Holocaust Denier to Be Freed From Jail

Holocaust Denier to Be Freed From Jail" VIENNA, Austria

A Vienna court on Wednesday ruled that British author David Irving, convicted on charges of denying the Holocaust, should serve the rest of his three-year sentence on probation.

Vienna's highest court granted Irving's appeal and ruled to convert two-thirds of Irving's three-year sentence into probation, the Austria Press Agency reported. Since Irving has already spent more than 13 months behind bars, the ruling means he will be released from prison, according to APA.

In February, another Vienna court sentenced Irving to three years behind bars under a 1992 law, which applies to "whoever denies, grossly plays down, approves or tries to excuse the National Socialist genocide or other National Socialist crimes against humanity in a print publication, in broadcast or other media."

The law calls for a prison term of up to 10 years.

During his one-day trial earlier this year, Irving pleaded guilty to the charge of denying the Holocaust but maintained he never questioned it in the first place.

Both the defense and the prosecution appealed the sentence. In...

...September, Austria's highest court upheld Irving's conviction.

Irving has been in custody in Austria since his November 2005 arrest on charges stemming from two speeches he gave in Austria in 1989 for which he was accused of denying the Nazis' extermination of 6 million Jews. He has contended that most of those who died at concentration camps like Auschwitz succumbed to diseases such as typhus rather than execution.

Irving was present at Wednesday's hearing and was brought into the packed courtroom in handcuffs.

Fan-bloody-tastic news!

by hellsbells on 20.12.2006 [13:14]

David Irving has been cooped up for 23 hours per day in a 8'x10' cell - small bathroom size - for the past year. He found the food dreadful: as the picture shows he has lost a lot of weight. But he wrote 13,000 pages of memoirs!

Hope he can go home to UK and recuperate his health. He should never have been banged up in pokey for even a single hour.

Celebrations!

La propaganda nos llena cada dia de mensajes sobre la "dictadura" castrista que encierra a sus oponentes y la "democratiquisima" Europa ,en cambio, mete en la cárcel a los intelectuales no ortodoxos, como en los tiempos de Savonarola, a el lo quemaron, o a Galileo. Hipòcritas!!!

Holocaust Revisionism in One Easy Lesson

http://www.wakeupfromyourslumber.com/node/258

Holocaust believers have tried to taint Irving's character by pointing out his past associations with racist groups.

First of all, that shows that the Holocaust believers can't refute his arguments logically.

Second of all, the Holocaust believers are themselves sympathetic to racist groups such as Israel, England, or the USA.

If having associations to racist groups discredits someone automatically, then the Holocaust believers are immediately discredited due to their own connections with various racist groups.

But we don't look at the associations of the person making the argument; rather we look at the logic of the argument itself. That's the right way to go about it.

We ask the same basic, honest, obvious questions over and over again:
If those camps were extermination camps, how were there so many survivors?

How were there people who survived for months, and even years?

Holocaust believers hear these questions, and instead of answering logically, they just sputter and point their fingers and cry, "anti-semitic."

Well then just remind them that their precious little Israel is butchering Semitic Arabs and tormenting them every day.

Irving sued Lipstadt ...

by hellsbells on 20.12.2006 [15:07]

... for calling him a holocaust denier. First, Irving wrote hardly anything about the Jewish program, whatever it was, as his work covered the whole canvas of WWII: campaigns, personalities, weapons. He was widely appreciated by many readers. Then, around 1978, in Hitler's War he noted that he could not find any Hitler order to murder Jews. That was his first undoing.

It was only in 1988 at the second Zundel Trial that he heard Leuchter state that in his professional engineering opinion there were no nazi gas chambers at Auschwitz, Birkenau & Majdanek.

It was after this revelation that in 1989 Irving said in Austria that there were no gas chambers. 1989!!! For this remark 16 years later he was arrested & jailed. The law used to imprison him hadn't been written in 1989!!! Normally the statute of limitations expires after 5 or 10 years.

Irving's first book was the Destruction of Dresden and THAT was a Holocaust! So he is no holocaust denier, despite what the headline writers might write.

Lipstadt's website denies Dresden Holocaust

by Iranian-Shi'ite on 20.12.2006 [16:31]

Lipstadt's website (hdot.org) links to some pages by Evans who challenges Irving's findings that allied planes strafed areas around Dresden because supposedly allied planes could not make it that far and have enough fuel for strafing.

It also reports contradictory findings by the victims who sometimes stated British aircraft and sometimes stated US aircraft. (Couldn't it have been both?) Well excuse the victims who are running for cover for not noticing the exact type of airplane that was strafing them!

It appears that the Holocaust believers have no problem dismissing the massacres inflicted against the Germans or Palestinians or Iraqis.

UNICEF reported that between 1991 and 1995 that US sanctions in Iraq killed 500,000 children. Zionist Madeline Albright stated that it "was worth it."

Letter to a friend in London from Vienna Prison dated September 27, 2006.

by sjreese on 20.12.2006 [18:52]

This letter contains several self-pitying whines - just like a Jew - and one or two suggestions. Normally I begin by saying I'm fit but I'm not - my muscles are all beginning to ache; lack of proper and variegated exercise (cell is only 8 feet by 10, and mostly filled with double bunk (cot is 2 inches too small for a 6'2" man) cupboard and table and 2 iron chairs) and yesterday for no reason being given we were locked down for 24 hours altho' it was sunny outside; worst, in the long run, is the cheap food, mostly cast-off and out of date, rice, rotten fruit, thin soups with the powder still floating etc. It is impossible to get any salads or greens - none is provided and none is for sale; in the long run this will do me no good. I bought a litre of pure lemon juice to get the vitamin "c", or I'll go down with scurvy; and a litre of orange-coloured syrup. Yesterday night at the wee hours, emphasis on the wee, I mixed a drink of lemon and syrup; it foamed instead of fizzed, not a good sign... lay curled up in the cot wondering why the drink left a burning taste. Realised the cell cleaning detergent comes in a 1 litre bottle of same size, shape and colour as the lemon juice standing next to it. Well, at least I'll be clean inside for a month or two.

My cash is now down to around 150 euros, which will last 2 weeks - mostly spent on stamps and phone cards. I am still getting 100 letters a week, half from strangers; I answer them all, and letters to the USA cost 1.30 € (around $2.00...). ...

Still waiting for the appeal hearing, presumably in November. Writing is going well, tho' today I am stricken by a Great Lethargy, to which the detergent may have contributed. At least it wasn't bleach. That might have had the Coroner guessing.

Dr. David Irving

A reminder

by Q' on 20.12.2006 [19:19]

Truth needs no laws to support it. Truth can withstand examination time and again. Throughout history, from Galileo to Zundel, only lies and liars have resorted to the courts to enforce adherence to dogma.

Quoted from whr.com

Germar Rudolf further proved Irving right with his scientific examination of Auschwitz camp. There is no way gas can be used on camp without getting the soldiers killed as well. The places aren't not properly isolated. The real fact is the so called "Holocaust with human soap" turned out to be the biggest scam in the century. After all, the number of Askenazi killed at that time keeps falling.
