Olmert gets standing ovations in both Houses of Congress

This is mind boggling. Apparently, Congress was as pleased with Olmert as Olmert was with Bush.

There were warm words from the US president and a SERIES of standing ovations for his speech to both Houses of the US Congress.

Not one. Not two. But, "a series" of standing ovations. These people are shameless. Why don't they drop the pretense and just salute the Israeli flag?

He should get a standing ovation. The man said he will not stand down from terror. That is pretty in sync with what the US believes in. Nothing he said was controversial to someone like me, who believes in truth, justice, and the REAL American way believe in.

I would have given Olmert a standing ovation, myself. (if I was there)

I skimmed through the speech - it was good stuff.

The man said he will not stand down from terror.

Yes, that is the problem. Israel was born in terror, and continues to wreak terror on the Palestinians every day. Four times as many Palestinians killed as Israelis. As many Palestinian children killed as the total of all Israelis killed.

Not just the IDF, but the so called "settlers", who beat and kill without fear of punishment, because their victims are only Palestinians.

One of the worst of all human sins, is the tendency to become what is hated the most.

Since 9/11 was perpetrated by our own government the most prolific terrorists in the world are actually the CIA and the Mossad. The fact of the matter is that the war on Iraq was wholly based on lies and that the coming war in Iran is likewise based on lies about something that hasn't even happened yet i.e. a nuclear armed Iran. The policy of preemption only leads to endless warfare-- which is something that this government and big business both seem to love.

Miss R and other Americans like her, are not stupid, they are Zionist and the supporters of Zionism. I wouldn't have called the Nazis or their followers stupid, they too believed they were the superior race. That is not necessarily a stupid belief, but it's most certainly a dangerous belief. For the followers of Zion both Christian and Jewish, is the belief that God has chosen them to rule the world. Baghdad according to the Zionist ideology, is part of greater Israel, that is why the United States invaded that country illegally. Another interesting fact, is to check the names of those senators and congressmen who receive money from APAC and other Zionist organizations and see how they voted on immigration Reform. Go to ADL's web site and see what they say about Americans who object to Mexicans invading our country, it is truly frightening.
