Lockerbie - new forensic tests suggest evidence was planted by the CIA

On 19 February 2006, The Mail on Sunday reported that new forensic tests have been carried out by the lawyers representing Al Megrahi, the Libyan jailed in connection with the Lockerbie bombing.

Defence experts simulated the Lockerbie explosion. The results showed that the device which detonated the bomb could not have survived the explosion.

According to The Mail on Sunday: "Sources close to Megrahi's lawyers said the new tests pointed to the evidence having been planted at the scene of the crash..."

"The source added that Megrahi's legal team claimed they had obtained 'clear proof' that

What does Aangirfan think? We guess that when the government has stopped blaming the Libyans for Lockerbie, the government will start blaming some other lot of Moslems, such as the Palestinians, Syrians or Iranians.

We reckon that the real culprits, the people who were smuggling heroin on Pan Am planes, may be too powerful to prosecute.

An internal investigation by Pan Am is believed to have found that the bomb planted on Flight 103 was NOT put on the plane in Malta.

The Pan Am report is believed to have concluded that the bomb was not aimed at the killing of Americans in general, but was targeted specifically to kill a small band of DIA operatives that had uncovered a drugs ring run by a CIA unit in Lebanon.

The drugs-ring is said to have been set up by Israeli Mossad agents.

"In 1998, Lindauer was making a deposition in the Lockerbie Trial that contradicted the official Libya did it! yarn, corroborating the accounts of others, such as former DIA operative Lester Coleman that it was instead all about Bekka Valley heroin and CIA drug dealing. (Coleman's book, Trail of the Octopus, can be read online with free registration here.)"

NOW YOU KNOW WHY THEY HATE US. The Bull about our freedoms is all crock. What bothers me is that none of this is being reported in the USA/UK Howish media. Not only was it enough that the zionists had control of the Nazie party and demise but are at it here and all over the world. Over 160 countries have booted them out--LIERS & CHEATS!

It was obvious that the part of the chip was planted. How many miles was it found away from the town? 35? Do you know homy miles of grass and bush that would cover? And even if they did find a real chip that had the number that matched radio that was said to be the bomb. Any good lawyer who was doing his job would simply say that there is not proof that there was not another radio on the place that did not take the impact of the bomb blast that was not the bomb and was owned by another passanger. Resonable I would think. They paid out five billin dollars for nothing. And please don't forget the Lavon Affair.

Those who gave the order to plant the bomb may be too "high level" to prosecute but they aren't too high to be hanged by the people.
