Woman files lawsuit against President

By LeaAnne Klentzman

A Fort Bend County woman files a lawsuit on former Governor and current sitting President George W. Bush.

Margie Schoedinger of Missouri City, Texas has filed a lawsuit against George W. Bush in Fort Bend County Court. In her suit she is alleging "race based harassment and individual sex crimes committed against her and her husband." The suit lists numerous offenses and asks for actual damages, punitive damages and judgments against George W. Bush.

In her suit, among the many allegations, she has stated, "On or about, October 26, 2000, an attempt was made to abduct Plaintiff (Schoedinger) by three unknown assailants. Because of the actions of these assailants, Sugar Land police officers were dispatched to the scene. In the end, no report was taken. The assailants were treated respectfully and allowed to go free while Plaintiff (Schoedinger) was repeatedly and aggressively questioned. After filing a lawsuit, the Plaintiff's family and past contacts were questioned and harassed." As a result, Plaintiff dismissed Plaintiff's lawsuit. Irrespective of Plaintiff dismissing the lawsuit, the harassment continued." Schoedinger, goes on to allege "at some point, she contacted the Houston office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, filing a raced based harassment complaint, advising that the Sugar Land Police Department may or may not be harassing Plaintiff on behalf of her neighbors in Sugar Land or possibly on behalf of the First Colony Community Services Association."

Schoedinger further states in her lawsuit, "The (FBI) agent in question advised her that the situation appeared to be highly organized and most likely higher level, such as a racist organization." Furthermore she states, "Throughout this conversation, she learned that there was no time that the Defendant (Bush) ever stopped watching Plaintiffâ€™, nor did he stop having sex with Plaintiff. The sole concern of the Defendant and his representatives was whether Plaintiff could actually recall whether Plaintiff could actually recall, the individual sex crimes committed against Plaintiff and Plaintiffâ€™s husband, utilizing drugs.

Section VII of the lawsuit states; "Whether or not Plaintiffâ€™s husband was raped remains in question, as Plaintiff was drugged after she was raped and her husband was drugged before her rape. Plaintiff can only state that these men purported to be FBI agents raping her for the purpose of covering for how many times they had drugged her and allowed the Defendant to rape her in the same manner."

She also alleges that in writing letters directly to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Houston Office," instead of assisting Plaintiff with her concerns, the FBI took on the same demeanor as the Sugar Land Police Department. Eventually, Plaintiff learned, via telephone conversations, that both the Sugar Land Police Department, and the Houston Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation were acting at the behest of the Defendant, George W. Bush. As a part of their defense, the Sugar Land Police Department conducted a background investigation into Plaintiffâ€™s past activities. In the end, this investigation yielded the following information: Plaintiff had seven dates, (which became seven lovers), had told no lies, committed no crimes, gotten 2 traffic tickets and dated George W. Bush as a minor."

Sugar Land Police Department Captain Marcaurele said his department has no record of any complaints by Ms. Margie Schoedinger. Several attempts were made to contact Ms Schoedinger, she never returned any calls.

Ms. Schoedingerâ€™s law suit was filed on December 2, 2002 and is currently in the Fort Bend County system in County Civil Court at Law 3. Schoedinger is listed as her own legal representative.

The Skull and Bones connection

It is during this initiation that the new members are introduced to the artifacts in the tomb, among them Nazi memorabilia—including a set of Hitler's silverware—dozens of skulls, and an assortment of decorative tchotchkes: coffins, skeletons, and innards. They are also introduced to "the Bones whore," the tomb's only full-time resident, who helps to ensure that the Bonesmen leave the tomb more mature than when they entered.

This purpose has driven Bonesmen to ascend to the top levels of so many fields that, as one historian observes, "at any one time The Order can call on members in any area of American society to do what has to be done." Several Bonesmen have been senators, congressmen, Supreme Court justices, and Cabinet officials. There is a Bones cell in the CIA, which uses the society as a recruiting ground because the members are so obviously adept at keeping secrets. Society members dominate financial institutions such as J. P. Morgan, Morgan Stanley Dean Witter, and Brown Brothers Harriman, where at one time more than a third of the partners were Bonesmen. Through these companies, Skull and Bones provided financial backing to Adolf Hitler because the society then followed a Nazi-and now follows a neo-Nazi—doctrine. At least a dozen Bonesmen have been linked to the Federal Reserve, including the first chairman of the New York Federal Reserve. Skull and Bones members control the wealth of the Rockefeller, Carnegie, and Ford families.

US President Implicated in Sex Scandal?

American woman field a sex crime lawsuit against George W. Bush

A lot of women liked previous President of the United States Bill Clinton. Women thought that he was a very charming and attractive man. However, the situation with incumbent President George Bush is totally different. Mr. Bush is definitely a representative of another psychological type of human being. It is evident that he is often drawn to solve all problems with the help of the military force. As it turns out, this trait of his character it also seen when it comes to sexual relationships with women.

Raped Woman Worried about AIDS

Also, she claimed that when she went to a hospital for treatment she was further threatened by federal agents "on behalf of the Defendant [Bush]."

Additionally, Schoedinger claims she has been placed on a "watch list" for AIDS

The Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) is the loss of the body's ability to fight infections due to the infection caused by a virus called Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV). Some patients infected with HIV may develop skin conditions, fungal, viral, and other bacterial infections as well as cancer

"Larry Flynt Exposes Bush, Hairy Past
Matt Elliott

Staff Writer

In an independent investigation sponsored by hated porn peddler and first amendment champion Larry Flynt on Presidential Candidate George Bush, Flynt says that Bush impregnated a young girl, which ended in an underground abortion before Roe v. Wade (i.e. the case that made abortion legal) in the early 1970s."

This investigation sponsored by Mr. Flynt (whom I respect for his defense of the First Amendment and not his rape culture contributions), while uncovering some petty personal conflicts in Bush's past, brings to light an interesting problem: no one really knows anything about this guy. His supporters sway back and forth and nod their heads in unison, lulled to sleep by bland, shallow and superficial issue politics. The only thing we really know about Bush II is that he supports the death penalty and that he plans to outlaw complicated mathematical equations that he doesn't understand. One equation I don't understand is how somebody with a lower GPA than me can get into Yale. There's something definitely fuzzy about that math. But, wait, I forgot about Mommy and Daddy's dough "

This is the dumbest thing I have ever read here and that is saying a lot. Repeating an unconfirmed news article from the Pravda does not represent responsible journalism. This site has about as much credibility as the onion, which is too bad because different views are needed in the media.

by Jesus H Saturday December 14, 2002 at 09:06 PM

Jesus h christ people! I wish this story had an ounce of truth to it, but after reading the lawsuit it's pretty clear that, well, plaintiff is stark raving mad.

The pic of W. and his dog is amusing, but steals credibility away from this site.

Next, please....

The story is true, he really is being sued.

by But Saturday December 14, 2002 at 09:13 PM

whether or not the lawsuit will succeed remains to be seen. The accusations do sound pretty outlandish, but certainly no more outlandish than some of the accusations made against Clinton, and we all know they were true, every last one of them.

Troopergate

David Brock is an ex-writer for the Daily Cal at UC Berkeley, and is an ex-conservative. He admits to having totally fabricated the 'troopergate' scandal, and smearing the name of Anita Hill, that you might remember were very big news items that right-wing radio stations got months of mileage out of in the mid 90s. Now he is a sometimes commentator on cable news.

CIA Mind-Control Slavery

by Tom McKay Friday December 20, 2002 at 01:35 PM

mctommckay@yahoo.com

FRIDAY, December 20, 2002

Dear San Francisco Independent Media Center,

Thank you for reporting the story about Margie Schoedinger. This story is typical of the treatment inflicted on CIA Mind-Controlled Slaves. Unfortunately many innocent people have been attacked and abused by members of the Global Elite such as President George Walker Bush. This behavior is much larger than what may have happened to a single person.

George Walker Bush is a member of the Illuminati secret society, and the Order of Skull and Bones secret society. Both of these groups are exclusive clubs for the Elite.

These groups have so much power they control law enforcement from the CIA on down to the neighborhood watch. They also control the Courts from the Supreme Court on down. They rarely get arrested, prosecuted or convicted.

They are so far above the law that they have become insanely corrupt. Remember that "Power Corrupts."

Margie Schoedinger's case is similar to the way many thousands of people have been treated by the Global Elite. There have been a number of books written about this sort of thing. "Thanks for the Memories," by Brice Taylor is my favorite. "Trance Formation of America," by Cathy O'Brien and Mark Phillips, <http://www.trance-formation.org> is another book.

The CIA was deeply involved in developing many different techniques to enslave, hypnotize, and brainwash people. It is the greatest atrocity since the Holocaust. It is difficult to know how many people around the world are being treated in a similar fashion. Some people have estimated that there are more than a million people being attacked at various levels of intensity. Some people are trauma-based Mind-Controlled Slaves. Some people are controlled by microchip implants in their bodies. This must be exposed and stopped.

Sincerely,
Tom McKay

Has anyone spoken to relatives, friends of Margie Schoedinger? Has any fact been established as to whether she actually knew George W Bush?
Why so much hush hush on this topic. It may sound insane, but is it really? Who knows. Bush is a psycho, for sure. Will we get updated news on this lawsuit, or has Karl Rove called you and ordered a halt to future stories on this subject?

Interesting read...

Also this woman - who sued Bush... 'expired' due to a bullet to the head.... and since Bush is 'quoted' as saying on the record that she'd be better off if she killed herself and that she was as good as dead anyway - I'd say at least SOME attention from the media would be a no brainer.... IF Clinton had this kinda suit it'd be on the news in a hot second.. oh wait, it was..... cept his was consenting sex and the case against Bush was RAPE.. hell, that should have been good for a front page on every news paper in the world..... but instead it was silenced to a number I can count on one hand... pathetic
