The Media Calls him Al Qaeda, but his Jewish Father calls him Adam Pearlman

By Curt Maynard

The CNN article[1] is entitled "American al Qaeda: U.S. should convert to Islam," and if that wasn't scary enough the article then quotes one of the speakers on the alleged "Al Qaeda" tape, a Jew named Adam Pearlman, "We invite all Americans and believers to Islam, whatever their role and status in Bush and Blair's world order...Decide today, because today could be your last day." The article then quotes an alleged "expert," on Al Qaeda and terrorism, a woman named Laura Mansfield, who says, "the time reference could indicate an attack is near. Muslims believe that non-believers should be given a chance to convert before they are attacked." Booga booga!

What the CNN article never mentions is that Adam Gadhn, or "Azzam the American," as the media likes to refer to him, is in reality a Jew from California named Adam Pearlman. I'm not kidding reader, I'm as serious as a heart attack, Azzam the American is a Jew. CNN isn't the only negligent news agency, not a single one of the television networks have mentioned Gadahn's/Pearlman's pedigree, not one. The only news source I am aware of that has mentioned the fact that "Azzam the American" is Jewish, was the LA Times and the Washington Post, and then only in the most cryptic manner.

According to Xymphora, a very credible Internet blog that cited/sourced the Times and Post articles, the Times noted in a "characteristically coy" manner:

"In 1995, at 17, Adam Gadahn moved out of the family's Winchester home, his father said, because 'he wanted out of the country and wanted to be in the city,' where he lived with relatives in Garden Grove. [2]"

Xymphora then presents what is referred to as the details of the case, provided by the Washington Post, which the LA Times conveniently neglected to mention and that was exactly who these relatives were.

"While living with his grandparents in suburban Santa Ana, he made his first trip to the nearby mosque in 1995. He introduced himself as Yahya - the Arabic name for John the Baptist, revered as a great prophet in Islam."

That's right reader, Gadahn/Pearlman's "relatives," were actually his grandparents. Now here's the interesting part, Pearlman's grandfather was a sitting board member on the Anti-Defamation League, a notoriously anti-Gentile organization that has historically attacked anything and everything that could in any way be considered Christian, wholesome, virtuous, honorable, etc... The ADL is the primary force behind the assault on Mel Gibson,[3] anytime anyone utters what could in any way be perceived as anything less than pro-Jewish, Abraham Foxman, the Director of the ADL, immediately begins a well orchestrated smear campaign, designed to do one thing, force an apology, which can then be spun by the ADL into an admission that whatever errant individual they have targeted was wrong and probably anti-Semitic for saying whatever it was that "offended," the ADL.

In a past essay I noted:

"In reality, the ADL is nothing more than a political arm of organized world Zionism. It is essentially an organization that is designed to smear the reputation of those that dare question the motives of Zionism and often, individual Zionists acting out of sheer selfishness or on behalf of their co-ethnics. The ADL has the ear of government, the judiciary and law enforcement, it has managed to insert itself in these venues by claiming to represent the underdog, which is generally understood to mean minorities in our present day and age... The ADL engages in defamation, in fact it has mastered the art of defamation - it can and does defame anyone that attempts to bring attention to issues that organized Zionism wants kept under wraps. Interestingly, Foxman and the ADL aren't in the least bit hesitant to engage in this type of disingenuous behavior, in fact they do so in the open, relying on the media, which is disproportionately owned, operated and managed by Jewish Zionists to convey to the world the ADL's goal while at the same time suppressing the League's defamatory techniques." [4]

Nothing has changed of course, the media continues its subterfuge, that is why Adam Gadahn's true background remains unknown to the vast majority of Americans, the media refuses to tell viewers that Adam Gadahn, "Azzam the American," is in reality a Californian Jew with a penchant for "death metal," music [5] that just happened to "convert," to Islam, and become an important player in Al Qaeda, so important in fact, that Al Qaeda's number Two, Ayman al-Zawahiri himself, introduces "Azzam the American," in the latest Al Qaeda taped threat. [6]

Wake up America, you're being lied to.

CNN is not going to correct itself on this one. It never does. If people, "trust CNN", it may be because you can't tell the difference between distortion propaganda and honest coverage.

"Never tell the Truth" is one of the main principles of the Devil worshipping Jews. And "false flag" terrorist attacks to be blamed on their victims are a staple of Israeli intelligence operations. When Jewish assassins blew up the King David Hotel in 1948 they dressed as Arabs to try and divert the guilt from themselves. This latest lie and the 9-11-01 attacks are more of the same.
