in Ireland, Prague, Palma de Mallorca, Tulsa, Geneva, Oporto, and Frankfurt.
