Absolutely Nothing Makes Sense

The Israelis say, an IDF tank was patrolling a remote sand dune when eight Arabs appear from a tunnel. They fired RPGs at the tank and APC, next they charged the tank, and threw in grenades. Three others run a half a mile, and attack a gun tower.

Next the ruthless commandoes kidnap one of the tank's soldier, cut through an electric fence, and return to Gaza. An IDF colonel wept as he described seeing the soldier's bloody foot prints (in the sand), heading toward Gaza.

Here Is What Happened

The IDF trucked out a junked APC, and five Palestinian prisoners, to a Gaza field. The IDF threw in a small bomb in the APC, dressed the two Arabs in IDF fatigues, and shot them. Next, three Arabs were brought in front of a guard tower, and shot.

The purpose was to divert attention from Gaza beach slaughter. Notice the timing to the American GIs kidnapped in Iraq. This just gives the Israelis an excuse to slaughter more Arabs.
