Al-Qaeda World Headquarters and Regional Offices Traced!

Yes Al-Qaeda exists!

They have 3 main offices and 1 liaison office. We traced their main offices to Tel-Aviv- Israel (head quarters), London – UK (Regional office), Langley-Virginia (North America Head office), and Berlin-Germany (liaison office). They have a combined budget of $100 billion plus (A lot of their income comes from drugs trade). Some very dangerous criminals in the history of the world are at the head of this organisation with connections in many countries, and a support base of many Sayans.

Most of their websites are hosted in America, and they also have connections to many journalists in the Main Stream Media (MSM). All their highly encrypted communications are routed via Tel-Aviv. They do their banking with ease with nearly all the major banks of the Western world and Israel and move in high circles amongst the very rich and the Wall Street and City of London billionaires. They have excellent connections to all the Mobs of the world.

Because of this huge network, connections and freedom to move around the world, Al-Qaeda is able to pull off the most sophisticated operations that require very high degree of planning, logistics and of course secrecy.

According to a recent article at Timesonline-UK, they will soon use nuclear weapons in some western country. We have't been able to figure out how they will be able to set off such a device or what the delivery method will be, but since they are very sophisticated and enjoy very high degree of technological skills, they may not have great difficulty.

We hope the police are going to read this posting and start looking in the right places.

“War on Terror” is a cover for Rich and Powerful to Loot the World

From the thousands arrests around the world of “terrorists” the Islamophobic headlines and “expert” analysis on news outlets such Fox, BBC, Sky News, and other Murdoch and Zionist owned Media outlets, the actual number of convictions are miniscule. Even those that are convicted, there are great doubts about the trial procedures and evidence presented. The hundreds of millions of dollars of tax payers monies that are being used to keep this fraudulent war on terror alive benefits only the goals and objectives of war mongers, the war industry, the Zionists and the super rich. Masses of the world are being turned into slaves and cannon fodder for the Super rich.

The Power of Nightmares

In this BBC three part series, Produced by Adam Curtis, the film exposes the threat of terrorism as a deliberate conspiracy by America and Britain to bring in harsh controls and restraints on their own societies, in addition to promoting Islam as and Muslims enemies of the west.

The most fraudulent case of terror was the framing of Libya for the Lockerbie incident.

Screaming Islamophobic headlines but no convictions in terror cases

British Home Office figures released last month confirmed worst fears that from hundreds and often-high profile terrorism arrests, only a very small percentage has resulted in related convictions despite the ever-ending list of additional offences.

The figures reveal that there had been only 40 successful prosecutions of charges by the end of last year out of a total of 1,166 suspects arrested under terrorism laws since September 11, 2001.

There was no breakdown of the convictions but previous statistics have suggested that Muslims made up just a small proportion as they included such offences like wearing badges bearing the logo of proscribed organisations related to the conflict in Northern Ireland. A study of eleven of the earliest convictions carried out by the Institute of Race Relations in August 2004 found that these included only three were Muslims and-of these two were given leave to appeal against their convictions.

The latest figures also show that fewer than a fifth of the total arrested under the Terrorism Act 2000 and associated legislation were charged with related offences, while more than half of the suspects were released without any charge at all. Previous Home Office figures showed there were only 15 conviction out of 609 terrorist suspect arrests up until 30 June 2004.

Following the new figures, the first in 18 months, the Muslim Council of Britain (MCB) repeated its call for a review of the Government's anti-terrorism laws, saying that "far too many arrests are carried out without due regard for the need for evidence." MCB Secretary General, Mohammed Abdul Bari, warned the low proportions were bound to cause "substantial cracks in public confidence" which is critical to the work of the police and other related agencies.

Liberal Democrat MEP, Sajjad Karim, said he believed that the anti-terrorism legislation needed to be overhauled. "Coupled with the Stop and Search statistics, this latest revelation makes it abundantly clear that the operational application of the Labour Government's anti-terrorism provisions has created a culture of discrimination against Muslims," said Karim. He said it was "against the interests of British society to allow a large and vibrant section of the community to be treated in this way. This kind of institutionalised Islamophobia is the real threat Britain's interest and the Labour Government must take responsibility for the damage they have done to the fabric our society."

Further concern was raised by Liberty civil rights organization especially in view of Government plan to try again to increase the detentions of terrorist suspects without charge to 90 days after the period was doubled from 14 to 28 days just last year. "Inevitably, more people are arrested than charged and more are charged than convicted, yet this is all the more reason to make sure that innocent people are not locked up for longer and longer periods in pre-charge detention," said Liberty Director, Shami Chakrabarti.

The Home Office later clarified that the figures did include arrests under last year's Terrorism Act 2006, which introduced a further range of new offences. Defending the figures, a spokeswoman pointed out that the police had to make decisions over arrests based on "the circumstances presented to them" and take into account the need to conduct an effective investigation and protect the public.

I got a feeling that the Super Rich of Europe are trying to scare the hell out of the public so that a fascist dictatorship of the rich can be imposed quickly before the masses awaken to the fact that they and their countries have been robbed blind and that they are about to become serfs again.

How to Counter Military/Industrial Complex Control Over Your Lives.

The Guardian of London, has a report (see below)¹ prepared by the British MOD (Ministry of Defence) which gives insight into the preparations being made by Wall Street and City of London Money men to suppress the eventual revolt by the impoverished western middle classes and disenfranchised masses against their control over society.

The Military/Industrial Complex has prepared some very sophisticated and cruel methods to impose their dictatorship. Chip implants, Electromagnetic pulse weapons (HAARP)² and laser weapons, nano-technology, Bio and genetic weapons and of course mind programming.

As usual the cover they use for getting the people to accept their dictatorship is the "danger of Islamic extremism". Islam and Muslims seem to be the tailor made enemy that can sell easy, since a foundation has already been laid down from the Crusades against the Muslims in the middle ages and with regular and persistent negative reporting and acts of terror created and played out by Western secret services and blamed on Muslims, Islam and Muslims as villains don't need a hard sell. Man is always looking for places to hide since coming out of mother's womb. Nothing works better than frightening the hell out of people and then offering them protection. The womb complex.

However, with the advent of internet and Muslim immigrants who are now living amongst the ordinary Europeans and Americans in the west, see Gilad Atzmon's Kebab Philosophy³, knowledge about Islam and Muslims is gaining ground amongst ordinary people, and what they see in reality is totally different from what the M/I complex would have them believe. This is making the task for the M/I Complex somewhat difficult. This person to person contact with Muslims is where the danger lies for them and exposes their fraud, so the M/I complex is trying to fast forward the events before too many people in the west wake up and realise the truth.

They have already in place war monger leaders in most important western countries such as Bush in America, Blair in Britain, Merkel in Germany, Sarkozy in France (to be "elected" soon), and some mini fascists in Denmark, Holland, and Hungary.

World finance and trade is already under total dictatorship, U.N. has become a instrument of the M/I complex and most of the important non-western countries such as Turkey, Saudi Arabia, India, Pakistan, Japan, South Africa and Mexico are thoroughly under their heels.

However difficult and impossible it may seem to the ordinary people to get this gorilla off their back, it is doable and here are some tips on how to extricate oneself from their grip:

1. Achieve Peace within you
2. Conquer your Ego
3. Walk away from conflict and arguments. Avoid conflicts in your own family, be loving and caring. Children are very sensitive to family feuds and such fights leave deep psychological scars on them.
4. Have compassion for your fellow beings, especially those who are oppressed
5. Abandon all racism. Do not see people, as black, white, brown, Christians, Jews, Muslims, Hindus, Europeans, Americans, Latinos or Chinese.
6. Respect other people's cultures, religions, beliefs and do not make judgements on them and their culture and their beliefs.
7. Reduce your consumption of non-essential consumer goods, this will stop exploitation and also hurt the pockets of the M/I complex. It will not cause massive unemployment, since people will find other means to survive. Have you not noticed the flea markets and food stalls in many developing and industrial countries where formerly unemployed people do thriving business? It may even open up people's minds and their spirit of entrepreneurship and brotherhood.

8. Buy your goods and services from small businesses, even if they are slightly expensive, and make friends with your local small businesses and build up a community spirit.
9. Whenever it is possible do barter trade for your needs.
10. Use your capital to start a business or a service and create jobs, but do not become greedy and think of larger and larger business, as that ultimately makes you into an oppressor, if you have excess capital help someone else to become free and start up a business or a service. Do not invest money in stocks, bonds and other funds operated by the M/I complex, as they are used to oppress people.
11. Start only healthy and non-exploitative businesses that will help heal society and establish friendships and brotherhood.
12. Think positive. Positive thinking regenerates your health and mind, and that will save you lots of money in staying away from harmful pharmaceuticals and doctors fees. If you are sick, then first try to find alternative cures, they do take a bit long to heal you, but they generally do not have major side effects and are cheaper. For major problems, you can go to China or India where the costs of medical service and medicines are a fraction of what you will pay in most Western countries.
13. Stay away from alcohol, cigarettes, drugs and all other stimulants.
14. Turn off your TV or throw it out
15. Use the Internet to read your news from non-mainstream media. Many good websites with alternative news and information, such as this one.
16. Set aside 1-2 hours a day for total relaxation and liberating your mind from all thoughts. Blank your mind and let the cosmic knowledge flow in.
17. Go out in the nature and listen to the birds, and take a close look at the plants and their anatomy. Observe and study animals in the wild. Please don't go to the Zoo!
18. Here (http://www.hyahya.org/m_download_api.php), you can download some fantastic mind opening videos FREE OF CHARGE! They also have free books and audio to download.

Above are just a few tips to start extricating yourself from the Matrix and you will start developing even more ways to free yourself once you get started.

May Peace and true Freedom be with you!

Countries that should not be allowed to possess WMD

The following countries should be prohibited from possessing nuclear weapons because either they are war mongering, have a colonial past, or because of their aggressive behaviour.

War Mongering Countries:

America, Britain, France, Germany (Neo-Nazis), Israel, India, Russia, Pakistan, Plus all NATO countries

Aggressive countries:

Australia (Facism and racism), Ethiopia, Serbia

Colonial Past:

Belgium, Denmark, Holland, Italy, Japan, Portugal, Spain

Al-Qaeda the Super Natural and the Bomb Blasts in North Africa

A recent report by Europol revealed that there were 498 acts of terror in EU in 2006 and only of them could be blamed on "Islamists". Even that one incident has not really been proven whether it was motivated by religious belief.

The first thing that comes to mind to the majority of Muslims when they hear that some bomb blast or some "suicide bombing" has taken place somewhere, is that this is a false flag operation, either by a local or foreign secret service operating in that country.

Why do we react that way?

Well first of all we are well aware that Osama Bin Laden is no more. He is gone, buried probably. Besides he never was the main motivator of terrorism. If you care to read his past statements, he made it abundantly clear that he will not target innocent people and his main war was against rulers of Saudi Arabia.

Secondly, the security and the state machinery in all countries, except for the most under developed countries, which don't matter in any case, is so high that no ordinary two bit "terrorist" can plan and execute major operations such as those of New York, London, Madrid, Bali, Casablanca or Algiers. Along the logistics of getting past all the big brother police state apparatuses will test the wits of even the most organised group with the most sophisticated technology, not available to nearly all the developing countries or even some European countries. The only countries that have such technology are America, Israel and maybe Britain.

There is no Al Qaeda and it is impossible for it to operate across national borders and on international scale, just does not figure, except unless you are deliberately trying to keep up the illusion of a gigantic, armed to the teeth power with super natural powers which can travel out of body and uses some sort of metaphysical energy.

Furthermore Muslims hate to commit suicide as that is the worst that a Muslim can do and according to the Quran will go straight to hell. We all love life and we all want to live in peace and to be left alone in our own countries, cultures and religions. If suicide was a Muslim culture, believe me there would no civilisation left by now, because they would have blown up the whole world a long time ago. We just don't suffer from Masada complex and don't have a suicidal history, neither have we built weapons of mass destruction that will destroy entire humanity. Just don't have the terrorist minds to develop those kinds of weapons! Wonder who developed them to begin with? And Who used them on mankind?

Even a child can figure out that the recent succession of bomb blasts in the countries of Maghreb and within days of each other can not be the handiwork of "Islamic extremists" because there are none (could the Casablanca bombs be related to the upcoming elections there to ensure that the Pro-America party wins?). There is a suspicion that they are carried out by local secret services with a certain political agenda, and if not by local secret services then the finger points to those who want to see chaos in Muslim countries, so that they never get out of poverty and subjugation and remain in America's and Israel's "war on terror" camp. I believe in the latter proposition.

The Truth Always Triumphs!

The British Military's bribery and pressure (carrot and stick), on the 15 Sailors to make Iran look bad and to negate its peaceful ending of the potential conflict is blowing up in the faces of Blair and his Ministry of Defence (MOD). There is a revolt within the military personnel on the ground, and it will ultimately demoralise the British army. Even ordinary people are beginning to see through the lies.

No amount of distorted and sensationalised stories will negate Iran's humanitarian and peaceful ending of the crisis.

Looking beyond the media headlines Iran comes out looking good and credible compared to the British ruling elites, who have just dug their own graves! War mongers and liars always lose! Truth always triumphs!

Getting Out of The Matrix Part II

"Satan's poisonous qualities of pride, jealousy, arrogance, impatience, haste, vengeance, treachery, falsehood, murder, lust, and anger accumulated and grew within you to become your poison, driving away your good qualities."

Words of a Sufi Master

Since our last Editorial “Getting Out of The Matrix” (see below), we have received numerous emails of praise and friendship. We are happy to note that there are many people who have left The Matrix but feel unsure, they have self doubts and get confused by the massive campaign in the mainstream media.

In order to achieve total liberation from The Matrix, it is important to offer absolute love to fellow beings under all circumstances. Remember that due to the massive programming over decades people have lost their freedom to think and have been made dependent on the Matrix through no fault of their own.

The Matrix does not offer love and compassion, instead it offers conflicts, wars, hate, and eternal slavery. It divides mankind into races, and nations to control them. It offers only illusions of freedom, wealth and wellbeing.

Remember that The Matrix is made up of only around 500 Billionaires who are at the core and the rest are just soldiers of fortunes who themselves are enslaved and would welcome liberation.

Mankind is born of love and purity, therefore offering genuine love, compassion and peace to fellow beings will liberate all from the grip of The Matrix. Love spreads faster than hate. Peace is easier to achieve and is much cheaper. When you have achieved inner peace, you will also have no need for 90% of the garbage consumer goods that you continue to buy out of feeling of being left out and boredom.

There is a Sufi saying: “When the pupil is ready the Master will appear”. Until you have not liberated yourself you will not see the love in others.

When "I" and "You" are absent, I've no idea if this is a mosque, synagogue, church or temple. Mahmud Sahbistari

Getting out of the Matrix

As we had warned in our previous blog, the 15 British sailors, under pressure from their military commanders, are now changing their story and state they were mistreated in Iran.

We had expected exactly such an outcome, these 15 young people or for that matter any other person within the Matrix will not be allowed to get out of it. This Matrix has been carefully created and crafted by the Western Military/Industrial complex over decades. Once you are in it you are not allowed to get out of it except as dead.

The Military/Industrial complex has at stake trillions of dollars and can not allow ordinary Goyims (cattle) to challenge their power and their privileges. Powerful institutions have been put in place to ensure that the cattle think, eat, work, pray, play, behave and fight according to the blueprint. No other system can be allowed to challenge it, as otherwise it will mean their own end.

However, truth has a way of getting through, perhaps even faster and easier than the lies. The Matrix knows that people are getting out of the system, slowly but surely, and they are getting desperate. Pre 9/11 there was a huge social movement against it. The Matrix had raped the world with their manipulated financial system, industries employing tens of thousands of people were bought and sold like commodities, bringing loss of jobs and devastation to entire communities and countries.

Huge demonstrations against globalization, the bankrupting of pension funds, cuts in social spending and downgrading of health care systems, took place in most of the western countries. Wars in the developing world were created as diversionary tactics, young men and women were used as cannon fodder. It was this development and the final manipulated crash of the stock market in 1999 in which millions of ordinary people who had bought into the manipulated markets lost all their savings, which was about to cause a massive social revolution in the western world that led the Matrix to engineer the 9/11 event.

9/11 was engineered to corral in all those who were about to leave the Matrix and revolt against it. The trick worked for a while, but, here is where higher power comes into play, mankind has a built in firmware that seeks the truth even though it does not realize it. Despite the carefully choreographed and orchestrated propaganda through the controlled media about who was responsible for the events of 9/11, it was the built in quest for truth in mankind that led people to see through the lies and fraud. At first a handful of people started rejecting lies and then millions around the world joined in. More and more people are realizing that they have been enslaved by the Matrix and long to get out of it.

At the moment the Matrix is feeling very vulnerable and will do some wild things to prevent people from escaping it, but every incident such as the recent one of the 15 British sailors, will strengthen this anti-Matrix movement which will bring about the demise of the Matrix.

As long as there is only one person in this world who is determined to find the truth, truth will be established.

British Sailors in Iran

Prisoners in Guantanamo

Iran Shows the Way to Civilised Behaviour

15 British Sailors, who had no right to be in Middle East at all, were captured by the Iranians while intruding Iran's territory. From the first day the Iranians treated them in accordance with laws of War and peace as laid down in the Quran.

They were treated with respect as guests, provided good accommodation, food, and all the hospitality that the Islamic tradition demands. Contrary to what they might be urged to say by the British Military now that they are freed, there is no doubt that they were treated with kindness and traditional Islamic hospitality.

No orange jump suits, no barbed wire, no hoods, no electric shocks, no dogs let loose on them, no sodomy, no rape, no wild and threatening statements and no steroid fed soldiers leading them on a leash! Contrast that with Abu Ghraib, Guantanamo and Baghram in Afghanistan and you can see which culture is civilised.

Announcing the release of the British Sailors, Ahmedinejad, President of Iran said:

"On the occasion of the birthday of the great prophet (Muhammad) ... and for the occasion of the passing of Christ, I say the Islamic Republic government and the Iranian people — with all powers and legal right to put the soldiers on trial — forgave those 15," he said, referring to the Muslim prophet's birthday on March 30 and the Easter holiday.

"This pardon is a gift to the British people," he said.

Compare that with the utterances and actions of war mongers such as Bush, Blair, Cheney, Netanyahu, Olmert and Sharon. These war mongers have by their words and deeds brought wars, massacres, starvation, rape, torture and hatred to the world. America has been involved in around 100 conflicts since it's birth (here), Israel has made wars with all it's neighbours and has murdered tens of thousands of innocent civilians in Palestine, Lebanon and Syria. Britain, France, and Russia have caused the deaths of millions of people through their colonialist conquests.

Iran has never invaded any country and neither have the currently American occupied countries, Somalia, Iraq or Afghanistan invaded any other countries

If these wars are to be ended and mankind is to live in peace, the western world will have to listen to former Iranian President Khatami and support his "dialogue of civilisations"

Iran Can Use Sanctions to Get out of the Zionist Financial System

So the Zionist moneymen think they have scored a major victory by blackmailing smaller countries into going along with UN resolution 1747 imposing sanctions against Iran.

Well they are in for a surprise!

Let's start with UN sanctions that were imposed against Apartheid South Africa. It was thanks to these sanctions that South Africa today is one the most industrialised countries in Africa. Sanctions allowed South Africa to launch it's industrialisation program and it succeeded in developing the country from an import dependent colony of Britain to a fully self sufficient power house of Africa.

Advances were made in Agriculture, Industry, civil infrastructure, Nuclear and academic fields. South Africa produced one of the best scientists and technologists in the world. Sanctions in effect liberated South Africa from dependency.

Iranians will do the same. Thanks to their long and rich history, culture and a strong believe in Islam they are no pushovers. Iranians have developed very high levels of both military and civil technology, have good infrastructure and enjoy certain amount of self sufficiency in food production, and unlike South Africa have black gold. Iran will defeat the sanctions and come out much stronger.

The hatred that Zionists harbour against Muslims, is blinding them and leading to their own defeat. Israel has lost in Iraq, Lebanon and Palestine. Taking on Iran is the final nail in the coffin of the Zionists.

Global world trade and finance, which is based on exploitation of the weak and the poor, and by stealing the resources of the developing countries needs an overhaul and sanctions are just the medicine that will unravel this one sided exploitation. Iran, Venezuela and few other anti-Israel countries can opt out of the global financial system and initiate barter in goods and services and use gold for balancing out the surpluses that any one country may accumulate.

Millions in the third world countries have lost everything they had and are dying from poverty, hunger and disease due to the Zionist imposed wars and conflicts.

Third world countries can put an end to this misery imposed on them by interest based monetary institutions, such as the World Bank, IMF, Wall Street and Bank of England, by using the barter system, Gold and other commodities as monetary instruments.

As it is the global financial system is about to self destruct sooner or later because of the ponzi style financial schemes created by Zionist bankers and fraudsters. The sooner any country opts out of this ponzi scheme the better it will be for their own survival. Iran must therefore be thankful for this great opportunity of opting out of the Zionist world system.

Execution Video Meant to Cause Shia-Sunni Conflict

The leaking of the videotape showing hanging of Saddam and the dialogue that was exchanged between Saddam and his executioners who were handpicked by Americans, and the subsequent planting of stories in mainstream media that Saddam's hanging will be seen by Shias as a welcome sacrifice on one of the Holiest days of Islam was deliberate and meant to create a backlash amongst Muslims and provoke Shia-Sunni conflict in the Muslim world.

Americans have perfected the art of movies in which actors act out the pre-scripted scenarios and dialogues. Scenarios and dialogues which will have a certain impact on the minds of the audience.

Saddam was in American custody from the moment he was caught, his trial was an American trial, and his execution was carried out under American supervision. The puppet Maliki government had no say at all in this and as all puppets do, he had to go along with whatever was dictated by the Americans

The selection of the day of Eid-ul-Adha for hanging, the videoing, the pre-scripted "taunts" by hired hangmen, and the release of the video had the goal of creating a division between Shia and Sunni, and angering the Muslim youth in Europe and elsewhere.

Americans want to get rid of Moqtada Sadr, who stands in their way of the puppet Iraqi parliament passing a new law that would allow American oil companies to take over Iraqi oil wealth. What a better way to do that then to get the Sunni resistance in Iraq to turn their guns on Moqtada Sadr instead of fighting against the American occupiers. The actors who were given the script to shout "Moqtada, Moqtada, Moqtada" to Saddam during his hanging was to incite Sunni feelings against the Shia, to show that the hanging was an act of Shia vengeance against the Sunni Saddam.

The second reaction that they wanted to achieve was for Muslim youth in Europe and elsewhere to resort to acts of terror. Americans know that Muslim youth is angry and many of them will be outraged and chatter about revenge, because chatter is all they have been doing, America and Britain need Muslim "terrorists" for their "war on terror" actually to justify their occupation of Muslim lands and stealing the resources and to keep Europeans and Americans united in the Crusade against Islam and Muslims.

Muslims must not fall into this trap and avoid sectarian violence and acts of revenge. Bush and Blair are like Satan who thrives on evil. Indeed Bush and Blair need terrorism to justify their being in power and keep the European and American masses from finding out that they themselves are enslaved by the ruling elites, the church of Satan and the blood sucking corporations.
