US sniper kills Reuters soundman in Iraq

US forces in Baghdad shot dead a Reuters television soundman and wounded a cameraman, Iraqi police said.

"American soldiers opened fire on the team, killing the soundman and wounding the cameraman before detaining him," the police said.

The crew had arrived at the scene of an earlier rebel attack on an Iraqi police convoy in al-Adel district, west of Baghdad, which killed two and wounded one, police said.

Reuters said 35-year-old Waleed Khaled was shot in the face and took at least four bullets to the chest, while cameraman Haidar Kadhem was wounded in the back.

"I heard shooting, looked up and saw an American sniper on the roof of the shopping centre," Kadhem told colleagues who arrived at the scene before he was detained by US troops, it said.

The video (27-8-2005) shows a very successful IED attack on a fast driving vehicle, that looks like an army (PLS truck) or civilian truck (I'm not sure). The attack leaves the vehicle totally destroyed and on fire. Very nice video !

This is a quite good one ! Video shows GI hit by sniper fire so hard that it knocks him off his feet, he even flies 1/10 second through the air until he hits the ground. Fellow assholes try to get him out of the death zone when another bullet hits !

Enjoy ! Enjoy and again enjoy !

The second video is not working
