Spain to Subpoena CIA Flight Crew

Madrid, Dec 20 (Prensa Latina) The defense team of two victims of CIA abductions in Europe urged for a subpoena of the 13 US airmen that crewed a flight that stopped in Palma de Mallorca with prisoners aboard.

The request relied on a European Parliament probe that indicated the aircraft was involved in the abduction of German Jaled el Masri and in the illegal rendition of UK resident Ethiopian Binyam Mohamed in 2001.

Spain has the names of the 13-member crew of the CIA B-737 plane that belongs to a CIA front company, although some have been altered to avoid identification.

Public Prosecutor Vicente Gonzalez Mota must still order their subpoena, then Judge Moreno, who is already investigating the credit cards the crew used and phone calls made from three hotels.

The US is expected to play deaf to this request like it has done with others filed by the Attorney's Office of Milan, Italy, that has requested the extradition of 26 CIA agents.
