One of my friends went to the ABC forum on Ron Paul and posted the comments in this link:

At the time I wrote the article, I was feeling pretty positive about ABC... THEN ABC deleted her comments.

I registered and posted my OWN comment asking them why they deleted hers> I also told them I posted her article and by the end of the month over 10 million people would see what they are donig.

They deleted that one too... BUT... I got a complete screen shot of it....

I just went over to the forum and it seems lots of people are taking my advice and going over and posting their comments about Ron Paul... I took another screen shot of this

Can you urge your readers to join this fight? Gunther used to say that ABC was once in the group that was actively trying to stop the NWO... maybe some of those old folks are still around... they'd be pretty old... but maybe there is some hope there.

Thanks,
RAye
