‘Borrowing from China to give to israel’

Every day another American speaks out against israel. Soon there will be no one left to support it.

A letter to the editor of The Olympian online:

Congress should deny foreign aid to Israel

Israel is again lobbying our Congress for its annual handout. If past behavior is any indicator, Congress will borrow the money (from China) to provide Israel an aid package worth over $5 billion. This represents one-third of our foreign aid in spite of the fact Israel makes up only 0.001 percent of the world’s population, and has one of the world’s higher per capita incomes.

President Carter, in his book, “Peace, Not Apartheid,” says our unconditional support for Israel is a major source of worldwide anti- American sentiment, and a factor in increasing our risk from terrorists. In spite of the fact that a majority of Israelis favor an end of the occupation and a two-state solution, the Israeli government continues its illegal occupation of Palestinian territories, confiscates its water resources and its most fertile land, builds illegal settlements and brutally dominates all aspects of Palestinian lives.

Financial aid from the United States provides the tanks, helicopter gun ships and F-16s Israel uses to commit atrocities against a population that has no military, no rights and no basic protections.

Jews deserve a homeland if they want one, but it should be on land they have obtained lawfully. They deserve support and respect from the international community but they must earn it by behaving like law-abiding members of that community.

We need to tell our Congress to GROW A BACKBONE and say NO to the Israeli lobby. Helping the world’s poor (and our own poor) are more honorable and worthy causes.

Carol Wilson, Olympia [WA]

Keep up the great work, everyone - it's working.

Zionism and ignorance

The quoted letter appeared in a newspaper from Olympia, Washington.

Readers might be surprised that any newspaper would print such a letter.

However, Oregon, Washington state, and Vermont (and parts of northern California) are the four areas of the USA that are most steadfast in their resistance to Zionist aggression. In Canada, it's British Columbia, plus certain parts of Quebec.

According to various publishing outfits that track book sales, these same areas are where most books and magazines are sold -- although no one mentions the correlation with anti-Zionism.

In other words, people's disgust with Zionism and Israel increases in direct proportion to how much they read and educate themselves.

One exception to the pattern is the Raleigh-Durham area of North Carolina. People read there, but North Carolina is almost as Zionist-controlled as is New York City.

Parts of Michigan are also anti-Zionist, because they have a large Muslim and Arab population.

Seattle was the first city where I saw people holding a sign over a freeway that read "No war for Israel."

I don't live in the Pacific Northwest, but if I could, I would move there, for many reasons.

Good letter that "saw" the light of day in actual publication

I wrote quite a few letters to the editor while residing in Arizona, and none of them saw print (let alone receive phone call for verification purpose).

As I have mentioned writing the recent letter before, it's a matter of dare whether they will publish without considerable butchering in editing to suppress certain paragraphs or ignore it altogether and continue to attack 9-11 truth movement's main purpose with slanderous mockery.

The mainstream as well as published alternative media is beholden to servile interests of the advertisers that promote materialistic pursuit and peddle strip club & xxx and encourage continuous ignorance & vehement prejudice of the reading public.

Thank goodness for the Internet, where the truth can be found, even on ebay where banned/suppressed books such as CIA-suppressed 1970 book "The War Conspiracy" are available for sale to the interested person(s) without unlawful interference.

Count in Michael Piper Collins' controversial books on Neocons' power and Israel/Mossad's involvement in the involvement of JFK assassination as well as Anti-Neocons' "Welcome to the USSA" book whereas printed advertising would be cost-prohibitive with limited budget.

All Jews Are Enemy Combatants

Assume that all Jews are enemies of the Constitutional Republic of the United States of America until they PROVE BY ACTION otherwise.

Drive them OUT. They have a state, we paid for it, let's chase them there NOW.

"Assume that all Jews are enemies of the Constitutional Republic of the United States of America until they PROVE BY ACTION otherwise."

Here here.

ALL Jews are suspect unless they publicly renounce Zionism.

NO EXCEPTIONS.

Some of them talk a good line, but when one examines them closer, one usually sees a "Chosen People" arrogance, or a "righteous victim" mentality, or a pathological hatred for Christian heritage, and so on. All of that garbage is a variation of Zionism, which is ultimately centered on JEWISH SUPREMACY.

The taste of generalization

I wouldn't generalize, if I were you, especially because there ARE enough Jews who are entirely against the idea of Israel.

But I guess the people who will scream "Antisemitism" now know what it feels like to be a muslim and accused of being a terrorist/terrorist-supporter except when explicitly condemning "terrorism", which in the case of the Iraq crisis for example, can be a very subjective term. It's the same game.
