

Internet genocide: Israel backed by army of cyber-soldiers from Henk Ruysenaars + Times - 29.07.2006 20:13

"IN THE PAST WEEK NEARLY 5,000 MEMBERS OF THE WORLD UNION OF JEWISH STUDENTS (WUJS) HAVE DOWNLOADED SPECIAL "MEGAPHONE" SOFTWARE THAT ALERTS THEM TO ANTI-ISRAELI CHATROOMS OR INTERNET POLLS TO ENABLE THEM TO POST CONTRARY VIEWPOINTS."

George Washington: "If the freedom of speech is taken away, then dumb and silent we may be led, like sheep to the slaughter." - And the Israeli cyber-soldiers turn into war criminals, with a tsunami of lies defending the genocide perpetrated by their Masters.

Background information why this is done on a global scale, and about the reward (loot) - not only through their illegal invasion and genocide in Lebanon, stealing land and water (Litani river) again - Url.: <http://www.nogw.com/warforisrael.html>

Israel backed by army of cyber-soldiers

From Yonit Farago - The Times in Jerusalem

WHILE ISRAEL FIGHTS HEZBOLLAH WITH TANKS AND AIRCRAFT, ITS SUPPORTERS ARE CAMPAIGNING ON THE INTERNET.

July 28, 2006 - Israel's Government has thrown its weight (HR: US $billions) behind efforts by supporters to counter what it believes to be negative bias and a tide of pro-Arab propaganda.* The Foreign Ministry has ordered trainee diplomats to track websites and chatrooms so that networks of US and European groups with hundreds of thousands of Jewish activists can place supportive messages.

A student team in Jerusalem combs the web in a host of different languages to flag the sites so that those who have signed up can influence an opinion survey or the course of a debate. Jonny Cline, of the international student group, said that Jewish students and youth groups with their understanding of the web environment were ideally placed to present another side to the debate.

"We're saying to these people that if Israel is being bashed, don't ignore it, change it," Mr Cline said. "A poll like CNN's takes just a few seconds to vote in, but if thousands take part the outcome will be changed.

What's vital is that the international face of the conflict is balanced."

Doron Barkat, 29, in Jerusalem, spends long nights trawling the web to try to swing the debate Israel's way. "When I see internet polls for or against Israel I send out a mailing list to vote for Israel," he said. "It can be that after 15 minutes there will be 400 votes for Israel.

"It's very satisfying. There are also forums where Lebanese and Israelis talk."

Israel's Foreign Ministry must avoid direct involvement with the campaign but is in contact with international Jewish and evangelical Christian groups, distributing internet information packs.

AMIR GISSIN, THE ISRAELI FOREIGN MINISTRY'S PUBLIC RELATIONS DIRECTOR, SAID:

"THE INTERNET'S BECOME A LEADING TOOL FOR NEWS, SHAPING THE WORLD VIEW OF MILLIONS. OUR PROBLEM IS THE FOREIGN MEDIA SHOWS LEBANESE SUFFERING, BUT NOT ISRAELI.

[HR COMMENT: I'VE ALSO WORKED AS A CORRESPONDENT FOR TEN YEARS IN THE AREA, BUT THIS IS ONE OF THE WORST BLATANT LIES I'VE HEARD FOR DECADES.]

We're bypassing that filter by distributing pictures showing how northern Israelis suffer from Katyusha rocket attacks."

HR: As a professional and global foreign correspondent for four decades, I can only say that not only do the war makers - the 'London War Lords' and their malignant ilk own nearly all major information outlets in the world: they use them 24/7 to brainwash and lie. In nearly every country I've seen. This is both a professional and human point of view. Worse liars and distorters/destroyers of facts I've never seen.

As I wrote concerning the present wars and their war crimes: Lebanon: Throw out war propagandists like the BBC, FOX, CNN etc. - Url.:
