Why Al Qaeda Is Probably Not Behind The London Attacks - JUS

Who's Behind The Bombings In London Town?

Jul 08, 2005

Khadija Abdul Qahaar, JUS

For most anyone tuned into world events, it could be said that it was only a matter of time before the United Kingdom was the target of a major retaliatory attack, specifically due to the proportionate role Britain has played in the murders of Afghans and Iraqi's and its blind support for Bush's so-called War on Terrorism. That said, it appears that this mornings events may not be the handiwork of Al-Qaida.

While Al-Qaida was quickly blamed for the attacks that killed at least 45 people and wounded another 300 when three bombs exploded on the London Underground train network and a fourth detonated on a double-decker bus during Thursday's morning rush hour, there appears to be many holes in the so-called official statement released by the "Secret Organization of al-Qaida in Europe". The previously unknown group circulated a claim of responsibility shortly after this morning attacks, a copy of which was received by JUS however this statement has some glaring errors in it that indicated to us that this material did not likely come from Al-Qaida. JUS translates Al-Qaida statements daily in order to bring readers the other side of the war of "terror" and there are many problems with this so-called official statement.

To begin with, Al-Qaida statements come first to Arabic press not from BBC and Reuters. This statement first appear in mainstream press and was subsequently picked up by Arab press, which breaks rank with ever other statement Al-Qaida has ever issued officially. This fact alone should make the validity of this statement suspect. Secondly, the Arabic grammar used in the so-called claim of responsibility is incorrect. Al-Qaida statements have a consistency in the Arabic language that is written in their Mother tongue. Maybe most importantly, is the incomplete and incorrect ayahs from the Quran used in this alleged statement. While grammar could for arguments sake be overlook, incomplete and incorrect versus from the Quran is something the brothers of Tawheed or Holy Warriors who live and die by the word of Allah know intimately. In the ayahs quoted, they simply would not make these mistakes.

Some four months ago, rumors of a strike in the UK first began surfacing at the time when Omar Bakri Muhammad, head of the recently disbanded Al Muhajiroun group declared Britain Dar al-Harb (Land of War) that sent outrage through the British population, including Muslims. While some have jumped to the conclusion that Bakri and his new "Saved Sect" were either directly or indirectly involved in this morning's attacks, it is unlikely that this man, who clearly enjoys the convenience of living in London and the benefit programs the country has supplied him with, would intentionally topple the apple cart for a room without a view at Belmarsh.

While it may emerge in the coming days that Al-Qaida is behind this attack, it won't be on the basis of the current claim of responsibility that is circulating that appears to be simply wannabe's looking for their five minutes of fame. Whatever the investigation may eventually reveal, public support for a war that Britain's never wanted to begin with will surely rapidly unravel. Stay tuned on this one.

´ ´ a major retaliatory attack ´ ´ how dare you ???

by a_family_member_of_adam_and_eve on 09.07.2005 [11:46]

this is a crime against humanity . islam forbids killing of civilians. Learn from the iraqi resistance on what is a ´ ´ retaliatory attack ´ ´

This type of attack has no bases in Islam and its a political blunder if any nut cases act on this way. it will aid the CIA/Mossad genda and make the muslims look ugly.

ALQUAIDA IS A CIA/MOSSAD FRONT AND YOU JUS ARE THE LACKEYS OF THE CIA AND THE MOSSAD

Some people in the name of Islam tend to say that Islam is "peace".So it is "wrong" to stand for justice.

These people not only abuse the teaching of Islam but also kill the mission for whom Allah sent Muslims on the earth.

Actually peace or no peace,violence or non-violence etc. are relative terms.Justice or Adalaat is the parmanent attribute of Allah.

Muslims must continue to accomplish the mission of universal justice be it violent or non violent.

This article is a nice political analyses.An eye opener for both Muslims as well as non-Muslims.

Thanks to the author.

May Allah protect her.

The Qur'an permits fighting to defend the religion of Islam and the Muslims. This permission includes fighting in self-defense and for the protection of family and property. The early Muslims fought many battles against their enemies under the leadership of the Prophet Muhammad(S) or his representatives. For example, when the pagans of Quraysh brought armies against Prophet Muhammad(S), the Muslims fought to defend their faith and community(3). The Qur'an adds:

"Fight in the cause of Allah against those who fight against you, but do not transgress limits. Lo! Allah loves not aggressors. ...And fight them until persecution is no more, and religion is for Allah. But if they desist, then let there be no hostility except against transgressors." (The Holy Quran, 2:190, 193)

"If you fear treachery from any group, throw back (their treaty) to them, (so as to be) on equal terms. Lo! Allah loves not the treacherous." (The Holy Quran, 8:58)

Death to Osam Alquaida zarquai and their masters the CIA/Mossad

Allah admonishes Muslims in the Qur'an:

"And why should you not fight in the cause of Allah and of those who, being weak, are ill-treated (and oppressed)? - Men, women, and children, whose cry is: 'Our Lord! Rescue us from this town, whose people are oppressors; and raise for us from You, one who will protect; and raise for us from You, one who will help.'" (The Holy Quran, 4:75)

The mission of the Prophet Muhammad(S) was to free people from tyranny and exploitation by oppressive systems. Once free, individuals in the society were then free to chose Islam or not. Prophet Muhammad's(S) successors continued in his footsteps and went to help oppressed people. For example, after the repeated call by the oppressed people of Spain to the Muslims for help, Spain was liberated by Muslim forces and the tyrant rulers removed. After the conquest of Syria and Iraq by the Muslims, the Christian population of Hims reportedly said to the Muslims:

"We like your rule and justice far better than the state of oppression and tyranny under which we have been living."(Hitti, Philip K., History of the Arabs, St. Martin's Press, New York, 1970, p. 153. )

The defeated rulers of Syria were Roman Christians, and Iraq was ruled by Zoarastrian Persians.

Muslims should remove tyranny, treachery, bigotry, and ignorance and replace them with justice and equity. We should provide truthful knowledge and free people from the bondage of 'associationism' (Shirk, or multiple gods), prejudice, superstition and mythology. Muslims remove immorality, fear, crime, exploitation and replace them with divine morality, peace and education. The Qur'an declares:

"Lo! Allah commands you that you restore deposits to their owners, and if you judge between mankind that you judge justly. Lo! It is proper that Allah admonishes you. Lo! Allah is ever Hearer, Seer." (The Holy Quran, 4:58)

"O you who believe! Stand out firmly for Allah's witnesses to fair dealing, and let not the hatred of others to you make you swerve to wrong and depart from justice. Be just: that is next to Piety and fear Allah. And Allah is well acquainted with all that you do." (The Holy Quran, 5:8)

"And of those whom We have created there is a nation who guides with the Truth and establishes justice with it." (The Holy Quran, 7:181)

"Lo! Allah enjoins justice and kindness, and giving to kinsfolk, and forbids lewdness and abomination and wickedness. He exhorts you in order that you may take heed." (The Holy Quran, 16:90)

"Those who, if We give them power in the land, establish prescribed prayers (salah) and pay the poor-due (zakah) and enjoin right conduct and forbid evil. And with Allah rests the end (and decision) of (all) affairs." (The Holy Quran, 22:41)

DID ISLAM SPREAD BY FORCE, SWORDS OR GUNS?

The unequivocal and emphatic answer is No! The Qur'an declares:

"Let there be no compulsion (or coercion) in the religion (Islam). The right direction is distinctly clear from error." (The Holy Quran, 2:256)

Flying plane in to a tower and bombing train and killing civilians are the act of evil and it is not 'stand for justice' it is abusing the teaching of Islam

The Preaching of Islam

by a_family_member_of_adam_and_eve on 09.07.2005 [14:47 ]

Here is a good study of the question of the spread of Islam by a Christian missionary, T. W.

Arnold:

"...of any organized attempt to force the acceptance of Islam on the non-Muslim population, or of any systematic persecution intended to stamp out the Christian religion, we hear nothing. Had the caliphs chosen to adopt either course of action, they might have swept away Christianity as easily as Ferdinand and Isabella drove Islam out of Spain, or Louis XIV made Protestantism penal in France, or the Jews were kept out of England for 350 years. The Eastern Churches in Asia were entirely cut off from communion with the rest of Christendom throughout which no one would have been found to lift a finger on their behalf, as heretical communions. So that the very survival of these Churches to the present day is a strong proof of the generally tolerant attitude of Mohammedan sic governments towards them"***

Islam does not teach, nor do Muslims desire, conversion of any people for fear, greed, marriage or any other form of coercion.

In conclusion, jihad in Islam is striving in the way of Allah by pen, tongue, hand, media and, if inevitable, with arms. However, jihad in Islam does not include striving for individual or national power, dominance, glory, wealth, prestige or pride.

American and european people will be liberated by the socalled rag heads in the middle east and they will be greatful to them . There leadership is in a mess and dangerously out of control , killing their own people in the event of 911 , madrid bombing and the latest london bombing and slandering the muslims for it in order to justify their oil and land grab by this act This is pure evil and a crime against humanity.
