World Elite Power Structure In 1992?

Jeff - Attached is a scan of a document given to me by the head of a Japanese right wing organization linked to the Imperial family. I believe it to be a genuine document. I have added hand-written (hard to read) translation to a copy of the paper. It dates from 1992. It is out of date because neither Russia nor Japan are now part of the power flow chart. If you notice, you will see Switzerland at the top. That must be the BIS. You will note that England and Greece are together. I assume that is because Queen Elizabeth married the Greek Prince Philip. Iran is also on the chart. It would be interesting to hear your readers take on this chart...
