

Connecting the Dots

Is 9-11 Truth Movement Sponsored by the Israeli Lobby? by Victor Thorn

This could be quite possibly the biggest question ever asked of truth seekers everywhere: do you truly want to see the cold-blooded killers who were responsible for the 9-11 attacks brought to justice, or do you want to continue playing ring-around-the-rosie and tossing handkerchiefs at the issue?

I ask this question because right now we know the “hows” of 9-11 (World Trade Center controlled demolitions, and no Flights 77 and 93 at the Pentagon and Shanksville). We also know the “whys” of 9-11 (a new Pearl Harbor to facilitate a Middle East invasion).

So, doesn't it seem like a logical step to finally focus our attention on the “whos” of 9-11?

I'm not talking about the “plumbers” who actually planted explosives inside the twin towers, or even the “Evil 13” hands-on implementers (see: Phantom Flight 93).

Instead, what I'm referring to is the ultimate driving force behind this diabolical plot: the nation of Israel. They are, as a few other brave souls have pointed out, the lumbering elephant in a room which most everyone in the 9-11 truth movement, alternative media, and patriot movement refuse to confront (or even acknowledge, for that matter).

This situation is so glaringly apparent that it seems as if the Israeli Lobby is sponsoring most every 9-11 event, along with the majority of Internet “truth” sites and radio shows. I mean, it appears as if every possible avenue of investigation is fair game (even those that are patently absurd) except for one: ISRAEL. The protection racket which has been erected around this issue is so obvious that I can't believe more truth-seekers aren't erupting over it.

But then again, since Israel's Lobby has cornered the 9-11 market, what's so surprising about this revelation? That's how this entire scenario was planned from day one – way before the events of September 11, 2004 ever unfolded.

If you don't believe me, look at the following figures in the 9-11 truth movement (some of whom have otherwise done fine work):

Alex Jones: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks

Dave von Kleist: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks

9-11 Truth.org: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks

Paul J. Watson: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks
Wayne Madsen: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks
Jimmy Walter: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks
Gabriel Day: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks
Janice Matthews: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks
David Kubiak: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks
Les Jamieson: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks
M. Chossudovsky: refuses to examine Israel's role as a key conspirator in the 9-11 attacks

I could continue for pages, but instead I'll simply ask: why aren't these individuals covering Israel's direct involvement in the planning, coordination, execution, and cover-up of the 9-11 attacks?

Especially when the terrorist nation of ISRAEL was directly involved in 9-11.

If you're still not convinced, take a look at George Noory's Coast-to-Coast AM radio show. The only 9-11 figures who are ever full-fledged guests on his show are those who belong to the "club" – i.e. those who unflinchingly protect Israel at any cost. Furthermore, in the ten+ years that it's been on the air where literally every conceivable subject under the sun has been discussed, not once has there ever been a show devoted to Israel's multitudinous crimes - EVER! Doesn't anyone ever scratch their head and wonder why? Do you think it could be deliberate, especially considering that they're owned by Clear Channel? Also, don't be fooled when these individuals use diversionary buzzwords such as "neo-con," "Illuminati," "New World Order," or "globalist," for they're nothing more than a way to sugar-coat the reality of this situation. Even the use of "Zionist" isn't fully sufficient, for if we're going to expose the true 9-11 culprits, let's identify them forthwith: the nation of Israel and the Israeli Lobby.

Luckily there are a few courageous souls such as John Kaminski, Eric Hufschmid, Mike Rivero, Christopher Bollyn, Michael Collins Piper, Bill Brumbaugh, and the American Free Press who have exposed Israel's involvement in 9-11, while others such as Morgan Reynolds, Professor Jim Fetzer, and Vyzygoth are at least willing to discuss and/or acknowledge the problem. So, sure, the Israeli Lobby will continue to allow a few "limited hang-outs" to be thrown into the public arena (i.e. Charlie Sheen), but be damn sure about one thing: the perpetrators behind 9-11 blew their operation big-time, and they now know that more and more people realize that it was an inside job. The only thing they're trying to salvage right now is the identity of who ultimately planned and benefited the most from 9-11 --- ISRAEL.

If you want the ultimate, unimpeded 9-11 truth, there's only one direction left to investigate: Israel. Everything else is simply spinning your wheels (i.e. being manipulated by Israel via the assorted members of their protection racket).
