CIA'S POLISH CONCENTRATION CAMP LOCATED

MARC GOERGEN, STERN, GERMANY - The CIA is apparently using a training center run by Polish intelligence in order to question al-Qaeda prisoners. As Stern has learned, there are now more indications that that this intelligence camp near Kiejkuty is used as a base by the Americans. According to statements by a high-ranking Polish intelligence officer from Kiejkuty, Americans have lived on the premises for months on end during the past five or six years. At the time, a 50x100 yard interior area, where the perimeter was protected by barbed wire and a 10-foot-high wall, was also erected within the one-by-two mile facility.

Regular Polish intelligence employees had no access to this inner area, but the Americans apparently did. Furthermore, there were small cars with tinted windows parked at the camp site. The same kind of cars that employees at Szymany Airport told Stern were always driven to CIA airplanes, which were waiting with engines running at the end of the runway.

If Americans are indeed making soap, shower curtains and lampshades out of these terrorists, why are there so many soldiers dying in Iraq? Why aren't we successfully containing the resistance with the plethora of information that's being obtaining by showing these people their mother's head in a fishtank?

While other countries kicked them out, Poland always wellcomed them and in the end was so nicely paid for this hospitality (jewish style!)- after II WW Stalin set up in Poland communist repression aparatus which was 90% jewish. They killed and tortured hudreds of thousands of Poland's patriots and solders - veterans of anti-Hitler coalition.

Zionist CIA camp in Poland (if this is actually truth) could only be set up there with the knowledge of Polands president half-jew Aleksander Kwasniewski (his real name is Stolzman, son of jewish war criminal), and some oficials in Poland's ex-goverment (ex communists) of jewish descent (including secret service)

I can't believe someone would have to audacity to talk about polish citizens helping Nazis to kill Jews. Let us not forget about the millions of Polish citizens who died trying to save Jewish lives. Secondly, lets see how many Polish Jews actually joined the Polish Army to defend their nation.

Comments about Jewish/Polish relations like those above are very easy to make, when you know very little about the actual history of Jewish/Polish conflict. I find the more I know about the state of relations between Jews and Poles in the late 19th and early 20th centuries the better I understand what happened during WWII and the less likely I am to condemn the Poles. Jews aren't always, or perhaps even very often, the innocent victims most history books seem to make them out to be.

Poles learned during WWII how bad the Nazis were, how bad it is to live in a state torturing people to death by the thousands. So I usually expect that Poles, like other Europeans, understand better than most others just how bad that kind of inhuman behavior is, especially living with the comparable treatment by Soviets for the intervening half century.

But then I read comments by people in this thread, where it is revealed that the US is torturing people in Polish camps. With possible, even likely, cooperation by the Polish government. Posts which ignore the outrage at hand, instead turning this thread into aggressive Holocaust denial Jew-hating. Both are antisemitic, ignoring torture of Arabs and denying torture of Jews. These people are those who make Poland the country of choice for the torturing country of the moment to set up operations. Spewing lies and hatred make it more obvious how true is the history of Polish torture of abused people, denied by so many Poles during and after the crimes. And it makes it harder for the rest of the Poles, usually the majority, who have to live with these torturers, to live it down, and act like humans instead of bloodthirsty animals. Those Poles have my sympathy, and the support of the rest of us who welcome their efforts to expose their compatriots.

JAILHOUSE ROCK

Those criminals who are working within the government will be in their own cells soon enough. For many years I served as part of security for stadium concerts that was provided by a private firm.

I think I can safely say rock stars and politicians are worthy of comparison.

Both love the cheer of the crowd but many bow to the power of money. Ego's will start to clash, the monkeys they shoulder turn into whispering demons that often leads to members controlling others aspirations with holier than thou visions of grandeur and illusion.

George Bush is to politics what Axel Rose is to music. The front man , fuck-you , my way or the highway decadent mannerisms drives all to no where. I've seen heavy metal bands go from sharing the same women and rooms on one tour. Then driven to shows in separate limo's the next.

We have sat back and watched the infighting and distrust that is ever growing amongst those in the not so clean WhiteHouse. And their smelly, dirty laundry is starting to show on their 2nd "authoritarian" tour. And if my observations are correct and my hindsight is still 20/20. The tour bus is rolling off the highway to hell and headed for the off ramp and bound for a prison building.

So i've just begun to learn about what my government is doing, and every day i grow sicker. Although it's like giving up, I want to leave this country. I cannot stand the thought of being here for much longer. I am responsible for what my government is doing. Apathy has been cultivated here, so the anger is there, but it will probably not turn into action.

The rest of the world has their problems, and many countries treat their citizens poorly, but the US is doing it to the rest of the world. My country is dying, and it's going to take the world with it.

How can I help? Should I fight or run? So many questions...So much to learn...

History has proven that no matter how many people or how many hundreds of years it takes to build a dynasty, it falls within months just when it seems to be reaching its full power. Want to know what to do? Just ask Condi Rice. She knows the "devil is in the details" and when you sell your souls to allow for world power and control and then fail to meet the devil's demands, then he'll come to collect. When good people do nothing they sentence all to death.

To ISRAOIL and other sh!t disturbers,
It is very arrogant to say that Poles took part in holocaust of Jews. Definitely, there is a number of Jews who hate Poles. The reason is that Poland before the war and during 50 years of communism didn't allow them to build their country on its territory. This carefully prepared plan to "take over" Poland was created by the Jews 150 years ago and it was called Judeopolonia. This is a historical fact. Since then, the Jews did everything possible to fulfill this plan. However, IIWW interrupted this plan and the communist totalitarian regime didn't allow this plan to take place. Most of Jews left Poland in 1968, leaving their real estate behind. Of course they were not "thrown away" but because of hard conditions of living helped them to make this decision. Number of them went to Israel and the USA. As a matter of fact it is Poles who suffer "betrayal" from the Jews, who had in Poland very comfortable living for centuries (do not forget that only in Poland Jews could appreciate existence of Kneset - all other countries never allowed that in their territory). Now, during the 80' and 90' Poland experiences high degree of attacks from number of Jewish owned media and Jewish organizations. They still remember how comfortable was living in Poland. Polish people for centuries were known for their peaceful and soft characters, very tollerant, democratic and honourous. When king Kazimir the Great went for a visit to Pensilvania (part of Romania at that time part of Polan), he was greated by representatives of 6 religions. Also, Poland can pride itself on being the second after the USA constitution and the first one in Europe.

So, before you start discussion, do some homework, read some historic books (such as Norman Davies on history of Poland) instead of rehashing some illiterate statements published by non-educated people.

Please do not fall under the double spell of illusion to think this is a JEWISH ONLY conspiracy. if he wants to torture, he'll torture. If he wants to spy on his own people, he will. If he wants to keep a list of 10,000 enemies of his rule, he will. He only does this because the republican controlled congress is more loyal to him than to our constitution.

It may be considered ironic that the business men involved in the nazi regime serving as informants to the British and American authorities in the run up to WWII were also tortured and murdered in post war interrogation camps, like the ones described. Even more ironic that many nazis passed into the CIA which was created to protect them.

The camps and interrogation centres have a long history. For instance, how did they know to train special ops people in facing torture methods weeks into the war?

So we have severed an historic link using these camps to inside knowledge on how "allies" may have been deeply involved in stoking the fires of a global conflict.

Perhaps this is the purpose they serve, regardless of the persuasion.
