Multi-National Force, Iraq: Coalition forces kill al Zarqawi, 12 terrorists

By: COMBINED PRESS INFORMATION CENTER on: 26.04.2006 [19:18 ] (1610 reads)

(1801 bytes) [c]

BAGHDAD , Iraq – Coalition forces killed 12 terrorists during a raid April 25 in Yusifiyah at a safe house associated with foreign terrorists. Multiple intelligence sources led the troops to the specific structure located approximately 8 kilometers N/NE of the location where the U.S. Apache helicopter crashed April 1.

Upon arrival the troops took direct fire and immediately engaged the threat with small arms fire as well as rotary wing aircraft machine gun fire. The troops initially killed five terrorists outside of the safe house, and then called for an air strike to neutralize the persistent direct fire coming from the safe house.

After the precision air strike, the ground troops conducted a tactical search of the destroyed safe house and located the bodies of seven more terrorists and a woman. Every male who was found in the rubble was wearing an AK-47 vest with two loaded magazines and two grenades. The troops also discovered suicide notes on one of the terrorists, body bombs, weapons to include a shoulder-fired rocket and ammunition.

The first terrorist who ran out of the safe house upon the troops' arrival was attempting to launch the shoulder-fired rocket and was immediately engaged and killed.

Two wanted terrorists, one potentially transnational, were believed to be operating from this safe house. However, it is unknown at this time if the two were killed in the raid. Coalition forces are currently determining the identity of those killed.

The troops destroyed the weapons, suicide vests/body bombs and ammunition on-site.

13 insurgents killed in southern Baghdad

BAGHDAD, April 26 (KUNA) - US Forces, backed up by its Air force killed 13 insurgents including a woman after pounding their hideout in southern Baghdad, US Army said.

The US Army's raid was based on intelligence tip-offs.

All corpses found were wearing bomb-laden vests according to the statement.

Two of the dead insurgents were foreigners wanted by the Iraqi government. (end) ahh.

This is the US Department of Defense propaganda operation/media offensive in Baghdad.

The American Forces Radio and Television Network are the major operatives. They run the local radio programs and produce segments for the "Pentagon Channel", which is produced for the sake of US soldiers, as a kind of "feel good" propaganda device. They are also involved in arranging for "embedded media" to Hook-It-Up and Ride the Snake.

Mmm.

Pure propaganda

by BigPearl on 26.04.2006 [21:11 ]

This story is meant to reinforce the impression that the Iraqi Resistance doesn't exist.

The raid, it says, targets "foreigner terrorists".

The "foreign terrorists" can be found in close proximity to where a US helicopter was shot down.

The "foreign terrorists" are depicted as "suicide bomber" types, which proves beyond doubt that P2OG and Mossad and SAS are NOT conducting Black Psy-Ops and creating the "Civil War" facade to justify the US/UK presence.

The AK-47 emphasis smears Russia just a tad, maybe.

has got to be "The troops also discovered suicide notes on one of the terrorists" Apparently, "terrorists" blow themselves into millions of pieces but their suicide notes survive. That's why they carry them. Makes lots of sense — in Hollywood, USA.

...how convenient is it that they would have destroyed all the evidence on site??? Wouldn't it be more convincing to an already skeptical world to have pictures as proof of what you said happened?

by Mike-Malaysia on 27.04.2006 [05:40 ]

that stood out for me too when I read the article.

Smells fishy. the US probably just destroyed another house with a normal family inside it. would suit their method of operation thats for sure.

"The "foreign terrorists" are depicted as "suicide bomber" types, which proves beyond doubt that P2OG and Mossad and SAS are NOT conducting Black Psy-Ops and creating the "Civil War" facade to justify the US/UK presence." — BP

Has anyone aside from myself figured out how such black-ops can get around this small detail? It's simple really. All they need is the front of fake leaders posing as militant Muslims — Mossad and Kurds would do nicely — and lots of money to give to any willing poor sucker's family. For enough money, I'm quite sure there are countless desperate Arab and Iraqi Muslims willing to play the role, as long as they believe they are fighting against the real enemy — western invaders.

Now, you may also wonder how such suicide suckers go along with such a plan, even after they reach a targeted location and see not one single westerner and lots of innocent Iraqi Muslim? Also simple. The bombs they carry are detonated by remote — much to the surprise of the poor suckers.

Sound impossible or far-fetched? If I can think of a way to do it, rest assured the Mossad, CIA, or US Special ops can. They are all that and more — the cold-blooded fascists!

Contrast this "news" story with another that appeared in the press on 04/16/2006, issued by American Forces Press Service;

"Early this morning, coalition troops killed five terrorists and detained five suspects while searching for a wanted al-Qaeda associate. Upon arrival at the Yusifiya hideout, the troops received small arms fire. They returned fire, assaulted the building and ultimately neutralized the threat, officials said.

During the assault, five terrorists, three of them wearing suicide vests, were killed. Two of the suicide bombers were killed before either could detonate his vest, and the third detonated his body bomb, killing only himself, and injuring no one else.

After the terrorists initiated hostilities, one woman died, and three women and one child were injured. They were taken to the Tenth Combat Support Hospital in Baghdad. All four were reported to be walking under their own power.

Coalition forces confirmed that one of the five men detained is the al-Qaeda suspect for whom the troops were searching. The terrorist, whose name is being withheld, was involved in the planning and execution of roadside bomb attacks, and allegedly was associated with foreign fighter terrorists. The other four suspects are being assessed for knowledge of, and involvement in, terrorist activity.

The troops found four AK 47's, a pistol and several grenades at the safe house. Explosive ordinance detonated the two remaining suicide vest on-site. The enemy used most grenades, and one grenade was found with the pin pulled, but not yet expended, in the hand of a dead terrorist."

Notice how the story claims the successful capture of an "al-Qaeda suspect".

The falsehood of the capture of an "Al-Qaeda suspect" is betrayed by the failure of the US military to explain why the name is not released; as this would only serve to boost troop morale etc., and provide the DoD with an excellent "victory"-type propaganda nugget.

No, it's alright (!)

NuLabour have deflected attention by releasing more bird flu outbreaks, and announcing a Brazilian football manager for England - sure to take Blair off the news... or is it?

Military Families didn't get a single mention yesterday on the news - was "Black Wednesday" another piece of news management?

Interesting piece on BBC radio news this morning. Flashback to the last would-be war leader (Antony Eden) and how he apparently tried to manipulate the BBC into not allowing the opposition their right to reply. After "soul searching", the BBC refused his request, and Eden was out of office in two months.

Reading between the lines - the BBC can only act NOT in a government's interests, if it knows that it's action will cause the government to collapse. Interesting way of looking at the current scenario. Is Blair about to go? Can the BBC help him on his way? Or will he stay for years, and the BBC have to dance his tune?

The BBC then is I believe, very much different from the BBC of today. The War Of Terror as put paid to that. The amount of pro-Govt stuff the liars pump out is frightening. The news reeks of lies, spin and subliminality. The BBC is firmly entrenched in the pockets of the bLiar demon.

Look at Medialens.org and see how they identify the news people as being in bed with, yip, that same bLiar demon.

The Zionists script their agenda like a bad hollywood director...:

- The key subject and main problem is iran.

- Whenever the problem gets too big

A.: theres either a "terrornetwork" found in a family house that has to be bombarded with mininukes that has "direct connectons with al-quaida" and the immortal bin laden.

B.: Keep the primitive materialistic western peoples head buzy by manipulating gasoline prices through the zionist network of worldwidecorporations combined with worldwidedpuppetpoliticians

C.: Shoot al Zargawi or one of the immortal puppet-terrorists.

D.: Manipulate the propagandarized materialistic western peoples head buzy, by bombarding them with specualtions/facts on what areas Irans military can reach.. (They just said afew days ago that iran has nukes that can reach europe... not long ago the same people (Israel) said that Israel has enough nukes to take out any european capital... So now they're giving us (europeans) "a choice"... if europe does not help israel to takeover iran israel will nuke us, but if we choose to stay neutral iran is supposed to nuke us... COMON i ain't 5 years old nomore, and throughout all history the difference between an ally and a enemy is cooperation VS threats. For me the lazyness and incompetence of average european (incl. USA-europeans, that created USA like they now create israel) is so irritating to just watch!)

E.: Make some professor at a very respected university to write books that lead into insanity, about antisemitism, etc etc. (you know the zion agenda)

F.: Boost their "truthtellers" (read liars), like alex jones, jeff rense marketing, with any necessary resources to distract people from the truth... Using: Sheen... or Releasing a movie that covers "safefacts" about former crimes (United93).

I could add tons and tons and tons of their crap... But one thing is for sure, because of their recent primitive actions, beeing one step ahead of their agenda is realy getting easier than picking winners on a stockmarket... We're moving over to a phase when we can tell they're gonna do something before they figure out they need to do it, because there is no lie that is sustainable when you are 2% of the population.

The only way they can win is if YOU don't keep continuing doing the great job most of you do... Inform the world, talk with your friends, your family, your colleagues, classmates, teachers/students... use the networks you have... The more people talk about them the more stressed their decisions are, wich only expands the growth of "our message". I repeat again give the message to the world, talk about the "funny Finkelstein cases" when you find relevance. For example i always put Finkelstein as subject whenever theres a discussion about any Book-scandal. I use it even with people that has absolutely no interrest in politics at all, because 1 of 20 or 1 of 50 will understand, and it's those 1 of 20/50 that can realy make the difference, and give the message a new look that can reach new crowds.

In my opinion we've already won this war in theory, all we need to do is to inform new crowds thats all.

I realy admire the work this guy is putting into this: ht tp://www.iamthewitness.com
And ofcourse ht tp://normanfinkelstein.com/

Foreign Terrorists in Iraq

by BlackPanther on 28.04.2006 [03:32 ]

Actually, Iraq is infested with foreign terrorists. The primary terrorist is called the American Empire, its military, its spooks and spies, as well as USA allies.

A true War against Terrorism would involved eliminating and destroying this American terrorist threat. This American threat is one that OPENLY engages in terrorism against other nations since the very spawning of America as nation 200 years ago (e.g. the First Nations tribes or Mexico in the 19th-Century or Cuba and Nicaragua more recently) and against its own citizens (like 9-11).
