Gillerman calls Bolton 'israel's secret weapon'

israelis never cease to amaze me, with either their arrogance or their belligerence. The word chutzpah doesn't even begin to capture their unparalleled penchant for audacity.

After a staunch defence of Israel on Friday night in the UN General Assembly, John Bolton, the U.S. Ambassador to the UN, has been described by his Israeli counterpart as, "Israel's secret weapon."

Israeli Ambassador Dan Gillerman praised Bolton at a New York Jewish assembly, according to a report carried by Arutz Sheva, an online news network operating in Israel.

U.S. Ambassador John Bolton is Israel's secret weapon in the international body Gillerman is quoted as saying.

Apparently, having their own ambassador is not enough for israelis - they must co-opt ours.

Bolton launched a scathing attack on the United Nations on Friday night following the passing of a resolution which expressed regret at the killing of 19 Palestinian civilians by the Israeli military last week at Beit Hanoun, and called for a fact-finding mission to investigate the incident.

Which, btw, has no binding force.

"Many of the sponsors of that resolution are notorious abusers of human rights themselves, and were seeking to deflect criticism of their own policies," he told the UN General Assembly.

"This type of resolution serves only to exacerbate tensions by serving the interests of elements hostile to Israel's inalienable and recognized right to exist," he added.

You mean the one that doesn't exist?

"The problem of anti-Israel bias is not unique to the Human Rights Council. It is endemic to the culture of the United Nations. It is a decades-old, systematic problem that transcends the whole panoply of the UN organizations and agencies," he continued.

israel - the state of self-perpetuated paranoia.

Gillerman was just as furious as Bolton. He stormed out of the meeting after telling members if they voted for the resolution, "you will be an accomplice to terror. The blood of more innocents will be on your hands."

That, of course, is israel's cue to slaughter more innocents.

156 countries voted for the resolution [!!!], while seven countries opposed it (Australia, United States, Israel, the Marshall Islands, Micronesia, Nauru and Palau. 6 nations abstained.

All of Europe, including Britain voted for the resolution [!!!].

The democratic General Assembly succeeded, where the dictatorial Security Council failed.

Now, THAT is democracy at its FINEST.

Any probe by the UN into the events of Beit Hanoun will require the co-operation of Israel, which may not be forthcoming, according to a statement by Gillerman Saturday night.

"I don't think we should cooperate with the committee and my recommendation to the prime minister and the foreign minister is to ignore it," he said.

Typical.

What can you expect from a nation of people who think they're better than everyone else?

GOD'S CHOSEN PEOPLE

November 16th, 2006

The creation of the Zionist State of Israel (on stolen Palestinian land), gave the world an excellent opportunity to examine the true nature of the Jews, and understand why so many Gentiles (around the globe) detest them.

Their arrogance, cruelty, virulent racism, and brutality (often captured on film by foreign correspondents), gives us a true picture of a nation without a conscience, without a soul, without morality, and without a God.

The arrogant Israeli Prime Minister, Menachem Begin, once stated the following: "The Jewish "Race" is the MASTER RACE. We are divine gods on this planet. We are as different from the inferior races as they are from insects. In fact, compared to our "race", other races are beasts and animals; cattle at best. Other races are considered as human excrement. Our destiny is to rule over the inferior races. Our earthly kingdom will be ruled by our leader with a rod of iron. The masses will lick our feet and serve us as our slaves."

Menachem Begin merely uttered what all Zionists believe in their hearts.

The uncivilized, inhuman, and brutal treatment of the innocent, unarmed, Palestinian civilians (since 1948) is a clear manifestation of the Zionists' evil and racist mentality.

According to the prevailing Jewish mindset, all the despicable Israeli acts listed below, comply with the requirements of the Jewish Law. In other words, they are "kosher".

1-Stealing 80% of the Palestinians' land is "kosher".

2-Killing innocent, unarmed, Palestinian men, women, and children, is "kosher".

3-Practicing Apartheid, and Genocide, in Palestine, is "kosher".

4-Building an enormous dividing wall in Palestine, without the Palestinians' permission, is "kosher".

5-Behaving like tyrannical, racist, bullies, is "kosher".

6-Demolishing thousands of Palestinian homes (often with the occupants still inside), is "kosher".

7-Burning thousands of Palestinian homes, orchards and farms, is "kosher".

8-Unlawfully confiscating Palestinian properties, machinery and animals, is "kosher".

9-Raping, and murdering, Palestinian girls, is "kosher"

10-Massacres and Atrocities inflicted upon the innocent, unarmed, Palestinian civilians, are perfectly "kosher".

11-Torturing approximately 125,000 Palestinian prisoners, for decades, is "kosher".

12-Forcing 1.3 million Palestinians (at gunpoint) to abandon their homes, their farms and their ancestral homeland, is "kosher".

13-Breaking the arms and legs of children for throwing stones at Israeli tanks, is "kosher".

14-Poisoning the water wells of Palestinians, with arsenic, to make them leave their homes and villages, is "kosher".

15-Ignoring dozens of United Nations Resolutions, since 1948, is "kosher".

16-Assassinating politicians, and leaders of the Palestinian Authority, is "kosher".

17-Terrorising Palestinian families, in the middle of the night, with "Gestapo style" raids, is "kosher".

18-Treating the Palestinian civilians like sub-human creatures, is "kosher".

19-Using American helicopters to destroy Palestinian cars, with all the passengers still inside, is "kosher".

20-Deliberately harassing, and bullying, Palestinian civilians at countless "check points", and "road blocks", is "kosher".

21-Desecrating Mosques and Muslim Holy Books, is "kosher".

22-Crushing demonstrators to death, with bulldozers, is "kosher".

23-Renaming dozens of stolen Palestinian towns and villages with Hebrew names, is "kosher".

Behaving like demented, homicidal maniacs is perfectly normal for the Jews. It is the result of 4,000 years of inbreeding.

How can wicked, mentally deranged, immoral, murderers claim to be members of the Human Race?

How can a group of arrogant creatures (who belong to the same Semitic tribe as the Arabs), claim racial purity and racial superiority? Jews show their abysmal ignorance, and crass stupidity, when they accuse the Semite Arabs of "anti-Semitism"!

How can cruel, evil, thugs who relentlessly break God's Ten Commandments claim to be "God's Chosen People"? I regard their preposterous claim as GRIEVOUS BLASPHEMY. I honestly think that they are Satan's chosen lycanthropes.

Apathy is an unforgivable sin. Evil spreads like a cancer when good men (and good women), do nothing to stop it. On Judgement Day, we will be asked to justify our total lack of compassion and callous indifference to the pain, suffering, persecution, injustice, and the bullying of millions of innocent fellow humans. How will we plead?

But how long more should we

But how long more should we wait before GOD punish these murderers and thieves? Why is GOD allowing them to oppress us? All these plots and plans would not happen if GOD had not allowed them? I am longing for justice oh GOD. How they twist and turn their words and accuse the innocents of their crimes!!

In my personal opinion, the best way to get back at them is for the Palestinians to ALL just leave their land (which is not possible I know)and see what happens to these murderers. I bet you these Zionists will really lose it, as they are so used to killing and oppressing.

Is Honoring Mumia a Crime?

Philadelphia files criminal charges against French cities supporting black death-row prisoner

by Hans Bennett

Is it a crime to publicly honor black death-row prisoner and journalist Mumia Abu-Jamal (convicted of killing white Philadelphia police officer Daniel Faulkner in a 1982 trial that Amnesty International has declared a "violation of minimum international standards that govern fair trial procedures and the use of the death penalty")? Future Philadelphia mayoral candidate Peter J. Wirs thinks so.

Acting as the Chairman of Philadelphia's 59th Republican Ward Executive Committee, Wirs has filed criminal charges against the French cities of Paris and St. Denis. Their crime?

In 2003 Abu-Jamal was declared an honorary citizen of Paris—the first time since Pablo Picasso was similarly honored in the 1970s. This April, the French city of St. Denis (a Paris suburb) named a major street after him. Located in the Cristino Garcia District of the city (named after an anti-Franco Spanish Republican), Rue Mumia Abu-Jamal leads directly to the largest sports arena in Europe: "Nelson Mandela Stadium."

Wirs and the GOP ward committee allege that these public honors violate French Penal Code, Article 24 § 2 (L. 29 juillet 1881), prohibiting "the glorified perpetration of a crime [whose elements include] the voluntary trespass to another person's life or physical integrity ..."

The committee's press release explains that:

The 59th Republican Ward Executive Committee's French counsel, Martin Bozmarov, Esq. filed a plainte, (criminal complaint) with the Procureur de la Republique, akin to a District Attorney, in two separate départements (France's primary political subdivision) who represents the government before the trial courts, the Tribunal de Grande Instance de Paris for the capital city and Tribunal de Grande Instance de Bobigny that has jurisdiction over Saint Denis. Once each Procureur determines the charges founded, a instruction judiciaire (judicial investigation) is requested of the Chambre de l'Instruction, a separate body of judges, who appoints the Juge d'Instruction, a special investigating judge, to conduct a full scale investigation for both exculpatory as well as inculpatory evidence, including interviewing parties and witnesses."

"If the Juge d'Instruction estimates prosecution is warranted, the dossier is transferred back to the Procureur, while the three-judge Chambre de l'Instruction, if determining there is sufficient evidence to charge, issue the mise en examen, the formal indicting instrument, and transfers the case to a trial court."

Calling Abu-Jamal a "punk," Chairman Wirs proclaims that "Abu-Jamal's gratuitous exploitation of genuine international opposition to the death penalty should be exposed for the 'snake-oil' scam that it is."

Wirs will be among the numerous Philadelphia city officials traveling to France on November 27 to lobby against Rue Mumia and his honorary citizenship in Paris. In an advance letter requesting a meeting with the Paris City Council, this delegation writes:

"To give to honours of the city to a cop killer is both an immoral and irresponsible choice. It is all the more choking to see the name of a murderer next to that of Pablo Picasso in the gallery of the "Parisian Honours". But the message that the decision of your assembly is making is much more disturbing as the French policemen are everyday exposed to an increasing number of assaults and violent urban acts."

Rue Mumia Abu-Jamal

At the Rue Mumia inauguration ceremony in St. Denis this past April, Mayor Didier Paillard declared: "Mumia's struggle is a symbol for justice, the abolition of the death penalty, human rights, and resistance against a system which has the arrogance to reign over the world in the name of those same human rights that it tramples with complete impunity on its own soil."

In response to the street-naming, resolutions condemning St. Denis were introduced in the US Congress, the Pennsylvania State Senate, and the Philadelphia City Council.

In September, a delegation visited from France to defend Rue Mumia. They attempted to meet with Philadelphia Mayor John Street, but after several hours of being ignored, they left his office to speak at the town meeting nearby organized by Mumia's local supporters.

At the town meeting, the visitors proclaimed: "As long as the city of St. Denis exists, we will have Rue Mumia Abu-Jamal."

Mumia's supporters later presented their own resolution defending Rue Mumia at the City Council.

Supporters in New York City have started an online petition calling for a street in Harlem to be named after Abu-Jamal.

A History of International Support

Support from France has been extensive. In November, 2002 a delegation of more than 40 French supporters of Abu-Jamal traveled to Philadelphia to hand-deliver a 250,000 signature petition (demanding a new trial) to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania office at City Hall. However, the Supreme Court ultimately rejected the petition on grounds that it was not done on the official form created by the courts.

Arguably the world's most famous political prisoner, Mumia's international supporters include the Japanese Diet, the European Parliament, and members of both the British & German Parliaments.

In 1982 he was convicted of killing white Philadelphia police officer Daniel Faulkner in a trial that Amnesty

International has declared a "violation of minimum international standards that govern fair trial procedures and the use of the death penalty."

Calling for a new trial, supporters around the world feel that the original one was tainted by racism, prosecutorial & judicial misconduct, coerced witnesses, suppressed evidence, and a denial of Mumia's constitutional right to represent himself.

His case has attracted activists around the world organizing against racism, poverty, corporate media censorship, mass incarceration, political repression, and the death penalty.

Activist Noam Chomsky argues that "Mumia's case is symbolic of something much broader...The US prison system is simply class and race war...Mumia and other prisoners are the kind of people that get assassinated by what's called 'social cleansing' in US client states like Colombia."

Still on Death Row

In December, 2001 Federal District Court Judge William Yohn affirmed Abu-Jamal's guilt but overturned the death sentence. Citing the 1988 Mills v. Maryland precedent, Yohn ruled that sentencing forms used by jurors and Judge Sabo's instructions to the jury were confusing. Subsequently, jurors mistakenly believed that they had to unanimously agree on any mitigating circumstances in order to be considered as weighing against a death sentence.

Mumia's case is now in the federal Third Circuit Court of Appeals. DA Lynne Abraham is appealing the death penalty ruling while Mumia is appealing the guilty verdict.

If the penalty ruling is overturned, a new execution date will be set for Mumia. If his ruling is upheld, the DA can still impanel a new jury to rehear the penalty phase, which could then sentence Mumia to death—regardless of the 3rd Circuit ruling.

Because the DA appealed Yohn's death penalty decision, Mumia has never left death row, and is still unable to have such "privileges" as full-contact visits with his family.

The Legal Update

In December, 2005, the 3rd Circuit announced the beginning of deliberations and shocked many by agreeing to consider two claims not "certified for appeal" by Yohn in 2001.

Mumia's attorney Robert R. Bryan declared it to be "the most important decision affecting my client since his 1981 arrest, for it was the first time there was a ruling that could lead to a new trial and his freedom."

On October 23, attorney Robert R. Bryan (attorney for death-row prisoner Mumia Abu-Jamal) filed the 4th Step Reply Brief with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, Philadelphia. Because this should be the last round of reply briefs, Bryan estimates that the public hearing of arguments should begin within three months. After the hearing, the panel of judges will then decide whether to grant Abu-Jamal a new trial.

The courts are now considering the following four issues:

#1. Whether the penalty phase of Mumia's trial violated the legal precedent set by the US Supreme Court's 1988 Mills v. Maryland ruling. This issue was Yohn's grounds for overturning the death sentence and is now being appealed by the DA.

#2. "Certified for appeal" by Yohn in 2001, the Batson claim, addresses the prosecution's use of peremptory challenges to exclude Blacks from Mumia's jury. In 1986, the US Supreme Court ruled in Batson v. Kentucky that a defendant deserves a new trial if it can be proved that jurors were excluded on the grounds of race.

At Mumia's trial, Prosecutor McGill used 11 of his 15 peremptory challenges to remove black jurors that were otherwise acceptable. While Philadelphia is 44% black, Abu-Jamal's jury was composed of ten whites and only two blacks. From 1977-1986 when current Pennsylvania governor Ed Rendell was Philadelphia's District Attorney, the evidence of racism is striking: from 1977-86, the Philadelphia DA struck 58% of black jurors, but only 22% of white jurors.

#3. The legality of McGill's statement to the jury minimizing the seriousness of a verdict of guilt: "if you find the Defendant guilty of course there would be appeal after appeal and perhaps there could be a reversal of the case, or whatever, so that may not be final."

In 1986 the Pennsylvania Supreme Court ruled against McGill in another case (Commonwealth v. Baker) on the same grounds. When Abu-Jamal addressed this same issue in his 1989 appeal with the State Supreme Court, the court reversed its decision on the legality of such a statement—ruling against the claim for a mistrial.

Incredibly, just one year later, in the very next case involving this issue (Commonwealth v. Beasley), the State Supreme Court flip-flopped and restored the precedent. However, this would not affect the ruling against Mumia, because the court ruled that this precedent would only apply in "future trials." This suggests that the rulings were designed to specifically exclude Mumia's case from its precedent.

#4. The fairness of Mumia's 1995-97 PCRA hearings when the retired, 74-year-old Judge Sabo was called back specifically for the hearing. Besides the obvious unfairness of recalling the exact same judge to rule on his fairness in the original 1982 trial, his actual PCRA bias has been extensively documented.

During the 1995 hearings, the mainstream Philadelphia Inquirer wrote that the "behavior of the judge in the case was disturbing the first time around—and in hearings last week he did not give the impression to those in the courtroom of fair mindedness. Instead, he gave the impression, damaging in the extreme, of undue haste and hostility toward the defense's case."

Concluding the PCRA hearing, Sabo rejected all evidence and every witness presented by the defense as not being credible. Therefore, Sabo upheld all of the facts and procedures of the original trial as being correct.

"I'm Going To Help Them Fry The Nigger"

In 2001 another witness—Terri Mauer-Carter—challenged Sabo's integrity, but the State Supreme Court ruled against the defense's right to include her affidavit in their current federal appeal. Mauer-Carter was working as a stenographer in the Philadelphia Court system on the eve of Mumia's 1982 trial when she states that she overheard Judge Sabo say in reference to Mumia's case that he was going to help the prosecution "fry the nigger."

Journalist Dave Lindorff recently interviewed Mauer-Carter's former boss, Richard Klein, who was with Mauer-Carter when she states she overheard Sabo. A Philadelphia Common Pleas Court judge at the time, who now sits on PA's Superior Court, Klein told Lindorff: "I won't say it did happen, and I won't say it didn't. That was a long time ago." Lindorff considers Klein's refusal to firmly reject Mauer-Carter's claim to be an affirmation of her statement.

The State Supreme Court ruling was an affirmation of lower-level Judge Patricia Dembe's argument that even if Mauer-Carter is correct about Sabo's stated intent to use his position as Judge to throw the trial and help the prosecution "fry the nigger," it doesn't matter. According to Dembe, since it "was a jury trial, as long as the presiding Judge's rulings were legally correct, claims as to what might have motivated or animated those rulings are not relevant."

Organizing for December 9

Pam Africa (coordinator of Mumia's support network) explains that "when we defend Rue Mumia, we call attention to Mumia's current battle in the courts. We know the Supreme Court won't hear his case, so this current phase truly is the last chance for a new trial."

"I believe Mumia is innocent and am personally calling for his immediate release. However, I'll work with anyone supporting a fair trial. By demanding a new trial, we can work with those who know the trial was rotten but are unsure of Mumia's innocence."

Philly supporters are organizing for Dec. 9—the 25th anniversary of Abu-Jamal's incarceration. Africa is urging supporters to come to Philly or otherwise organize an event in their hometown. "Mumia's case represents all that is wrong with this system. We must take action now before it is too late!"
