

The True Knowledge of The Three Minds: When The Three Become One By: Sorcha Faal “With knowledge obtained from the most ancient of texts, including the Gospel of Mary Magdalene, join Sorcha Faal on one of the most incredible and important journeys into the truest knowledge of human beings. (Continued)

Picking up the Pieces: Practical Guide for Surviving Economic Crashes, Internal Unrest and Military Suppression By: Sorcha Faal “In the span of less than 3 months gasoline prices will rise 500%. The prices of both food and shelter rise over 300%. (Continued)

Partisans Handbook: By: Sorcha Faal “Essential Survival Guide For Resisting Foreign Military Occupation, Escape And Evasion Techniques, Surviving Interrogation, Facing Execution, Wilderness Survival (Continued)

The Children of Winter: Apocalyptic Message of Hope By: Sorcha Faal "Not told by Sorcha herself alone, but by the Children of Winter themselves, who at 6 years of age the weather had no effect upon them as they walked naked in the snows of winter. Who at 10 years of age could walk through boiling water with no burns or (Continued)

October 15, 2006

US President Bush Makes Massive Land Purchase In Paraguay Ahead Of Expected War Crimes Charges

By: Sorcha Faal, and as reported to her Western Subscribers

Russian Intelligence Analysts are reporting today that the American President’s daughter, Jenna Bush, has secured on behalf of her father, the American President, and the Bush Family, the purchase of nearly 100,000 acres of land in the South American Nation of Paraguay, and which is also confirmed by the Latin American News Service, and as we can read as reported in their article titled "Bush Buys Land in Northern Paraguay", and which says:

"An Argentine official regarded the intention of the George W. Bush family to settle on the Acuifero Guarani (Paraguay) as surprising, besides being a bad signal for the governments of the region. Luis D Elia, undersecretary for the Social Habitat in the Argentine Federal Planning Ministry, issued a memo partially reproduced by digital INFOBAE.com, in which he spoke of the purchase by Bush of a 98,842-acre farm in northern Paraguay, between Brazil and Bolivia."

The American President's daughter had used the cover of a United Nations group to 'cover' her mission to Paraguay to arrange this massive land purchase, and as we can see confirmed by the Associated Press News Service in their article titled "Jenna Bush joins UNICEF program in Paraguay", and which says:

"Jenna Bush came to this poor, landlocked South American country to take part in a UNICEF program for young professionals who volunteer in its activities here, the U.N. organization announced Monday. UNICEF released few details about the program involving the 24-year-old daughter of U.S. President George W. Bush, citing security concerns."

These reports suggest the these actions being taken by the Bush Family are in response to the expected War Crime Charges being filed by the International Committee for the Red Cross, and which we had reported on in our October 15, 2005 report titled 'War Crimes' Portfolio against United States President, Vice President and Defense Secretary Opened By International Committee of the Red Cross Charging 'Crimes Against Humanity'', and wherein we had stated:

"Kremlin sources are reporting today that the International Committee of the Red Cross, based in Switzerland, has opened a War Crimes Portfolio charging the United States President, Vice President, Defense Secretary, United States Military Commanders and the majority of United States Senators and Congressmen with 'Crimes Against Humanity' over what the United Nations has declared as an 'illegal' war in the Middle Eastern Country of Iraq, and where the innocent civilian death toll is nearing 30,000."

"This is reported to be only the second time in the International Committee of the Red Cross's history where a War Crimes Portfolio has been opened against the Civilian and Military Leadership of a sovereign country, with the first being opened in 1943 against the Nazi German Empire and its Chancellor, Adolph Hitler, and various other civilian and military leaders of that country."

The ties between the Bush Family Cartel and Paraguay predate the current American President and have their roots going back to his grandfather Prescott Bush, the top American financier for the German Nazi Regime.

These ties between South America and the Bush's were further solidified during the 1970's when the current American President's father, George Bush Sr., was director of the American Central Intelligence Agency, and working with then US Secretary of State, Henry Kissinger, unleashed what was called 'Operation Condor' upon the South American Continent, and as we can read:

"Operation Condor, South American assassination cartel, the year George Bush Sr. is CIA director. In 1976, Nelson Rockefeller was Vice President (to Ford), and his advisor Henry Kissinger was Secretary of State. In this year Kissinger's puppet dictator Pinochet, of Chile, organized Operation CONDOR, to co-ordinate death squad assassinations by the secret police of the dictators of Chile, Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay, and Paraguay."

Further complicating the current state of affairs in the United States for their Military Leaders is their continued refusal to release for trial the infamous International Terrorist, and former Operation Condor operative, Luis Posada Carriles, and as we can read as reported by the People's Weekly World News Service in their article titled "Posada and Bush's 'war on terror' jam", and which says:

"Cuban exile and accused terrorist Luis Posada Carriles is back in the news. Posada is the admitted mastermind behind the bombing of a Cubana Airlines jet, which killed 73 people in a midair explosion over Barbados on Oct. 6, 1976."

Nicknamed "the bin Laden of Latin America," Posada, currently being held at an El Paso, Texas, detention center for violating immigration law, presents a quandary for the Bush administration and its “war on terrorism.”

U.S. plans to deport Posada have gone awry. At least seven countries — Canada, Mexico, Panama, Costa Rica, Guatemala, Honduras and El Salvador — have refused to take him.

At the same time, the Bush administration has refused to honor Venezuela’s request for Posada’s extradition to stand trial there. Posada is a Venezuelan citizen. In 1985, he escaped from a Venezuelan jail (with CIA help) while standing trial for the airliner bombing.

The hypocritical stand is only part of the problem the Bush administration faces. Posada worked for the CIA as a demolitions expert, saboteur and plotter of violent crimes. He helped organize well over 100 murderous attacks throughout Latin America and the United States. He was involved in Contra operations in Nicaragua, hotel bombings in Havana in 1997, and an assassination attempt against Cuban President Fidel Castro in 2000.

And according to newly released documents from National Security Archives, Posada told the CIA that he and other exile cohorts like Orlando Bosch (who freely walks the streets of Miami) were planning to bomb the plane.

Cuba’s National Assembly President Ricardo Alarcon said the Bush administration has a self-interest in covering up the case and declassified information. “The Bush administration wants to avoid a trial at all costs because someone will ask about the role of the CIA, and its director in 1976 was George Bush Sr.,” said Alarcon.”

Most importantly about these events are the American people themselves, who in their failure to either see, or acknowledge, what their Nation has truly become, and which with each passing day resembles more and more the dreaded, and horrific, Nazi Empire of last century, and who’s leaders after their defeat had likewise sought refuge and protection from War Crimes Trials in the jungles of South America, will soon wake up to the true nightmare of what they’ve become.

© October 15, 2006 EU and US all rights reserved.

[Ed. Note: The United States government actively seeks to find, and silence, any and all opinions about the United States except those coming from authorized government and/or affiliated sources, of which we are not one. No interviews are granted and very little personal information is given about our contributors to protect their safety.]

Return To Main Page

Return To Alternative News