

Help stop NAFTA before it abolishes the USA

Last updated: Wednesday, Feb 07, 2007 - 07:02:03 am PST
Comments\(10\)

Meet NAFTA version 2.0 — the plan to establish a North American Union is one of the most important topics confronting our country, as it threatens to abolish the USA and the freedom that it represents.

On March 23, 2005, Prime Minister Paul Martin, President Bush and President Vicente Fox, the respective leaders of Canada, USA and Mexico, met in Waco, Texas, to discuss plans to merge our three countries into a North American Union (NAU), calling their agreement the "Security and Prosperity Partnership" (SPP).

In spite of our government's rhetoric to enforce a border, even build a fence, the SPP calls for the removal of our borders. It envisions a common economic system under a common currency, the amero, a common law, common enforcement of the law, common emergency domestic response for "common problems," and I would expect, a common military. Being a treaty, it would require senatorial approval only if our leaders uphold and defend the constitution of the United States.

Instead, plans are being made to circumvent congress. Canada's Macleans magazine, in Meet NAFTA 2.0, has revealed a North American Competitiveness Council (NACC), which plans to implement the NAU by stealth. Its membership includes Lockheed Martin's Ron Covais, who stated, "We've decided not to recommend any things that would require legislative changes." He means government financing. Covais is a former pentagon advisor to Dick Cheney.

NAFTA plans to circumvent budgetary debate by giving away concession rights to the foreign construction companies, after the land is secured by eminent domain. Hence, the construction companies will bear their own responsibility for generating funds and profit on the highways. Such a diabolical plan can only be blocked by members of the house and senate, whose oath of office demands their action. The general public can contact both Congressman McNerney and our senators, demanding they stop NAFTA Superhighway and the NAU.

Daniel Hutchins
Acampo

@ Email this story 🖨 Print this story ! Write a Letter to the Editor

■ Reader Feedback

There are 10 comments on this story:

Rico wrote on February 07, 2007 6:36 PM:

"While it is true that Nafta 2.0 threatens to abolish the USA, I suggest that the "freedom that it represents" was abolished long ago by its leaders and sleepwalking public. Canadians don't want any part of this union. "

Boomer wrote on February 07, 2007 6:28 PM:

"Daniel - The NAFTA Superhighway already exists, you are just looking in the wrong spot. You think the Superhighway will be a large freeway, with on and off ramps every few miles. The NAFTA Superhighway is really the internet, yes, the very thing we are using right now. The internet allows for Billions of dollars in transactions to flow between multinational corporations every day. "

Mike wrote on February 07, 2007 4:57 PM:

"Yeah right Paul, Third world Mexico and Canada where you cannot question the Zionist holohoax. " boofugg wrote on February 07, 2007 4:34 PM:

"Goodbye America, it's been nice knowin' ya."

Bob Fuller wrote on February 07, 2007 3:54 PM:

"Paul wrote: "I don't think any Canadian or Mexican in their right mind would want to be part of any Union with the USA." US citizens in their right minds aren't exactly thrilled with this idea, either. The problem, Paul, is that the globalists who are stealthily crafting the North American Union couldn't care less what right thinking people in the U.S., Mexico, or Canada think. They intend to take self-governance away from all of us, and replace it with slavery. The question is, will we let them? "

A Concerned Citizen wrote on February 07, 2007 3:40 PM:

"Everyone has seen this coming, been talking about it, but yet are helpless to do anything about it. I think it's time for American citizens to exercise our right to replace the thugs in power. WE HAVE THAT RIGHT. Let's Roll!!!!"

Dave wrote on February 07, 2007 3:14 PM:

"I really don't think the people who are pushing this stuff are really all that concerned about your cultural sensitivities, Paul. It's all about the dough ray me. The main idea is to turn us all into slaves, tilling on their plantation, like back in the not so distant past. Nobody ever much cared what the slaves thought, back in the day. No one that 'mattered' anyway."

Judy Cross wrote on February 07, 2007 2:41 PM:

"I'm in Vancouver, B.C. Canada and it is true, few citizens of any of the three countries want this coming amalgamation. It is be done by stealth and extra-legally. There has been no discussion of it in our Parliament. I recieved an email from a site in Britain that sees the same thing coming down the track there. The net is global, pushed by the multi-nationals and will see a new serfdom come into being. "

ShadesOfKnight wrote on February 07, 2007 1:33 PM:

"Does anyone really think that the Government would stop this? Every person who could possibly stop this is already in a position to make an obscene amount of money from it, and of course their lives are not going to change for the worse just because we suddenly have a national identity like Mexico's. We're going to continue to be raped by those in power until the barricades rise and the people do something about it. "

Paul wrote on February 07, 2007 1:14 PM:

"I don't think any Canadian or Mexican in their right mind would want to be part of any Union with the USA. We have different values, and our economies are in much different shape to that of the US. "

■ Feedback Rules

Comment posters are responsible for the opinions they express and the accuracy of the information they provide. We urge comment writers to treat this as a public forum where manners matter. We encourage a collegial, non-insulting tone and we reserve the right to withhold or remove any comment from publication.

Do not post:

- Potentially libelous statements or damaging innuendo.
- Obscene, explicit, or racist language.
- Personal attacks, insults or threats.
- The use of another person's real name to disguise your identity.
- Comments unrelated to the story.

You may post comments anonymously. However, do not use another person's real name or "handle" to disguise your identity.

If you believe that a commenter has not followed these guidelines, please use our online complaint form.

Note: Those who want to have a personal, one-on-one discussion with another comment writer may use our Lodinews.Conversations discussion board where there is a feature for private e-mail.

Opinions, advice and all other information expressed in Lodi News-Sentinel story comments and on Lodi News-Sentinel discussion boards represent the individual's own views and not necessarily those of the Lodi News-Sentinel. The Lodi News-Sentinel provides an interactive computer service and does not endorse and is not responsible for statements, advice or opinions offered by anyone other than authorized Lodi News-Sentinel spokespersons.

■ Add Your Comments

Name:

Comments:

▶ Report Abuse

If you feel a poster has broken any of the above rules, please use our Report Abuse form to tell us. We will review the comment as soon as possible.