Here's to hoping the auditory damage caused by all the hundreds of loud ass music acts I've seen ends up being a good thing. I doubt they can make noise any worse than Melt Banana or Merzbow.

Remember after Katrina the rural folks were arming at a record pace while the city people were being disarmed?

Even people on this forum are ready for the russian invasion .

There appears to be no shortage of folks who drool over the chance to kill someone else.

If they fit a profile produced by yellow journalism all the better.

They get parts of it.

Things like the claim all the meth is coming from the home grown and they are invading the rural areas to get thier supplies.

The DEA to this day is still using this hyped lie.

So if they know it isn'ttrue why would they continue to create fear of town folks?

Notice the hyped N.O. sniper fairy tales are now exposed as fabricated?

Too bad the damage on the psychy of the people is already done.

Remember the D.C.snipper?.

This is fucking HAPPENING as a plan. Why else would they announce martial law before the damn virus has even mutated !?!

And why in hell would they announce martial law instead of rushing to have the HEALTH CARE infrastructure prepared?
$100 million worth of vaccine is a joke, that'd be like 10 million doses. That's if the vaccine itself is not a (bad) joke of course.

This H5N1 virus is treated as a major terrr attack. It probably is.

In our face.
