

Israel's Diplomatic Missions Abroad: Status of relations

12 Jul 2006

Total number of countries with which Israel maintains diplomatic relations: 161. *

- Number of states which renewed/established diplomatic relations with Israel from the Madrid Conference (October 1991) until September 13, 1993: 32.
- Number of states which renewed/established diplomatic relations with Israel since the signing of the Israel-PLO Declaration of Principles (September 13, 1993): 36.
- In addition, Israel maintains:
 - a mission to the United Nations (New York)
 - a mission to the United Nations institutions in Geneva
 - a mission to the United Nations institutions in Paris (in the embassy)
 - a mission to the United Nations institutions in Vienna (in the embassy)
 - an ambassador to the European Union (Brussels)
- Number of diplomatic missions:
 - 71 resident embassies
 - 18 consulates general
 - 5 special missions
 - Total: 94

* Note: Morocco, Tunisia and the Sultanate of Oman closed the Israeli offices in these countries in October 2000 and suspended relations with Israel. Niger, which renewed relations with Israel in November 1996, severed them in April 2002.
