JFK: America's Last Real President

Filed under: Israel, JFK — joannafrancis @ 8:31 pm

Forty-three years ago today, the coup d'etat of America was completed. President John F. Kennedy was the last American president to attempt to put American interests first - and it cost him his life. Since then, our country has been the servant of the Jewish state and her Israeli-in-exile citizens with American passports. After that fateful day, the country plunged headlong into Vietnam, the sexual revolution eroded American family life, and, most importantly, Israel became the tail that wagged the American dog. The country was never the same after November 22, 1963 - morally, socially or spiritually. And this was by design.

In recent years, the media has delighted in airing the sordid details of President Kennedy's sexual peccadillos in an attempt to sully his reputation so that the American people no longer care who assassinated him. But it is no coincidence that Israel suddenly achieved complete hegemony over her neighbors, and total control over every organ of American government after JFK's death. And it is no accident that the malevolent forces of Jewish leftism were unleashed on our society, resulting in the loss of our innocence, our families, 40 million babies through abortion, and our national reputation and sovereignty.

This was all made possible by a sort of double, simultaneous coup: the coup d'eglise of the Catholic Church at Vatican II (1962-1965) and the coup d'etat of America with the assassination of President Kennedy. The last two bulwarks against total world hegemony by the Zionists were felled at the same time - and by the same people. The cost in human lives and suffering as a result of these two events has been nothing short of catastrophic.

For the real story on who killed President Kennedy and why, read Michael Collins Piper's book Final Judgment.

Hint: it wasn't the Mafia (at least not of the Italian variety).

And the son, too.

2. Yes — the Kennedy assassination was THE moment when the USA became a slave to Israel.

Kennedy wanted to further America's relationship with the Arab states, and to encourage a settlement of the Arab refugee issue. He also wanted to prevent Israel from having the Bomb. In June 1963, he gave a speech at the American University (Washington DC) clarifying his stance on nuclear proliferation. It enraged Israel. Two months later, he increased his threats against Israel if the Zionists didn't back off regarding their nuclear weapons program. Three months after that, Kennedy was assassinated.

Johnson, his replacement, surrounded himself with Zionist Jews all his life, and continued to do so in the White House. He personally ordered the U.S. Sixth Fleet NOT to help the USS Liberty. (Kennedy personally ordered the Pentagon to cancel its "Operation Northwoods" plan when he found out about it.)

Regarding the book "Final Judgment," its author holds that the crime syndicate led by Myer Lansky (a Russian Jew who had intimate ties to Mossad and the CIA) was involved in Kennedy's assassination. On Lansky's payroll was Jack Ruby, the Jew who shot Oswald two days after Oswald shot Kennedy. Ruby, a chain smoker, claimed that Mossad laced some of his cigarettes with plutonium from Israel, causing Ruby to develop his lung cancer.

None of this was mentioned in Oliver Stone's 1991 movie "JFK," since the film's chief money source was Arnon Milchan, formerly Israel's biggest arms dealer. Milchan runs a studio at Rupert Murdoch's 20th Century Fox, and is close friends with Shimon Peres. I could write a book describing Milchan's involvement with Mossad. In 2001 he obtained 850 nuclear triggers (known as krytons) and tried to ship them on an air cargo freighter to Israel. The shipment was made in the name of Richard Kelly Smyth, a former scientific adviser to the US Air Force who fled the USA with the FBI on his heels. The FBI offered Smyth a deal if he would finger Milchan, but Bush quashed everything. As I said, I could fill pages about this Milchan guy.

There are so many weird ironies in all this. Smyth and Kennedy are common Irish names. Mr. Smyth tried to ship the nuclear triggers to Israel from Kennedy Airport. Or here's a kooky tidbit—in March 2006, one of the two authors who published the famous "Israel Lobby" paper was dean of Harvard's KENNEDY School of Management. (My mother's maiden name was Kennedy.)

Anyway Joanna—this was truly a whiz-bang blog post you wrote. I salute you!!!! What a profound way to remember a President who sincerely tried to better America, until America's archenemy removed him.

3. I was not yet quite 12 years old on that day when the American Dream died and became the American Nightmare. Somehow I knew at my tender age, that it was all over and done, though I could never begin to understand why, until 40 odd years later. How could it ever take America 43 wasted years to even begin to realize it was dead? Thank You, Joanna, for your heartbreaking and true commemoration of JFK: America's Last Real President.

5. I am a Canadian with many relatives in the U.S.A. There is nothing I like better than going south of the border to visit my relatives and now my grandchildren. Yes I remember when JFK was murdered and I had a gut feeling of whom but one would not dare at that time say it. Yes America is now not the same. My question is how come the people on the street do not click in to what is happening?

6. Sounds like we have a whole lot of antisemitism going on here... Why don't we just blame everything on the Jews... those lousey sons of your bitches.... Oh yeah, wasn't christ jewish at one point!
"[Sorry, but your "antisemitism" charge holds no weight here. Not only are most Jews not racial Semites (read Jewish Arthur Koestler's book The Thirteenth Tribe), but Michael Collins Piper's book Final Judgment is irrefutable. That's why no one will debate him. Truth is neither "anti" nor "pro" anything. Facts are facts. Truth is not subjective. And Jesus was an Israelite/Hebrew. The term "Jew" is a rather recent invention. Does it refer to the tribe of Judah? Then the other 11 tribes were not Jews? Or does it refer to Judea? Then the people of non-Judean Israel were not Jews? Modern day Judaism is simply Phariseism, or the continuation of the oral traditions of the elders against which Christ protested, and which got him killed. So he was hardly a proponent of Talmudic Judaism, which is the source of all the misery in the world today. - J.F.]

8. This article, is the very best I have ever read on the Kennedy assassination. For the first time since it happen, I see that others have the same opinion of it, as I have for 42 years. I remember John Kennedy. And trust me, the ones that have followed him are unworthy of him. A true man, in every meaning of the word. As far as his sexual activities, this man was a man of quality. How can one honestly compare Marylin Monroe, and Monica "big lips" Blewinski? And Jackie has never been matched, or even close. Our nation went straight into the gutter after his death. Even my older aunts and Mother say it. We literally watched the Trailer Trash take over our country. Just look at where our nation is today. I doubt he would approve of the rabble on the Right, and no doubt roll his eyes at his own Party. God took him, because he wanted his company.
