“Live from Lebanon”

An 18yr old in Lebanon fears for his life as Israelis bomb everything in sight.

[\[N\]obody really knows the situation out here unless youre here.](#) we are in saida and wallahi there is bombing less than 10mins from where we are staying. we have been hearing bombs and planes and shootin for two days straight now and it doesnt seem like its gunna end anytime soon (thhere is some goin on as i type) israel has bombed EVERY SINGLE STREET AND HIGHWAY that leads anywhere in lebanon. we cant leave saida. and we definately cant leave lebanon since they bombed the airport.

to sum things up, i have never been more terrified for my life as i am right now. nobody can eat and we are all just shaking. my heart is racing 24hrs out of the day because we odnt know what to expect.

WE ARE WATCHIN THE BOMBS DROP AND GUNS SHOOTING FROM OUR BALCONIES. WE SEE EVERYTHING. we were watchin the news and they were showing babies and kids dead. the saddest thing EVER it made us all cry because we are in the situation too. bombs droppin on houses and so forth. but of course the fin media over there shows sh*t all (we were watchin CNN) except some stupid ass town in israel that got a rocket and ONE FREAKIN CASUALTY. INSHALLAH THEY ALL DIE A HORRIBLE AND TORTUROUS DEATH INSHALLAH INSHALLAH INSHALLAH.

I think that it's safe to conclude that Israel's CONDUCT breeds hatred - not its "Jewish" character.

For every civilian Israel kills with impunity, a thousand more will pray for its destruction.

Hey dude, my friend Moishe says you guys are just taking up valuable space anyway and who cares if you shit your pants when the bombs drop on your sorry ass. He says enjoy the fireworks. I think Moise is a punk and hates too much.

I wish someone would nuke Israel right off the map.

Why do we(USA) take sides in a conflict were both sides take pleasure in killing the innocent?

Nuking Israel off the map is a concept just as despicable as what Israel is doing to the Palestinians. Just like the Israelis became the Nazis they supposedly hated, so too are Israel's enemies fated to become like the Nazi Israelis if these lines of logic prevail.

We here in the US are finally starting to see the real face of Israel. But Israel has our nation, government and people by the throats. The most powerful lobby group in the US is the Jewish one. They simply bought and paid our government officials to give them the power they now have. Our government was for sale and the Zionists were willing and smart enough to pay for it. The Arabs could have done the same. They had the wealth that God gave them with the oil but what did they do with that wealth? The Arabs could have been the ones with the powerful lobby in the US but instead they used their wealth to buy fancy golden palaces and gold toilets. I hate the Zionists too. But one thing you can say for them is that they have unity and they pull their money and put it to good use. The Arabs did not do so. And now they are suffering for it. And people like you, innocent civilians are suffering the most. I am praying for you and hope you survive this.

I am going to Key West next week. Almost all of the tee shirt shops are owned by Israelis. I am going to wear a Palestinian flag pin and haggle the shit out of the Zionist bastards. I refuse to buy anything from these Israeli pricks!

Israel is the fly in the ointment to peace in the Middle East.

Is this attack by Israel really surprising people? If so, they haven't tried to find out what has really been going on over there for a long time now. I knew the moment Ariel Sharon stepped back into the public limelight that sh*t was going to hit the fan. Anyone remember the old school bully concept? He just keeps poking you until you finally lose your cool and poke back. Then he feels justified in wacking the heck out of you. Israel is that bully. Talk is cheap. Until the American people enmass start contacting their politicians nothing is going to stop the massacre's the Israeli's have been itching to pull off for a long time. So people, crank out your emails to Cheney, Bush, Rice, Congress, Senate. Take down the phone system with your calls. It is our 3 billion tax dollars a year to this bully that has enabled it to murder at will.

If the "Holy" land were turned into a sheet of glass then all three religions can finally stop fighting over it. None of them deserve it anyway.

Now that's funny!!! I'm gonna do something like that too. HAGGLE AWAY!!!!!!!!!!!!

Now every once in a while, it is good (and healthy for your mind) to do something different, productive. And this is, in it's special way, productive as well!

Cheers!

anonymous said the arabs could have used their money to buy the US government which shows he or she does not know history - Zionism bought the US before the arabs were getting the wealth from oil back before Israel was created, and that is how Israel got created - US president said he had more Jewish voters than Arab voters.

Israel/Palestine is the unholy land. All religions are evil. May Jews, Cristians and Muslims alike kiss my ass. Secular humanism rules!

representative of the Lebanese people or its government.

Imagine a group of Mexican watermelon farmers lobbing watermelons into the US to protest NAFTA. This results in a border patrol SUV overturns, killing 2 border patrol agents and wounding a third. The US response is to bomb Mexico City's airports, and seize Mexico's oil platforms in the gulf, declaring them to be terrorist havens. Make sense? Of course not.

It's called the start of WWII, and don't kid yourself: Israel would not have invaded Lebanon without US approval.

What's Israel's real motivation? Ask yourself:

IF Israel and the U.S. were about to attack Iran or Syria, would Israel keep all its military hardware in Israel (inside the Green Line), where it would be an easier target for counterattack, or would it find excuses to move its weapons into the occupied territories and Lebanon, where Palestinians and Muslims would be de facto human shields?

IF Israel and the U.S. were about to attack Iran or Syria, wouldn't the most strategic location for Israel's ground forces be in the occupied territories, adjacent to many Muslim countries that might be tempted to come to Iran's aid (Syria, Egypt, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia)?

While you're pondering these questions, consider-

- The invasion of Gaza was planned months ago
- Yesterday's invasion of Lebanon
- Israel's blaming Syria and Iran for events in Lebanon
- The US and Israel now blaming Iran and Syria for what happens in Gaza and Beirut
- The US statement weeks ago that "Iran has weeks not months"
- The joint US-Israeli statement that Israel and the US agree on the same timetable for Iran
- That the US naval attack groups reported steaming to the Middle East weeks ago must be there by now
- The very fortunate timing for the US and Israel that Iran is right now being referred to the UN Security Council
- Israel's recent unprovoked overflights of Syria's Presidential palace
- The recent conclusion of the US's largest continuity of government exercise ever
- The many high-level meetings between US and Iraqi officials, and US and Israeli officials
