Gazan baby dies after 4-hour wait to cross border

By Agence France Presse (AFP)

Monday, August 27, 2007

GAZA CITY: An ill, one-year-old Palestinian baby died in his father's arms on Sunday after the pair passed several hours under baking sun waiting to cross from the Gaza Strip into Israel, medics said. Ibrahim Abu Nahel and his father arrived at the Erez border crossing between Gaza and Israel at 8 a.m. on Sunday, with the aim of traveling to the Yehelov Hospital near Tel Aviv to get treatment for the baby's heart condition, they said. The pair waited for four hours in the sun for the Israeli authorities to allow them to pass through, despite having had a permit to enter the Jewish state, and Nahel died, they said. The cause of death was not immediately known. - AFP

The U.S. government, Britain and Israel, single-handedly creating more terrorists every day.

THANKS for all your hard work and dedication in keeping the pockets of the military industrial complex overflowing.
