President Bush Aware Of 4.5 Trillion Wanta Settlement But Arrogantly Hides Deal Indicating Complicity In Hi-Jacking Trillions From The People

Former Ambassador Leo Wanta giving Fed's illegal blockage of settlement until July 31 to release money or he will pursue the entire 70 trillion stolen by Bush and Clinton crime families. Money now being held in Bank of America in Richmond, Va., as media continues to cover-up story of the century which could turn around the American economy.

By Greg Szymanski

President George W. Bush received a letter on July 14 from AmeriTrust Groupe, Inc. and former Ambassador Leo Wanta, advising him of a massive 4.5 trillion dollar settlement earmarked for the U.S. Treasury.

The letter was addressed to Secretary of the Treasury, Henry M. Paulson, Jr., asking him for his prompt attention in releasing the repatriated offshore funds. Wanta on June 12 entered into a negotiated settlement with U.S. authorities ending his quest to recover an estimated 27.5 trillion in funds first generated by Wanta on behalf of President Ronald Reagan at the end of the Cold War.

After Reagan left office, the money was earmarked for the American people with Wanta as legal trustor, but instead he was backstabbed and the money hijacked by President George H. Bush and President William Jefferson Clinton in an elaborate offshore banking scheme to enrich their own pockets and the pockets of a select group of elite friends

The Arctic Beacon is one of the only news outlets covering the explosive Wanta story, which if followed up properly, could lead to indictments to Bush and Clinton, as well as many other co-conspirators who have defrauded the American people out of trillions of dollars while, at the same time on paper, supposedly bankrupting the country.

In England, the International Currency Review has been the only British outlet following the story. Here is what this British internet source had to say about the Wanta story, which also has been reported and verified by the Arctic Beacon:

"Leo Wanta, an honourable and upright man (rare in the intelligence environment), refused to accommodate demands from two US Presidents for Trustor funds to be diverted for their own ultimate personal benefit, and annotated a Federal Reserve transactions print-out to the effect that George (Jorge) Bush Sr. is in breach of crucial US statutes in connection with a transfer of $1.0 billion from a bank in Malaga, Spain, to Panama, in August 1989.

"Instead of being supported by his peers, as would be expected in an ethical environment, Wanta was framed, arrested, flung into a stinking Swiss dungeon for 133 days, extradited to the United States (after an intervention by Yizhak Rabin), arraigned before a US Judge in New York, released when the judge threw the case out, rearrested without a warrant on the US courtroom steps, extradited illegally to Wisconsin on a trumped-up tax charge, suffered false witness, jailed for 22 years, experienced three attempts to murder him in prison plus unsuccessful official efforts to have him certified insane, released into house arrest in Wisconsin where he languished for many years, and falsely reported by the lying CIA to be dead."

Although Bush and the mainstream press have not uttered a peep about the massive amount of money headed for U.S. coffers, in the letter the President was made aware of the particulars of the deal, including an estimated 1.6 trillion to be placed in the U.S. Treasury as taxes paid by AmeriTrust.

Further, as noted by the International Currency Review, the deal provides for the following arrangements made between Wanta's organization and the U.S. Treasury, all made known to Bush:

Pay 35% tax direct to the Treasury, amounting to $1,575,000,000,000 prepaid.

2.

Pay 6% state tax to the State of Virginia amounting to approximately $270,000,000,000 prepaid.

3.

Generate windfall tax payments to the US Treasury worth at least $96 billion per banking day.

4.

Generate secondary tax windfalls arising from related financial transactions by US counter-parties and others worth at least the same amount again, so that total daily tax windfalls accruing to the Treasury/Internal Revenue Service will aggregate an estimated $200 billion per banking day [3 + 4].

5.

As a consequence, rehabilitate the US Federal Government's finances, reversing the decades of financial decadence, and providing resources for infrastructure and other projects, tax reductions (including a possible outright abolition of Inheritance Tax, and income and corporate tax cuts), plus additional resources for the vulnerable segments of society.

Presently, the 4.5 trillion is being held by Bank of America in Richmond, Va., as the Federal Reserve Board is illegally blocking the release of the money to the U.S. Treasury, the American People, AmeriTrust and Wanta.

Further, according to Wanta, who appeared again Friday on Greg Szymanski's radio show, The Investigative Journal, "everyday the money is being tied up" illegally by the Fed, "the American people are losing 200 billion a day."

Wanta added there was no justification to hold up the settlement and has given the Fed a July 31 to release the money or he plans to pursue all legal avenues to gain control of the total 27.5 trillion.

However, financial observers claim if Wanta proceeds after the total amount it could bankrupt many large worldwide financial institutions, lacking the liquidity to meet Wanta's request, as much of the money has been illegally diverted or stolen by corrupt U.S. officials like Bush and Clinton.

Dubbed the Wanta Plan by financial onlookers, analysts suggests the massive settlement if used properly could once again turn around the U.S. economy, erase the Bush-orchestrated 8 trillion plus National Debt and again put the needs of the American people and its faltering infrastructure at the forefront instead of in the background, as planned by the New World Order's plan to destabilize the economy and destroy America from within.

Since President Bush is fully aware of the settlement and the particulars behind the whole Wanta story, as well as being complicit in the theft of trillions, he should be publicly forced by the fess up instead of being protected by a corrupted media, a media also on the take like a bunch of back alley criminals being handed a paper bag full of money in order to keep their mouths shut.

Although there have been many attempts to outlaw and disband the Fed, the Wanta settlement should be the story that breaks the camel's back, giving Americans a clear-cut example of how foreign, private interests are controlling the destiny of their country.

The Wanta story shows a crisis has peaked since it is clear the Federal Reserve is sabotaging the finalization of the deal cut between the U.S. Treasury and Wanta, the former distinguished U.S. Secret Service/Treasury financial expert and agent

Since it is now out in the open that the Fed is blocking transfer of trillions owed the American people, financial analysts close to the case say it's time the U.S. Government disband and seize the Fed, replacing its underlying statutes with new ones creating a national central bank on behalf of the people, with appropriate policy independence safeguards protecting the people's interests not private foreign entities.

As a recap, according to Wanta, the repatriated funds now sitting in a Virginia bank represent only a small fraction of the original $27.5 trillion which was raised in 1989-92 from more than 190 international banks at a deep discount for a 20-year period at 7.5% per annum.

The long-term Trustor of these funds, by Presidential instruction dating from President Reagan's era, Wanta further believes the total funds are now worth approximately $70 trillion.

And if the funds aren't released to the American people, Wanta again wanted to remind President Bush, the Fed and other higher-ups he will take action as trustor to organize the collection of the full $70 trillion from offshore accounts of the Title 18, Section 6 USG intelligence corporations, and their closure, as has been advised by U.S. Judge Gerald Bruce Lee in a Memorandum Opinion signed in April 2003.
