60 Minutes: CIA Official Reveals Bush, Cheney, Rice Were Personally Told Iraq Had No WMD in Fall 2002

Tonight on 60 Minutes, Tyler Drumheller, the former chief of the CIA's Europe division, revealed that in the fall of 2002, President Bush, Vice President Cheney, then-National Security Adviser Condoleezza Rice and others were told by CIA Director George Tenet that Iraq's foreign minister — who agreed to act as a spy for the United States — had reported that Iraq had no active weapons of mass destruction program. Watch it:

BRADLEY: According to Drumheller, CIA Director George Tenet delivered the news about the Iraqi foreign minister at a high level meeting at the White House.

DRUMHELLER: The President, the Vice President, Dr. Rice...

BRADLEY: And at that meeting...?

DRUMHELLER: They were enthusiastic because they said they were excited that we had a high-level penetration of Iraqis.

BRADLEY: And what did this high level source tell you?

DRUMHELLER: He told us that they had no active weapons of mass destruction program.

BRADLEY: So, in the fall of 2002, before going to war, we had it on good authority from a source within Saddam's inner circle that he didn't have an active program for weapons of mass destruction?

DRUMHELLER: Yes.

BRADLEY: There's no doubt in your mind about that?

DRUMHELLER: No doubt in my mind at all.

BRADLEY: It directly contradicts, though, what the President and his staff were telling us.

DRUMHELLER: The policy was set. The war in Iraq was coming, and they were looking for intelligence to fit into the policy, to justify the policy.

References to him always involve colorful language and often include interesting scenarios consisting primarily of some quality "alone" time in a locked room with him.*

Nate, I gotta think no one really wants to piss of the military... and yet the three stooges in Washington don't seem to care at all. Good to hear the soldiers aren't falling for their lies anymore either. We're gonna need them on our side when Bush tried to declare a police state next year.

Thanks for the read unbelievable... I was actually surprised by the level of vitriol coming from these guys. So many of them were so Gung Ho about heading to Iraq just two short years ago. Their morale was extremely high and for the most part, they had great faith in Bush/Cheney/Rumsfeld.

Man the vehemence and venom that laced their conversations about these guys was startling. I'll be if there was a way to do a true poll of active duty military about this administration... The results would stun a stampeding hoarde of neocons into silence and stillness.

10. This interview on CBS with Bradely and Drumheller was well done and could be easily followed so that even the dullest of the 33% that still support the DOLT in the White house could follow it. Bush got away with his ineptness and incompetence prior to and on 9/11. He followed that with his inability to capture bin Laden. He then lied as indicated in the interview about yellow cake and WMDs, resulting in a preemptive invasion of a country that did us no harm but was a target of the PNAC. The lie has escalated into the killing field and money pit of Iraq. The American people are aiding and abetting malfeasance and misfeasance in the highest office in the land each day he is in office. Three(3)more years remain in his term to continue the mischief. His arrogance, cockiness and incompetence are more than a person can endure. The mischief borders on the criminal.

11. Nova,you were rolling along nicely until you got to the part about the American people aiding and abetting. Setting aside the likelihood you are a part of that noble body politic,the only aiding and abetting being done is that associated with having to live with the consequences as well as the benefits of the republic in which we live. Your arrogance,cockiness and incompetence in the accusations you hurl so carelessly is shocking. Too bad because you had every other trite phrasing from the codebook neatly arranged.

15. If I may say, this is confusing. If Tenent told the administration that there was no active WMD program in Iraq, does this not contradict his claim that the reason to go to war in Iraq was because the intelligence connected to Iraq was a “slam dunk”? Which one of Tenent’s assertions is to be believed?

Comment by Erroll — April 23, 2006 @ 9:27 pm

16. DRUMHELLER: The group that was dealing with preparations for the Iraq war came back and said they’re no longer interested. And we said, “Well, what about the intel?” And they said, “Well, this isn’t about intel anymore. This is about regime change.”

Excerpt from the Downingstreet Memo: “C reported on his recent talks in Washington. There was a perceptible shift in attitude. Military action was now seen as inevitable. Bush wanted to remove Saddam, through military action, justified by the conjunction of terrorism and WMD. But the intelligence and facts were being fixed around the policy. The NSC had no patience with the UN route, and no enthusiasm for publishing material on the Iraqi regime’s record. There was little discussion in Washington of the aftermath after military action.”

And from the United Nations Charter:

Charter of the United Nations

We the Peoples of the United Nations...

United for a Better World

WE THE PEOPLES OF THE UNITED NATIONS DETERMINED to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war, which twice in our lifetime has brought untold sorrow to mankind, and to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person, in the equal rights of men and women and of nations large and small, and to establish conditions under which justice and respect for the obligations arising from treaties and other sources of international law can be maintained, and to promote social progress and better standards of life in larger freedom, to practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbours, and to unite our strength to maintain international peace and security, and to ensure, by the acceptance of principles and the institution of methods, that armed force shall not be used, save in the common interest, and to employ international machinery for the promotion of the economic and social advancement of all peoples,

AND FOR THESE ENDS

HAVE RESOLVED TO COMBINE OUR EFFORTS TO ACCOMPLISH THESE AIMS

Accordingly, our respective Governments, through representatives assembled in the city of San Francisco, who have exhibited their full powers found to be in good and due form, have agreed to the present Charter of the United Nations and do hereby establish an international organization to be known as the United Nations. ...

Article 2

The Organization and its Members, in pursuit of the Purposes stated in Article 1, shall act in accordance with the following Principles.

1. The Organization is based on the principle of the sovereign equality of all its Members.

2. All Members, in order to ensure to all of them the rights and benefits resulting from membership, shall fulfill in good faith the obligations assumed by them in accordance with the present Charter.

3. All Members shall settle their international disputes by peaceful means in such a manner that international peace and security, and justice, are not endangered.

4. All Members shall refrain in their international relations from the threat or use of force against the territorial integrity or political independence of any state, or in any other manner inconsistent with the Purposes of the United Nations.

I submit that as a member State of the United Nations we are bound by its Charter.

(United States Constitution, Article VI. ... This Constitution, and the Laws of the United States which shall be made in Pursuance thereof; and all Treaties made, or which shall be made, under the Authority of the United States, shall be the supreme Law of the Land)

I submit that to initiate a war of aggression for regime change violates Article 2, Section 4 of the United Nations Charter.

In the past, I have asked I-Right-I and Mighty Aphrodite (who claims to be an attorney) to make their case justifying Bush's war, citing relevant international treaties, charters and conventions. So far, they have refused to do so.

I present the above documents to demonstrate why I think Bush's war constitutes an international war crime.

Can anyone present a reasoned counter-argument?

In a way, Nova is right. The American people re-elected Bush. He received some 62 million votes.

In a way, every day we go to work, come home, watch tv, we aid and abet this Administration. Every day we do not take to the streets and demand accountability and an end to the bloodshed, we aid and abet this Administration. Our silence is our acquiescence. The Administration is counting on us to be complacent.

Could you imagine the impact if, for just one day, every man, woman and child in America took to the streets to protest this war?

Folks, it doesn’t take believing in a “vast right wing conspiracy” to know that Diebold backed Bush to the hilt — and they programmed the voting machines in every swing state! Ask any literate computer geek, especially those involved in the electronic voting business. Not only is it easy to change vote tallies before the fact — it’s virtually untraceable!

33. Nova- I agree. I think that what happened in 2004 was not just the stupid Diebold machines. A percentage of the public believed the fear that if Kerry won, we’d die. Also, people in think tanks like Frank Luntz, who never revealed that he was partisan until it was too late, tend to influence people by focusing on performance and manipulating others into not being impressed enough to guarantee someone who has the right idea the vote.

We have Bush and if he launches WW3 in Iran, we certainly will die. And the last words on our lips will be in that line from the film “The Hunt For Red October”: “You arrogant ass. You killed us.”

Then a Representative of this country should go to the UN and apologize to the World Saying that the presidential vote was corrupted (which it was) by these criminals and their cronies, that the American People never elected this group of traitors, and that they do Not represent the people of the United States, or the will of the people of the United States. If this was done, I feel we would see a 180 degree shift from the people of the world, they would no longer hate the USA and would probably forgive the horrible things that have been done by these criminals. Then the US would again have the respect and admiration of the people of the world, and would be the Beacon of Freedom and Hope for the world that it has always been.

There is no counter-argument. BTW, am I right in thinking you are in the legal field?

Your arguments are always well written.

As for the compelling CBS segment — we did not hear anything we didn't already know did we?

Over and over we hear the truth as it is squeezed out of the bag of lies in the White House, but nothing really changes, and nothing will change. At least not in the foreseeable future. The best we can hope for is that the Dems take over the Congress in eight months and Bush can't accomplish anything in the next 1000 days.

It is my greatest fear that the Rethugs will steal the upcoming elections with their rigged, paperless voting machines, and other unethical practices that disenfranchise and otherwise discourage voters.

I am an election judge and I saw my own county slip in the Diebold machines last month over the outrage from Democrats and others who have read of the history of Diebold and Sequoia. My husband was a poll watcher and heard many lies that Repub. judges were telling voters extolling the “virtues” of the electronic machines.

As I went to vote, I was publicly ridiculed by a Repub. judge because I dared to ask for a paper ballot. I think this is only the beginning of how they will steal the election because they know they can't win it legally.

45. Come on America's citizens, George W. Bush needs to be brought to book for his incompetence and the lies he and his cronies have disseminated to justify his administrations invasion of Iraq.

While this new piece of evidence is damning in showing that Bush had an agenda, and nothing was going to stop Bush from invading Iraq. What Tyler Drumheller has disclosed to 60 Minutes is hardly earth-shattering is it. It's just another piece of the incriminating jig-saw which fits nicely into the whole Neo-con picture, which is starting to take shape, and from which people can make out what Bush and his cohorts have been up to over the last four and a half years.

Though this story is infuriating to those who wonder how Bush gets away with what he does, it shouldn't come as a surprise to anybody that this went on before the invasion of Iraq. There have been a number of stories and leaks, which have substantiated that the Iraq invasion was pre-conceived, and no amount of intelligence that contradicted their indoctrinated beliefs that Iraq was a danger to the US with their WMD's was going to stop the invasion.

After-all George W. Bush is the 'Great Decider' or should that be the 'Great Deceiver'. When your inner sanctum is full of the type people with the characters that Bush relies on to tell him how to do his job, then what does anybody expect from the President.

This forum is great for people to meet and discuss the topics that are raised everyday on Think Progress. But more needs to be done with stories like this particular one, if you want to see your hard work come to fruition in ousting George W. Bush from the White House, along with any other of his cronies who have blood on their hands, from George W. Bush's futile 'War On Terror'.

Good-luck to all of you, keep up the good work.

Abraham Lincoln Speech: The Gettysburg Address

Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth, upon this continent, a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that “all men are created equal”

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived, and so dedicated, can long endure. We are met on a great battle field of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of it, as a final resting place for those who died here, that the nation might live. This we may, in all propriety do. But, in a larger sense, we can not dedicate — we can not consecrate — we can not hallow, this ground— The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have hallowed it, far above our poor power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here; while it can never forget what they did here.

It is rather for us, the living, to stand here, we here be dedicated to the great task remaining before us — that, from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they here, gave the last full measure of devotion — that we here highly resolve these dead shall not have died in vain; that the nation, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people by the people for the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Two Of Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill’s Quotes:

Men occasionally stumble over the truth, but most of them pick themselves up and hurry off as if nothing ever happened.

Many forms of Government have been tried, and will be tried in this world of sin and woe. No one pretends that democracy is perfect or all-wise. Indeed, it has been said that democracy is the worst form of government except all those other forms that have been tried from time to time.

46. Well keep in mind that the people also voted for all 435 Representative but 133 of those Representatives voted against the AUMF. If the administration lied us into war,how was it that Reps like John Murtha got re-elected despite voting for the war? How is it that Harry Reid is the Dem leader in the Senate,yet he,too,voted for the war? Or Kerry or Kennedy? The people voted them back in also. What people are you talking about? It’s not enough to be against the Pres. if you’re going to support the true aiders and abettors,Congress.

My Rep (a Dem) voted against the AUMF and so I gladly crossed party lines (party isn’t everything) with support for him and will again in Nov. Would you vote for Reid, knowing that his lack of judgment as to the AUMF shows his true nature? Why would you want Senate leadership from someone like that? It’s politicians like Murtha who would be more credible if he had resigned when he announced his opposition to the war. Instead,he runs again and wins as he will in Nov.

It’s “heroes” like Joe Wilson who took 6 months to write an op-ed after the SOTU. What was he waiting for? But,no,he is a hero for revealing (what numerous others had already revealed) 4 months after the invasion that the justification (well one piece) was unfounded,some hero.

When you get your house to look like a house instead of the political hovel the Democratic party occupies currently,with real leaders instead of the spineless snakes you have now,all this talk of “aiding and abetting” is just hot keystrokes.

Surely you have heard of gerrymandered districts. Nearly all House seats are safe for the incumbant, thanks to redistricting following the census every 10 years. Or sooner, if Delay gets his way, which he did in Texas.

Now, throw electronic voting machines supplied by a Republican businessman into the mix and who knows, maybe the Republicans will make a clean sweep of it in '06. Must be something wrong with the exit polls.....

49. I blame the Democrats for their cowardice. It was clear a long time ago that the Bush team were liars, dangerous America destroying scumbags + obvious lawbreakers.

The constitution designed a system of checks and balances - legislative, administration, and supreme court. It is the duty of Congress to do oversight on the administration - even a very partisan Nixon congress took the responsibility seriously.

This congress has done ZERO hearings or oversight of this admin.

A handful of Dems pulling together could have stopped all business in congress and demanded sworn hearings a long time ago. I bet with the news generated it would have only taken 3 or 4 days —WHICH ISN'T SHT ! AND WOULD HAVE CAUSED ZERO HARM.

What have we done to deserve this devolvement into a useless pathetic pack of absolute cowards. IT MAKES ME WANT TO SCREAM.

58. No American wants to believe the President lied. Well how many facts and people have to tell the truth before Americans realize Bush has lied and is still lying. Bush/Cheney/Rove have really done a job on good Americans to make them believe Saddam had WMD when on TV we saw the weapons with USA written on them and they were so old they would fall apart. No one wants to admit they've been played for a fool but we should get use to it. The other countries knew Bush was lying notice how many countries join in the invasion. Only the small countries that we paid were involved. Blair will be gone in Dec. and England will not trust us again while Bush is in office. So for all those fools that still say Bush is telling the truth remember when you put gas in your car at $5.00 per gallon that Bush said Iraq would help lower our gas bills. Now he wants to invade Iran next the Saudi's and then all of the middle east. Dumb people can be fooled all the time I guess the United States is an example of that even with the truth out Americans believe the liar.

Unless Iraq had an ongoing program then they would have none because most of their 80's stockpile were destroyed by the UN inspections in 96-97 after Saddams son-in-law ratted his stocks out....Having worked in the Army with WMD's I understand that you might not have the expertise given the # of law schools, jobs and children you have had in the 15 years you have been "all-grown-up"(LOL)

But nothing much will come of this because Drumheller is only corroborating what countless CIA officials and intelligence analysts have been saying for years, now (including Robert Greenwald's Exposed): That the Bush administration was cherry-picking intelligence to retrofit their prefab notions about Iraq.

And to retroactively blame the intelligence community for the intelligence failures that made Iraq possible is not only the height of chutzpah, it's downright despicable. This sets a dangerous precedent for future administrations who will have a read-made scapegoat for future policy and military failures.

67. yes, as for the illinois impeachment, they are relying on:

Section 603 of Jefferson's Manual. This is not something that silly since the HR rule page list the Manual right along with the other substantive HR rules...

In the House of Representatives there are various methods of setting an impeachment in motion: by charges made on the floor on the responsibility of a Member or Delegate (II, 1303; III, 2342, 2400, 2469; VI, 525, 526, 528, 535, 536); by charges preferred by a memorial, which is usually referred to a committee for examination (III, 2364, 2491, 2494, 2496, 2499, 2515; VI, 543); or by a resolution dropped in the hopper by a Member and referred to a committee (Apr. 15, 1970, p. 11941–42; Oct. 23, 1973, p. 34873); by a message from the President (III, 2294, 2319; VI, 498); by charges transmitted from the legislature of a State (III, 2469) or Territory (III, 2487) or from a grand jury (III, 2488); or from facts developed and reported by an investigating committee of the House (III, 2399, 2444). In the 93d Congress, the Vice President sought to initiate an investigation by the House of charges against him of possibly impeachable offenses; the Speaker and the House took no action on the request since the matter was pending in the courts and the offenses did not relate to activities during the Vice President's term of office (Sept. 25, 1973, p. 31368); see III, 2510, wherein the Committee on the Judiciary (to which the matter had been referred by privileged resolution) reported that a civil officer (the Vice President) could not be impeached for acts or omissions committed prior to his term of office; but see III, 1736, however, the Vice President's request that the House investigate charges against his prior official conduct as Secretary of War was referred, on motion, to a select committee.

Should make for a fun monday!

High Level 'Spy' - as in SINGULAR? That's as RETARDED as just about anything you've ever said MIGHTY MORON.

"Or was the spy referred to on 60 Seconds concentrating only on active WMD's? Mighty Moron"

Which spy was that, the one that was giving intelligence to Israel, or taking it from Israel in order to try to fabricate evidence?

"Our intelligence was compromised because of...could it be the Frank Church Commission?? Churches dismantling of viable intelligence operations borders on the treasonous. Mighty Moron"

You really are the QUEEN of Non-Sequiturs aren't you? You consider government oversight of 'intelligence' to be a 'treasonous' act? Wow, you really are a SOCIOPATH NAZI.

If anything the Church Commission basically PROVED that without oversight many of the members of the intelligence community had acting in a fashion that was treasonous to america's laws, our values, and our ideals.

And what exactly did the Church Commission dismantle? It was a commission that issued a REPORT and a REVIEW you IDIOT - it WASN'T LEGISLATION. This is like that stupid charge of yours about the Yacht Tax Economic Collapse that never was - it's just RETARDED NONSENSE.

“But allow me to commend you, Nico, on fine word parsing and reporting....you should look into a part time gig at CBS - they are SO “fair and balanced”. Good night! Mighty Moron”

Really, because all you post is hate, ridicule, and sociopathic nonsense. Most people would question how someone who's clinically insane such as yourself has a positive relationship with anyone - especially ‘god’.

“a wonderful spouse, Mighty Moron”

Who based on your posts sounds like a surreal lapdog - obviously how you see your potential role with your drag alter ego.

“well-liked and well-behaved children, - Mighty Moron”

You've constantly complained about having to DISCIPLINE your children for not behaving, and have even talked about your practice of BEATING them when they don't behave. Sorry, but you're lying again.

“sleep 4-5 hours a night - Mighty Moron”

Another symptom of a probable secondary neurological or mood disorder.

“, great law professors, - Mighty Moron”

Really, because you've constantly bitched about how stupid your professors were.

“supportive colleagues, - Mighty Moron”

Last week you complained about all of the useless and lazy progs at your work - and ironically you'd crowed last fall about OWNING your business with your husband. You really can't keep your LIES straight can you? I guess that just makes you a STUPID SOCIOPATH.

“and funny, wonderful brothers, sisters and cousins. Mighty Moron”

And yet you complain about having to often ‘educate’ members of your family who aren't as ‘bright’ as you are. When you feel like you'd like to show us your intelligence sometime - please do so. So far what you've shown is a huge embarrassment for you - and it's no wonder you lie daily about your identity. If I were you, I'd be embarrassed to admit who I was as well. You're just another BORING, STUPID troll, spouting stereotypes, talking points, and RIDICULOUS framing language of NONSENSE AND AMBIGUITY. You're just a DUMB PROPAGANDIST - and THAT'S BORING!!! Then maybe, just maybe, once 100 million people start showing them everywhere the rest of the world will realize that America is currently under the thumb of a corrupt regime that appointed itself by means of corrupt Supreme Court Justices even though they lost the 2000 election. It is a great deal to hope for I know, but I fear this may be our only hope to remove these miscreants from our hallowed halls of government. I'd even go so far as to suggest writing letters to delegates in the UN urging countries to break off all ties With this administration until a truly independent body was permitted to examine the true evidence from 9/11 which is in direct conflict with the 9/11 commissions report. And the UN should look into the fixing of the Pre-war intel since it does directly violate the law and is indeed all the justification they would need to charge GWB and his admin with war crimes as well as numerous human rights violations.

Briseadh, again you seem to have a real blind spot over this election stuff. What I said about Murtha, a Democratic rep has nothing to do with Delay or anyone else. It has to do with voters like you who stand in opposition to the administration and can't seem to recognize that the Democratic party's leadership is non-existent. So long as Reid (voted for the AUMF) Kerry (voted for the AUMF), Kennedy (voted for the AUMF) and the others constitute the "leadership", the party will wander in the desert. There is no there, there.

unbelievable,

Not so fast...

...the republiscum party realizes that their "Golden Boy" turned dogsh*t...

...will almost certainly be dragged through the mud, if they lose the midterm elections in Nov...

...this raises cause for much concern as to electoral dirty tricks (a' la Diebold, Katherine Harris/Ken Blackwell)...

...many states STILL have electronic voting machines and crooked voting apparatus set up to steal elections..

... therefore it is incumbent upon all patriotic Americans to be vigilant, and vocal in exhorting our/ your local elections officials to get optical scanning votin machines installed BEFORE this election...

...these machines offer a much needed paper trail...

...the Bushites are desperate, and their inbred base (the perpetual 33%) care so much about the image of the "presidency" and their gods Bushiva and L'il Dick..

...that they are willing to run this country straight into hell to preserve their potentates' dignity...

...that is their "PERCEIVED" dignity (which of course we thinking Progressives know is non-existent)...

... Progressives ALL, let's get busy and demand optical scanning voting machines!

...on Mr. Drumheller, another American patriot risks everything to get the truth out...

...we MUST NOT let him, the generals, Mary McCarthy, or Bunnatine Greenhouse and Coleen Rowley down!

99. Good morning Unbelievable - the 60 Minutes piece was very well done, wasn't it? While they mentioned other lies regarding WMD, they wisely concentrated on outing one particular lie, the phony Niger claims, and told the story from beginning to end in a way that will make it very difficult to dispute. I look forward to MA and IRI's eloquent arguments disputing the facts of this piece, don't you?

He launched another Gulf of Tonkin and was laughing all the way "It's so much fun to start wars, dur dur dur!" Now he's on to step 2, Iran. The PNAC plan was set years ago and people still elected this moron when they all should have known what he was going to do and based on the people all around him, all of whom signed that PNAC letter. America got what it asked for and if they re-elect the GOP to keep control in Nov., then all that says is "I enjoy getting beaten up and abused, I don't care".....Republicans beat up and abuse the American people like a step-child but it sure seems like they enjoy getting beaten on day after day after day. Sad...very sad.

I mean, do they tell themselves that Bush is really smart and if he said the troops had to go to Iraq, well then he was no doubt right... or do they sometimes wonder if this stooge has half the mind he was born with? There was absolutely nothing new in this interview that has not been brought to your attention time and time again. Yet, you allow you elected representatives in Washington ignore the lies and deception of George W. Bush, Cheney, Rumsfeld, Rice and numerous others.

From the gitgo this whole thing should have been investigated by the Senate. Was there one outcry for such an investigation? If so, I did not hear it. The thing was buried by the Republican congress with the aid of the Amurkan public. NO ONE CAME FORTH.

Will there be a call in the halls of congress for any sort of investigation? I doubt it. Will there be swiftboating of the messenger? Absolutely. I'm sure that Clinton is behind all of this somehow - and possibly FDR - so maybe something along those lines. It was the worst thing EVER, when President Clinton lied about cheating on his wife with another (younger) woman. Poor America, will she ever recover? Woe to us. We wasted several YEARS, and millions and millions of dollars investigating an 'sex scandal'. People are shocked that a man would lie about cheating on his wife???? The "Righties" happily raged on and on about it, EVERY SINGLE DAY, FOR YEARS!!! Gawd!!! I wish that was all that BushCo was lying to us about now. But nooooooo, every day, more lies come out, each one more horrifying than the one before it. Clinton lied about sex, Bush lied us into a "war" with Iraq, and is NOW trying to start another one, based on even more lies, but THIS TIME he wants to use NUCLEAR WEAPONS!!! Clinton Bashers should be consistent, you need to bash Bush for all of his lies, which have been exposed by mountains of evidence, but they continue to lie to all of us anyway, and any who dare to contradict their assertions are destroyed. People had no problem accepting that Clinton lied about "Oral in the Oval Office", but WILL NOT believe that GWB lied, and continues to lie, about war, and would prefer that we remain fearful, and actively reinforce it, with more lies. Yes, it's awful to admit it to yourself, and to see what it caused you to do, trying to defend them. But, of course you wanted to believe the President, because if he was willing to lie to your face, just to do whatever he wants to do, what WON'T he do? Hell, he wants to NUKE IRAN!!!! Why would lying bother him?

114. "Tyler Drumheller, the former chief of the CIA's Europe division,"

Some Liberal asshats in the CIA have been working against Bush since he got in office. With a little luck some of them will be tried and sent to prison for turning over classified information to the Left Wing Press. Like this bitch:

In a rare occurrence, the CIA fired an officer who acknowledged giving classified information to a reporter, NBC News learned Friday.

The officer flunked a polygraph exam before being fired on Thursday and is now under investigation by the Justice Department, NBC has learned.

Intelligence sources tell NBC News the accused officer, Mary McCarthy, worked in the CIA's inspector general's office and had worked for the National Security Council under the Clinton and George W. Bush administrations.

<http://www.msnbc.msn.com/id/12423825/>

These are the kind of people who were working for Bill Clinton and still in place to allow a dozen ragheads to kill three thousand Americans on 9-11. Now they are working to undermine our war efforts. I'd sure like to see these bastards put away but it seems they have too many high profile Democrats running interference for them

The CIA's war against the Bush administration is one of the great untold stories of the past three years. It is, perhaps, the agency's most successful covert action of recent times. The CIA has used its budget to fund criticism of the administration by former Democratic officeholders. The agency allowed an employee, Michael Scheuer, to publish and promote a book containing classified information, as long as, in Scheuer's words, "the book was being used to bash the president." However, the agency's preferred weapon has been the leak. In one leak after another, generally to the New York Times or the Washington Post, CIA officials have sought to undermine America's foreign policy. Usually this is done by leaking reports or memos critical of administration policies or skeptical of their prospects. Through it all, our principal news outlets, which share the agency's agenda and profit from its torrent of leaks, have maintained a discreet silence about what should be a major scandal."

117. So, who is this traitor?

Prior to joining CSIS in August 2001, Mary O. McCarthy was a senior policy adviser to the CIA's deputy director for science and technology. Until July 2001, she served as special assistant to the president and senior director for intelligence programs on the National Security Council (NSC) Staff, under both Presidents Clinton and Bush. From 1991 until her appointment to the NSC, McCarthy served on the National Intelligence Council. She began her government service as an analyst, then manager, in CIA's Directorate of Intelligence, holding positions in both African and Latin American analysis. From 1979 to 1984 she was employed by BERI, S.A., conducting financial, operational, and political risk assessments for multinational companies and banks. Previously she had taught at the University of Minnesota and was director of the Social Science Data Archive at Yale University. McCarthy has a B.A. and M.A. in history from Michigan State University, an M.A. in library science from the University of Minnesota, and a Ph.D. in history from the University of Minnesota. She is the author of Social Change and the Growth of British Power in the Gold Coast (University Press of America, 1983).

Guess who else belongs to the Center for Strategic and International Studies ?

Wonder who has the largest supply of nuclear and chemical weaponry in the world? Wonder how that supply of Napalm is holding up?

You’re kidding me, right? The US did not supply Iraq with tactical and chemical material. They sold Iraq helicopters, guaranteed loans, and the CDC sent Iraqi universities biological samples. Iraq made tons and tons of chemical weapons, with good help from Germany and the USSR. Their nuclear program came from France. Who has the largest supply of nuclear and chemical weaponry? Well, as far as nuclear goes, that would be the USA. As far as chemical weapons, I don't really know the answer to that, as the USA has been continually destroying all their stocks of chemical weapons. I wouldn't believe that Russia is doing exactly the same thing, not to mention countries such as China and others.

Napalm isn't a chemical weapon. It's an incendiary weapon. You'd think that you'd at least know the difference, but I guess facts aren't high on the list of needs here at Think Progress. You might as well call every single weapon containing chemicals "chemical weapons". Of course, intelligent people know better. The conventions on chemical weapons - read it. See if you find napalm on the list.

Now I will watch the segment to see if CBS even mentions the fact that Sabri told the French that Iraq had chemical weapons. I am betting that they won't.

124. For me this is an example of the loss of checks and balances in government.

With the Republicans currently controlling both Congress and the White House, neither one of these entities are going to countermand the other. God forbid that we should actually have a discussion of issues!

Over the last forty years has the United States learned ANYTHING about going to war? We're not talking about ancient history here, were talking about the escalation of the Vietnam war and the justifications for that escalation.

It is a travesty that the country let this President and his Congress get involved in this war without a true discussion of the issues. At the same time, this saber rattling President appears to be going down the same road again to war. What bothers me the most is the lack of almost any discussion in Congress about a possible war in Iran.

At the same time, this administration through the concept of "inherent power in the Presidency" is almost making Congress irrelevant.

Even though Americans profess that they are unhappy with the direction of the country, I will be VERY surprised if America doesn't re-elect most of the same group that has gotten us to this sorry state.

125. #119 - We sold them weapons grade "starter" material for the biological attacks that Saddam Hussein used to kill people. Basically, we provided them the materials to begin their "WMD programs".

http://www.iranchamber.com/history/articles/arming_iraq.php

May, 1986. The US Department of Commerce licenses 70 biological exports to Iraq between May of 1985 and 1989, including at least 21 batches of lethal strains of anthrax.

May, 1986. US Department of Commerce approves shipment of weapons grade botulin poison to Iraq.

Late 1987. The Iraqi Air Force begins using chemical agents against Kurdish resistance forces in northern Iraq.

February, 1988. Saddam Hussein begins the "Anfal" campaign against the Kurds of northern Iraq. The Iraq regime used chemical weapons against the Kurds killing over 100,000 civilians and destroying over 1,200 Kurdish villages.

April, 1988. US Department of Commerce approves shipment of chemicals used in manufacture of mustard gas.

August, 1988. Four major battles were fought from April to August 1988, in which the Iraqis massively and effectively used chemical weapons to defeat the Iranians. Nerve gas and blister agents such as mustard gas are used. By this time the US Defense Intelligence Agency is heavily involved with Saddam Hussein in battle plan assistance, intelligence gathering and post battle debriefing. In the last major battle with of the war, 65,000 Iraqis are killed, many with poison gas. Use of chemical weapons in war is in violation of the Geneva accords of 1925.

August, 1988. Iraq and Iran declare a cease fire.

August, 1988. Five days after the cease fire Saddam Hussein sends his planes and helicopters to northern Iraq to begin massive chemical attacks against the Kurds.

You'll be able to see pictures of (Sec.) Rumsfeld shaking hand with Saddam.

Even if we didn't actually sell the finished product, what do you think "chemicals used in manufacture of mustard gas", "weapons grade botulin poison", and "21 batches of lethal strains of anthrax" would be used for in Iraq while they were at war with Iran? I seriously doubt they were trying to find new ways of increasing their oil productions.

129. #122 Democrat Soldier:

You have listed exactly what I said. The CDC sent biological samples to Iraqi universities. There is no evidence that it was these that were used to create anthrax and other biological agents.

You also list up the purposely vague "US Department of Commerce approves shipment of chemicals used in manufacture of mustard gas". Why aren't the chemicals named? Well, they aren't because it will be revealed that the "chemicals" spoken of are most likely something as innocent as water, or chlorine. If you don't think so, ask yourself why the chemical isn't named.

In fact, the chemical formula for a common type of mustard gas is C₄H₈Cl₂S. Thus, the "chemical" being vaguely alluded to may very well be chlorine - a substance that is used for water sanitation.

I also must laugh at the usage of what seems to be a pro-Iranian source.

#124 aphro: Yes it seems that Ryan is back from some sort of absence, back with his ad hominem arsenal. Such a shame really, I thought I was finally able to have real discussions with people here. And anyone could have mistaken those trucks in Iraq, that carried the Hydrogen they used to inflate weather ballons for the much-hyped "Mobile Weapons Laboratories", used by Saddam, to evade detection by weapons inspectors, that Saddam wasn't letting go into Iraq, so that GWB had to tell them to 'beat it', because the invasion was imminent. 142. I posted this on another webpage and reposted as it applies well here too:

This is why my ex-wife's family who joined Organized Crime calls this "The World's Largest Criminal System". What's missing are the links to money given to other countries! Plus, look over the Military more closely, there's more there too.

Now as everyone can see the money being handed out as PORK, start looking more closely at how they manage the criminal system! The wiretapping and snooping is vital to manage and secure their criminal operations. Anyone of us who know something more than others are targets for their wiretapping. This is even if we only wrote negative posts like I do! I'm more than certain my name is one of their targets! When this surfaces later to be true, please remember that the snooping never started after 9/11, it really started decades before! I know that because I was in a family who is part of this. They made wiretapping public because they had a "REASON" with what happened with 9/11. Remember, corruption only happens when you have a REASON to spend treasury money. Without a REASON, no spending and thus, NO corruption! PORK is our description of excuses to spend treasury money! They have to manufacture REASONS to spend our money, even if it means fabricating a REASON for WAR.

In the Political Corruption arm of this criminal system, please realize that this same scenario exists in other countries such as the UK and elsewhere. And that they have inner communication links which are how they manage to coordinate between each other. The drug system uses this exclusively and in the US those involved can learn about anyone, anywhere, who are involved, even if they are using drugs. Remember, people who use drugs aren't going to advertise they are using drugs, only the inside drug people know. I'm not the only one who has experienced the existence of this communication link, so remember there are others like me who know.

While in the family, my oldest son lived in Wyoming with his mom and step dad. My wife was suspicious and went to her father, then the criminal system to learn what they were doing. I was without knowledge of this and later, she approached me with options. She learned that they were drug addicts and were using all their money to buy drugs. This started with my son complained to my wife about eating boxed food three times a day. My father-in-law offered the option of having something DONE to them, if I wanted! Being totally shocked and wondering where this was coming from, I asked to think about it for a little while. I used the time to talk to my wife and learn more. I didn't know where this came from, what it was all about and what they would want to do to them

Some things mentioned were they could be setup to be arrested and even something worse, if I wanted. Hearing rumors over the years in the family about setup murder(s), I feared the worse could happen. I didn't want to be part of anything and didn't especially want any harm to come to them. I thought sooner or later it may change, knowing who they were and thank God, this is what happened. They ended up moving to the mid-west to get away from the drug scene and start a new life. At the same time, my son came to live with me and stayed through out his college days.

BUT, the important message from this is that this Criminal Group has strong communication links everywhere within it's reach. It's REACH means, anywhere they sell drugs, which is in their case means anywhere on this planet! Remember, this is an International Drug Distribution Network that includes Very Wide Spread Political Corruption including our Federal Level down to Local Levels. Wide scale Fraud involves many different types of Fraud and you see some of this in the news too.

Yes, I do understand that this is difficult to believe, but I can assure you that it's totally true. There are other criminal levels to this far worse than just corruption. They involve the worst criminal behaviors imaginable and it's all happening right in our backyard.

We are all FOOLS to TRUST them!

145. I replied to Seixon's fallacious effort to ignore the murder of Iraqi children with DU in the Jonah Goldberg: Concerns About Climate Change Are 'Millenarian Battiness' thread, which is no longer on the front page.

Briefly, it is noteworthy that DU has FIFTY PERCENT OF THE RADIOACTIVITY OF FUEL URANIUM. Fifty percent — how 'depleted' is that? About half-depleted. Which is half-radioactive. HALF!

Then Seixon quoted the WHO paper, which is propaganda, and I replied to it as such:

“* Of the uranium that is absorbed into the blood, approximately 70% will be filtered by the kidney and excreted in the urine within 24 hours; this amount increases to 90% within a few days.”

Carefully worded to avoid the point. The 30% that is not filtered, is not filtered because IT IS ALREADY LODGED IN BONE. The factoid then ignores the lodged 30% and pretends that kidney filtration applies to the whole load. It does not, because 1/3 of the uranium is already in the bones, and not circulating in the blood for the kidneys to filter it.

“Twenty to thirty percent of a toxic dose of intravenous uranium could be found in the bones of male rats within 2.5 hours after administration, and 90% of the uranium retained by the body after 40 days was in bone [Neuman 1948a]. They showed that young growing rats or rats deficient in dietary calcium incorporated greater amounts of uranium than controls [Neuman 1948b]. They also showed that uranium is preferentially incorporated in areas of active calcification and becomes more re-fractory to resorption as new calcification covers areas of uranium deposition [Neuman 1948c].”

YOUNG rats, growing rats, absorb MORE DU to the bone than older rats. The danger, as usual, is to the children.”

I want to underline part of that:

“They also showed that uranium is preferentially incorporated in areas of active calcification and becomes more re-fractory to resorption as new calcification covers areas of uranium deposition”

In other words, the 50% Uranium, which is still 100% toxic to tissue, and a considerable genotoxicity threat (i.e., MUTATES DNA), loads to bone in a few hours, and IN CHILDREN is overlaid with normal bone, so that it CANNOT BE REMOVED FROM THE BODY as it would in an adult, by resorption to the bloodstream.

“Article II: In the present Convention, genocide means any of the following acts committed with intent to destroy, in whole or in part, a national, ethnical, racial or religious group, as such:

- (d) Imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group;
- (e) Forcibly transferring children of the group to another group. ”

While the Genocide Convention does not refer to DU poisoning of children, it clearly considers the anti-children part of genocide. Forceable acts poisoning children are a form of genocide.”

147. Ah, I also forgot to mention that Seixon fallaciously uses the fallacious WHO emphasis on INGESTION of DU. The key problem is not ingestion, which is fairly unlikely, it is INHALATION.

Inhalation of mercury vapors, inhalation of lead from leaded gas — these inhalation risks are very grave indeed, and well-attested.

Inhaled DU in its crystallized (from the heat of striking objects) form presents dangers not seen in the dust itself, since the crystallization produces very sharp microscopic fragments, which lodge in the lungs and cannot be removed (except perhaps by excision of lung tissue).

The same goes for Seixon’s scoffing at the US arming of Hussein with chemical and biological arms. Of course, the proof of those acts wasn’t easy to get, but we did get it, eventually. We do have the NAMES of the toxins sold, and no, it isn’t chlorine. It is things like VX Nerve Gas, which Hussien used in his genocide of the Kurds.

When you mix religion and politics you get corruption, greed, and core American values get molested. Bush is on a mission from Jesus? That is just horseshit that the religious "magic" believers want to think. Jesus NEVER said kill somebody. His message was feed the hungry, cloth the naked, give your money to the less fortunate. That message DOES NOT fit into America's religious beliefs. It's all about me, me, me, pimp my life! Justify my war!

Sorry, but someone has to say. What we can do in the meantime is look forward to the next elections and whether you are republican or democrat, no one should care, we should care about electing a true LEADER.

“The sad thing is he has been re-elected.”

He was NOT reelected. They STOLE the election.

“What is impeaching him going to do?”

Impeachment bills help build political power for INVESTIGATIONS. Formal investigations will lead to INDICTMENTS. That is a path we very much need to walk.

“These guys don’t care anymore, they are out of here when their term is over anyway.”

No coup in the history of the world ended because of an election. They will NOT ‘be out’ in 2008. More likely, Bush will run again, if there even are elections in 2008. Try to recall Nine-eleven, and try to remember the words of that traitor (who is now in charge of Southern Command, I believe), Gen. 157. Paul,

Ah yes, so now the UNEP and the WHO are spreading propaganda about DU. What to do when some of the sources progressives usually reach out to start saying things you don’t like... As for you bringing up some stats on rats: rats are rats, humans are humans. Don’t tell me you are comparing the digestive and kidney systems of a rat and a human. Are you really that devoid of thought? It said that 90% of the 2% of DU that was not expelled from the body through the digestive system was expelled by the kidney within a few days, 70% after 24 hours. It also states that DU has low radiation, and that contact with the skin is harmless, even for weeks. I have read stories about persons who have DU embedded in their bodies who have no terminal illnesses from it, nor any other critical illnesses.

Instead of claiming that the World Health Organization is coming with propaganda FOR DU, you might want to rethink your strategy and understand that if anything, the WHO and the UN would be spreading propaganda AGAINST it. When they have so little negative to say about it, it can only mean that the propaganda you’ve been suckered into believing is completely uncalled for.

As for differences between inhalation and ingestion, I’m sure the WHO documents addresses this although I don’t have time to check it out at the moment. If you feel there is evidence of DU in war zones doing serious harm to civilians, please post a link to a study demonstrating this. And no, by that I don’t mean some kind of press release by Saddam Hussein.

And this comment of yours:

The same goes for Seixon’s scoffing at the US arming of Hussein with chemical and biological arms. Of course, the proof of those acts wasn’t easy to get, but we did get it, eventually. We do have the NAMES of the toxins sold, and no, it isn’t chlorine. It is things like VX Nerve Gas, which Hussein used in his genocide of the Kurds.

The US never armed Hussein with chemical and biological arms. You claim that it wasn’t chlorine that was being talked about, so why wasn’t the chemical being sold named? If it was VX, why didn’t that document just say so? Hmmm, maybe because that would be a direct lie? The US did not sell Iraq VX, and you will not be able to come up with any evidence to substantiate such a lie. The closest the USA ever came to helping Iraq with their chemical weapons was an American company who was building some type of chemical plant in Iraq. However, the chemical being produced wasn’t incorporated into any of Iraq’s chemical programs, and the plant was never finished due to the Iran-Iraq war.

Your obsession with blaming the USA for the deeds of Saddam Hussein never ceases to amaze me. I’ll more than welcome any evidence of the things you are alleging, but since I have researched all of it quite thoroughly, I know you will not come up with any. You might as well accept defeat and surrender to the truth.

He was NOT reelected. They STOLE the election.

Oh man, please stop with the insanity. You are among a small number of holdouts that just won't let go of the fact that your side lost the election. I voted for Gore in 2000, and it is just painful to watch people still clinging on to something that didn't happen the way they wanted.

Impeachment bills help build political power for INVESTIGATIONS. Formal investigations will lead to INDICTMENTS. That is a path we very much need to walk.

Yes, because having Dick Cheney as president would probably please you much more! LOL.

No coup in the history of the world ended because of an election. They will NOT 'be out' in 2008. More likely, Bush will run again, if there even are elections in 2008. Try to recall Nine-eleven, and try to remember the words of that traitor (who is now in charge of Southern Command, I believe), Gen. Boykin: "If there is another terrorist attack, Americans will demand the cessation of the Constitution for their own safety." The 22nd Amendment will not save us from these felons.

You are underestimating your ENEMIES, Jeff.

See, here's your problem. You see Republicans as "enemies" even though they are your fellow Americans. That is dangerous ground you are treading on. You've been watching too many Alex Jones videos, it seems. I can't wait until 2008 rolls around to prove you wrong about everything you just said. Maybe I should bookmark this comment of yours and email it to you on inauguration day 2009 just so I can laugh at your irrational rantings of yesteryear. That you believe that Bush will run again, or that there won't even be elections in 2008 ranks up there on the derangement scale with Alex Jones' theories about Scharzenegger being selected as president in 2008 for a Nazi takeover of the United States.

Get medical help. Seriously.

The only thing we can hope for is that the 8 generals that have already come out, will inspire more to come out. If there are eight generals that have stepped up to the pump, you can bet that there are 80 more that would like to but fear losing their jobs and their retirement pay. It's enough to make one sick. I never thought I would say this, being a Korean war veteran, Sept. 15, 1950 - Sept. 15, 1953 - honorably discharged, I was there for the whole freaking thing, but I dislike what my once beloved country has become. 171. While your comments are interesting, the fact remains that a small number of people are greatly benefiting from Bush. Bush keeps the trainloads of $600 ashtrays, $400 hammers, and $300 toilet seats rolling without interruption. Then there's the $1.5 million cruise missiles that cost them $5,000 to manufacture. To say nothing of how the massive ripoff is characterised by Rumsfeld's admission on 10 Sept 2001 that the Pentagon had just 'lost' $2.4 trillion. Of course, that announcement was timed to be lost on page 27 by events the next day. There are many who benefit, but far from the majority. And far from the majority vote for Bush, but rather the machines without paper trails inform us the majority voted for him. If the majority had truly voted for him, would his inaugural parade in 2000 have been the only one in history to have been stopped by citizens pelting it with eggs and tomatoes? 'Elections' are nothing but to maintain the illusion of democracy that has long been lost.

Just imagine how sick and insulated from rest of the world you have to be to support the misery of the Iraq war just 'cause it makes you even MORE rich! Lockheed-Martin, Boeing, Halliburton, GE, etc. etc. etc.

How do these wicked people sleep at night? I'll tell you how—they are totally oblivious to the rest of us. In their fancy, secluded mansions, surrounded by other rich friends on their yachts, they lose all touch with the average citizen of this planet. They raise kids in a fantasyland of wealth, surrounded by riches and luxuriance, so when these rich kids get older, and finally see "poor people" for the first time, they think, "How disgusting! Why don't these lazy bums get to WORK?"

They're insulated from the fact that the working class is working harder than ever for less and less. It's so easy to dismiss other realities when you live in a pleasure-dome. "Hey, my life is good, therefore, Life in GENERAL is good, and if you're poor, it's because you DESERVE it!"

Are we going to let these psychopathic, sociopathic personalities ruin the rest of our lives forever?
