The Voice of the White House for March 12th 2007

The Voice of the White House for March 12th 2007

Washington, D.C.: “We are rapidly approaching a major confrontation here yet very few people are aware of it. The military has told Bush that to “retake” Baghdad” i.e., kick out the insurgents and, important, secure the city against a return, the U.S. will need ca 50,000 new troops!

Bush wouldn't dare risk a public explosion on top of the growing medical lack-of-care- scandal so shipping men over in small increments. He won't stop until he had reached the 50,000 goal. The military estimates that with luck, they can “fully secure” Baghdad within four months and then establish iron control over it to prevent any return of the insurgents.

Not only were an officially-recognized 21,000 sent over, most without proper weapons, no body armor any kind or any serious urban warfare training, but an additional 4,000+ were also shipped over as “support troops” which are not considered combat troops.

Today, I learn that Bush is sending over another 7,000 men and in the end, the remainder will be sent in small batches, the press told to keep this under wraps for “national security” reasons. On top of this, there are not any more armored Humvees, no body armor currently in stock and the ammunition is very low. Bush does not care about this but he does care about the rapidly collapsing situation in Afghanistan.

He stripped our troops out, leaving the British and others to confront a growing Taliban which is spreading and viciously, retaking much of northern Afghanistan, killing anyone who is suspected of helping the Now why is Bush doing this?

Some say the oil, and Iraq has huge oil reserves, but this is not the real reason for the coming and of disasters.

The real reason are the frantic demands of Israel for the U.S. to remain in Iraq as a buffer to protect Bush, as is well-known here, is fanatically pro-Israel and the Jewish lobby and diplomatic corps have been fiercely lobbying their co-religionists in Congress to support them by any means.

This is a terrible thing to say but I must say it: Every dead and mangled GI is the direct fault of Israeli demands. We are not bringing democracy to Iraq but security for Israel and there is no other explanation.

Any Congressman, and there are a growing number, who dares to oppose the wishes of Israel runs the real risk of immediate reprisal from the Israeli lobby and, most especially, by the heavily pro-Israel American media.

The Army has been tapping phones and DISA systems here and all of this sickening business is a fact some idiot blogger rantings.

It used to be said that the Voice of the People was the Voice of God but in 2007 Washington, it is the Voice of Israel that has become the Official Voice of Jehovah.

Bush, and Congress, hear and they obey.

I, and many, many others, think the time has come for the American public, not the politicians, to be aware of this ugly business and express their views in very loud and determined voices or the death maiming tolls of their children, fathers and lovers will continue to soar.

Israel is buying her security with the blood of America's youth, and neither Bush nor Israel care."

"Falsehood is an amorphous monster, conceived in the brain of knaves and brought forth by the breath of fools. It's a mortal pestilence, a miasmatic vapor that passes, like a blast of hell, over the face of the world and is gone forever. It may leave death in its wake and disaster dire; it may place on the brow of purity the brand of the courtesan and cover the hero with the stigma of the coward; it may wreck hopes and ruin homes, cause blood to flow and hearts to break; it may pollute the altar and disgrace the throne, corrupt the clergy and curse the land, but the lie cannot live forever, and when it's dead and damned there are none so poor as to do it reverence." ~William Cowper Brann

And all the sons of Congressmen! And the two adorable 100 Proof Bush daughters! (and Tonic)

"As democracy is perfected, the office of president represents, more and more closely, the inner soul of the people. On some great and glorious day the plain folks of the land will reach their heart's desire at last and the White House will be adorned by a downright moron." ~H.L. Mencken

"That we are to stand by the president, right or wrong is not only unpatriotic and senseless but is morally treasonable to the American public." ~Theodore Roosevelt

"Actions are held to be good or bad, not on their own merits, but according to who commits them. There is almost no kind of outrage, torture, imprisonment without assassination, and bombing of civilians, which does not change its moral color when committed by our side. The nationalist not only does not disapprove of atrocities committed by his own side, he has remarkable capacity for not even hearing about them." ~George Orwell

"Under the Bush administration, openness and accountability have been replaced by secrecy and evasion of responsibility. They abuse their power, conceal their actions from the American people, and refuse to hold officials accountable." ~Senator Edward M. Kennedy

"George W. Bush is deeply interested in Deep Space Exploration. His next project will be to orbit and circle Uranus and search for Kingons....." ~Dallas Herald

"A government official is a man who has risen from obscurity to something worse." ~Robertson

"The voters decide nothing. Those that count the votes decide everything." ~J.V. S

"The Senior White House staff is living proof that Pentecostal mongoloids regularly cohabit with chimpanzees, frogs and Norway rats" ~Dr. Myron Kalbfuss, Biology Department, Stanford University

America's Enemies!

There are four entities who represent the most dangerous enemies to American liberty since George III.

They are:

- 1. The Neocons or Likudists who owe their personal allegiance to another country and completely control our foreign policy. They lied and deceived us into the Iraq war and demanding that more and more American soldiers die to preserve their own country's ideals.
- 2. The Christian Evangelical right who is trying to force the United States into becoming a theocracy under their rule. They know in their hearts that they alone can restructure secular humanist America into their idea of Heaven on Earth.
- 3. An element of American society that call themselves Patriots and are obsessed with militaristic and great admirers of the corporate or fascistic state. Many of these have very minor members of the American military and as a counterbalance to their reserve rear area tours of duty, are rabidly in favor of draconian military action, the bloodier the better. Usually these drumbeaters are too old or too fat to fight and have no sons of their own age.
- 4. George W. Bush, who is the worst president in the history of the United States: directly responsible for the huge death tolls in Iraq, is determined to rule the United States until God puts a stop to him and is even more determined to force the American people into becoming obedient, Christian and self-sacrificing lemmings who worship at his shrine and march in step.

I remember an old British saying: 'Treason doth never prosper/What's the reason? Who prospers, none dare call it treason!' Apt. Or as a Greek writer once said, 'Boys kill frogs for sport but the frogs die in earnest.' Good morning, frogs, and be sure to die in earnest

"People whose lives are barren and insecure seem to show a greater willingness to than people who are self-sufficient and self-confident. To the frustrated, freedom responsibility is more attractive than freedom from restraint. They are eager to buy their independence for relief of the burdens of willing, deciding and being responsible. They willingly abdicate the directing of their lives to those who will plan, command and shoulder all responsibility ~Eric Hoffer "The True Believer"

NEVER, I say, had a country so many openings to happiness as this. Her setting out in like the rising of a fair morning, was unclouded and promising. Her cause was good. principles just and liberal. Her temper serene and firm. Her conduct regulated by the n steps, and everything about her wore the mark of honor. It is not every country (per there is not another in the world) that can boast so fair an origin.

To see it in our power to make a world happy - to teach mankind the art of being - exhibit, on the theatre of the universe, a character hitherto unknown, and to have, were, a new creation entrusted to our hands, are honors that command reflection, and neither be too highly estimated, nor too gratefully received.

She is now descending to the scenes of quiet and domestic life. Not beneath the cy shade of disappointment, but to enjoy in her own land, and under her own vine, the swe her labors, and the reward of her toil. In this situation, may she never forget that c national reputation is of as much importance as independence. That it possesses a c that wins upon the world, and makes even enemies civil. That it gives a dignity which is c superior to power, and commands reverence where pomp and splendor fail.

It would be a circumstance ever to be lamented and never to be forgotten, were a s blot, from any cause whatever, suffered to fall on a revolution, which to the end of must be an honor to the age that accomplished it: and which has contributed mor enlighten the world, and diffuse a spirit of freedom and liberality among mankind, tha human event (if this may be called one) that ever preceded it. ~Thomas Paine: American Crisis New York, December 9, 1783
