israel kills three kids - no rocket launchers in sight

"IDF: Anyone who is next to a launching cell is in danger"

I guess that makes these israeli girls fair game.

Eyewitnesses in Gaza said a girl and two boys were killed and a number of other children were injured from IDF artillery shells fired on the neighborhood of Jabalya in the northern Strip.

However, officials at a Gaza hospital reported that the two boys were killed in the incident and the girl sustained critical injuries.

IDF sources said the military attacked five Qassam rocket launchers located in Beit Hanoun's industrial area, and that a number of figures were spotted around them at the time of the attack.

Sources in Gaza said the three children, all members of the same family, were killed by an artillery shell that was fired in the direction of a group of Palestinians, mostly children, between the town of Beit Lahiya and the Jabalya refugee camp.

According to the Palestinians, the charred bodies of the victims were taken to a hospital but were difficult to identify. The children killed in the attack were eventually identified as 10-year-old Mahmoud Abu Ghazla, his 12-year-old cousin Yihya Abu Ghazla and their 10-year-old relative Sarah Abu Ghazla.

The Palestinians initially believed the shelling was aimed at a cell that was planning to attack Israel, but eyewitnesses and medical sources said that there were no gunmen or rocket launchers at the scene.

An IDF source said the attack targeted five Qassam rocket launchers that were aimed at Israel. The source said that during the attack a number of figures were spotted approaching the rocket launchers.

The source did not rule out the possibility that the children may have been injured by the Qassam rockets in the area and stressed that in any case, rocket launchers are a legitimate IDF target.

"It's our duty to do everything possible to prevent attacks on Sderot and Gaza vicinity communities. Every time we identify a launcher aimed at Israel and a Qassam aimed at a house in Sderot or another target in the area, we will do everything to prevent the attack," the source said.

Including murdering and maiming innocent children and destroying the world if necessary.

"The terror organizations are making cynical use of children, they are sending them to areas where the launchers are located, they are sending them to collect weapons and are consciously endangering them in places where there are IDF targets.

You mean like this:

The world has had enough of your bullshit, israel.

Justice will be served sooner than you think.

Bullshit indeed

An IDF source said the attack targeted five Qassam rocket launchers that were aimed at Israel.

The IDF would claim the moon was made of cheese or that night is day if they thought it would help their 'cause'. They are notorious liars in a nation founded on falsehoods and existing through deception. What can we expect other than lies? An admission of guilt? Never! Remember that in the tiny minds of these supremacist cockroaches, the Palestinians are automatically guilty by the mere fact that they continue to exist.

I do not know but that this

I do not know but that this info is immediately related to my latest 'blog' posting:

<http://www.wakeupfromyourslumber.com/node/3252>, but I might have done well to simply post that info here instead-- to keep it all together, at least. Thanks for all Qrswave-- you're still right or near at the top on my list of valiant real-life heroes. Stay safe, &c.
