A 16-year-old Crystal Lake girl facing a felony hate crime charge alleging she and a friend distributed anti-homosexual fliers at her high school must remain locked up until her case goes to trial, a McHenry County judge ruled Tuesday.

Citing concerns over the girl's home environment and her already lengthy juvenile record, Judge Michael Chmiel denied the girl's request for home detention. Instead Chmiel ordered her held in the Kane County Juvenile Justice Center while the case is pending.

The girl's record, Chmiel said, features 13 contacts with police, including an arrest for marijuana possession in August. McHenry County court records show that within the past year the girl also has been charged for driving without a license, consumption of alcohol by a minor, possession of tobacco by a minor, trespassing and three curfew violations.

"I'm concerned about you having some potentially negative influences around you," Chmiel told her. "I think the environment is ripe for failure."

The girl's mother said her daughter had gone through some "rough spots" but had not been a problem in the home for at least a year. She later declined comment on the judge's decision or the charges.

In part because of Chmiel's ruling Tuesday, the girl appears to be heading quickly toward a trial, which now is scheduled to begin Tuesday.

She and her 16-year-old friend each face charges of hate crime, disorderly conduct and resisting a peace officer stemming from their arrest May 11 outside Crystal Lake South High School. The charges allege the girls were distributing fliers showing two men kissing and containing inflammatory language toward homosexuals.

Authorities say the fliers were directed specifically toward a male classmate — and neighbor of one of the girls — with whom they had been feuding. Both girls are suspended from school as a result, authorities said Tuesday, and likely will not be allowed back until at least the next school year.

Chmiel agreed Tuesday to place the second girl on home detention. She will be placed on electronic monitoring and allowed to leave only for school, counseling, work or other activities approved by a probation officer.

Unlike her friend, her trial does not appear imminent. Instead her lawyer Tuesday filed a motion asking Chmiel to throw out the hate crime and disorderly conduct charges.

"I believe it more attacks the speech, and at this point, they haven't shown what conduct was truly disorderly," said her attorney, Charles McKenney. "The issue should be her conduct, not the content of the flier."

The girl's parents declined comment Tuesday. Chmiel scheduled a June 26 hearing on her motion to dismiss the charges.

Hate crimes legislations are illegal because they are a violation of our first amendment free speech rights oh but I forgot they got rid of those pesky things with the military commissions act and patriot act, thats right.

"potentially negative influences" yeah, right, like she isn't going to be influenced by jail and more attempts to control her? Poor child, she is only a result of what happens when someone is never allowed to make any decisions for him/herself. She is simply a reflection of what is most wrong with the world today. But she is now an example of what happens when you make too many waves. The brainwashing failed, she is not a sheep, but she still lacks the sense to look inside herself to know what to do, rather she hates that she is always told what to do and acts out of pure rebellion without thought and without recognizing the harmful results of her actions upon herself.

Please note: InformationLiberation is neither liberal or conservative. When one takes the time to research the "liberal elite," whom the conservatives oppose, and the "conservative elite," whom the liberals oppose, one finds both "elite" are one and the same. "Liberal" or "Conservative" is not a substantive choice, it is only the carefully crafted illusion of a choice, for both parties come together when they are instructed to.

If you care to know who runs the world you live in, view these films. If you care not then I leave you with this quote to ponder:

"There will be, in the next generation or so, a pharmacological method of making people love their servitude, and producing dictatorship without tears, so to speak, producing a kind of painless concentration camp for entire societies, so that people will in fact have their liberties taken away from them, but will rather enjoy it, because they will be distracted from any desire to rebel by propaganda or brainwashing, or brainwashing enhanced by pharmacological methods. And this seems to be the final revolution."
