How Did They Know?

On September 11th, none of the New York firefighters thought the twin towers would collapse. And no engineer in the country, including the designers of the world trade centers, thought they would collapse. Indeed, "experts said no building like it, a modern, steel-reinforced high-rise, had ever collapsed because of an uncontrolled fire" (full article is pay-per-view), and the twin towers were designed to survive airplane strikes.

And yet, somehow, on 9/11, Mayor Rudy Giuliani knew in advance that the world trade center was going to collapse.

And newly-released tapes of firefighters and other emergency personnel show that New York's Office of Emergency Management told a handful of people that buildings 1 and 2, as well as building 7, were going to collapse BEFORE each building actually collapsed. See also this statement.

What if a police detective was investigating the murder of a guy named Joe, who had previously been healthy, and discovered that a suspect had said on the day of the murder "Joe will be dead within 2 hours"? The detective would believe that the suspect killed Joe, or at least conspired with those who did.

Similarly, the foreknowledge of the collapse of buildings 1, 2 and 7 – when steel-framed buildings simply do not collapse due to fire – is strong circumstantial evidence that Guiliani and some key people within New York's Office of Emergency Management -- or their superiors in the chain of command -- are guilty for the demolition of those buildings.

We've all watched enough detective shows on TV to recognize this foreknowledge as evidence of guilt.

Preach on brother! Congrats on getting noted by WRH.com.

There's more and more articles every day claiming that Al Qaeda committed the atrocities behind 9/11 while every day there's mountains of evidence of government orchestration being ignored by the media. Well done in honing out a well quoted article.

The more EYES and EARS and MINDS working on deciphering the mass of evidence will help to REVEAL the truth. We have all heard the LIES and DECEPTION that the media and their "masters" have used as pure propaganda.

This is important that we work together as individual detectives, such as

to find the truth. The inconsistencies, contradictions, lies, and false "facts" that the US/Israel is pumping out is OBVIOUS and apparent to those who know the facts and think for themselves.

Now that the rest of the radio transcripts and recordings are forced to be made available to the general PUBLIC is a once in a lifetime opportunity.

It is up to us, the patriotic citizen, to uncover the lies and deception that threw us into WAR with Iraq, Afghanistan, and soon to be either Iran/Korea/Syria/anywhere with oil.

Yes indeed valid points, but watching detective stories are a part of the American peoples problem, besides when the evidence is standing there before you in the form of what had, did, and followed that day one would have to have some severe mental defeciancies to have not figured it out by the time the second plane hit. No detective work needed here, those events do not happen in reality, they are impossible and absurd to the point of being unworthy of a B hollywood movie. The biggest challenge is to get the masses of the pathetic broken American people to find courage and morality to face , not the powers that be, oh no, they need to look themselves in the mirror and face the reality of who they are, what they've become, and where they would like to go from here. Ultimately 911 happened because the American people allowed it to happen . They knew America has become so moraly and mentally corrupt they could get away with anything at all, the American people simply don't care,are too ignorant, naive,cowardly and misguided (can't forget too fat to move)to do anything against these weak and rather stupid cowardly nasty people running the show. Shameful, worthless, broken, stupid people this is your fault. Find your balls stop obeying the dictates of these traitor fascists and figure out what patriotism actualy is. Otherwise who cares what happens to you, you can go right to hell and you would deserve it.

It is important that the media once again returns to its role as a vanguard against the encroachments of excessive government. The Media is supposed to question the official line.

It seems very simple. Just examine who stands to gain the most from any given situation. The party with motive is generally the guilty one. Bush, Gullianni, Israel and Big Oil were looking pretty weak in 2001. Each had agenda's. Each of these parties have significantly profited from 911.

Bush is a criminal. He intentionally sent Americans to invade another sovereign nation for reasons that turned out to be without any justifiable legal merit. According to International Law, he is a criminal. Saddam may have been belly lint, but we had no legal right to remove him. In fact, we had no morale right to interfere in the affairs of another nation. Especially since we were the ones who armed him to fight a war for us against Iran. You know, the country that Bush wants to invade within the next few weeks.

It is so sad that the Law has lost all of its meaning. What set America apart from the rest of the world for much of the past 50 years was that we were a nation of laws. We used to be looked upon as a generous if overly self obsessed nation. We were known as fat and silly, yet liked. That was then. Now we are known as a nation in decline allowing a mad man to drag us into one misadventure after another, all in some crazy scheme to bring on the end of times.

I hope that all of you talk to at least two people that you know and sign a petition calling for Bush's Impeachment. It is the first step in a process that will get us our country back. Once Bush is impeached, we can apologize to the world and get back to business as usual End all Welfare to the terrorist sponsering apartheid theocracy of Israel. Israel is a threat to US National Security. Remember the USS Liberty. Americans should not be dying in iraq for Israel. While all Israeli's get free health care for life, courtesy of American tax dollars, seniors in our own country cant even afford their medication. Whatever happened to taking care of Americans first? You tell the truth and get branded a leftie or anti semite. The truth is the truth. Do your own research. You do not have to take my word for it... Israel and traitors within our own govt. were responsible for 911. Think of all the major players in 2001 and think how they proffited.. Bush went from being hated by most of the country for stealing the election to an approval rating of 90%, talk about wag the dog!!! Gullianni went from a man who just got whapped by Hillary Clinton, was being associated with Hitler for his gestapo style policing tactics to a serious contender for the next presidential race.

Israel is getting even more money now. Even Bolton got his UN job. Ask questions. Look at the facts do your own research. Buildings built specifically to withstand impacts from planes do not collapse on the day that FEMA coincidentally scheduled an emergency drill. Just like the odds of the exact same thing happening in London (emergency crews were running field maneuvers) does bear some examining. A little too much coincidence. Do your own research. We all know Bush lied about the WMDS... what else has he lied about?

As long as American's donot loose faith in themselves and what's left of the constitution you just might make it out of this political hole. Most of the word's coming from politicians is the rhetoric of failure but those closest to the 911 hell are stuck in behind the walls of a prison cell once they know the truth or if you have any conscience left. They kill president's and traffic people and drug's and run corrupted governments and if you still would like play your part in that system that they have full control over where you answer to no one, than you will see where your rewards will lie. I can't wait to see a lebian become the president of the united states, that'll really put the Muslim community on edge being told how to run their country by a Lez with a husband [former president] probably still fooling around with other married women giving her advice like

Bush senior does for the little horse milker.

ELMAHDI - you wrote "What set America apart from the rest of the world for much of the past 50 years was that we were a nation of laws." That is simply not so - there are a great many other countries who have long enjoyed the rule of law, including all the European countries. In fact, in all these other countries, people have long regarded the American judicial system as being totally corrupt.

Al Qaeda--"the database"--is simply another, and grandly successful, CIA Gladio, on a global scale. Since when was the USA opposed by an extreme right-wing group, anyway? Look who comes out of it all smelling like roses--the CIA and its "intelligence-gathering" capabilities, as Operations wins another one over Intelligence, and Negroponte gets a free hand over the entire fricking IC. The result of 9-11 and all the rest of this crap, including the Neo-con disinfo (that is, the single-minded emphasis on the evil neocons, to take the public's eyes off the secret-government-as-usual) is another metamorphosis of the secret government, not seen on such a scale since the establishment of the NSC and the CIA in 1947. Simply put, the deep strategy (always to serve the shallowest of ends--keeping the world open for American business) was to create a series of events that would necessitate the evolution of the secret government into something capable of dealing with the "multi-threat" world--post-Cold War--basically, in terms of the CIA (corporate boards), a world where multiple trade blocs can arise in an era of unprecedented fuel scarcity and global warming, and the American economy can collapse like a house of cards.

Most Americans, minds already completely circumscribed by the conditions of reality imposed by our secret government (last window opened: 1970s), would probably thank the CIA for all their hard work, keeping the AWOL and the American Dream alive. Thank them even for Abu Ghraib, which made torture into a dirty little secret you don't talk about in polite company, that nags at us, but that we know we have to do to make the evil ones look like perverts in front of their fellow mujahedeen. The game is constructing the rest of the world as caricatures, keeping us inside our bubble.

I believe that al-Qaeda is real. Every time the Zionist media pushes this story remember that al-Qaeda is an asset of the CIA-Mossad-MI6. When one starts looking beyond the propaganda the money always leads back to this Zionist group.
