‘They were targeting the children’

Hamas denies any involvement in the deaths.

[The mother of the three dead boys \[3, 6, and 9\]](#), Linda Balousha, 33, an accountant, was in her bedroom when she heard the shooting. Bodyguards would not let her or her husband down on to the street. "I could smell the smoke and the bullets from the window," she said.

"Their father started to scream: 'the children, the children,' and I saw from the window the white car was stopped, its windows were broken."

There seemed little doubt among the family yesterday that the gunmen had purposely sought to kill the children, not the father. "It wasn't a mistake," said Mrs Balousha. "They were targeting the children."

Only israelis are capable of doing this.

It could very well have been the Israeli's.

I just have some questions:

1.) If Israel is as heinous as you purport 24/7, then why would they care about a couple more children? Its not like its the first, or even the 100th time they've killed children. I understand the concept of false flag ops and psy ops, and the importance of keeping palestine divided, but those are not mentioned reasons. All that is stated is "Only israelis are capable of doing this".

2.) When does it not become the Israeli's? Is it just that there is absolutely no inter-faction fighting between Hamas and Fatah? Is that all just one enormous myth created by the western media, and al-jazeera, and pretty much every news service of the world?

I'm not saying its not possible, i'm just wondering when evidence is required, and when is it ACTUALLY Hamas, or other organizations.

Jebus,

In almost any situation you can ask "Who benefits" form what has transpired and that will usually be your culprits.

In this case, what does Hamas or Fatah have to gain by targeting children specifically? Not really anything that I can discern.

On the other hand, the Israelis have been given another pass with regards to negotiations with the Palestinians.
