German Environmentalist Sentenced to Prison for 1 Year - Guilty of Historical Non-Conformity!

Well-known German environmentalist Dr. Johannes Lerle, 55, has been sentenced by an Erlangen court to one year in prison for alleged "racial incitement."

The charge stems from his "public denial or minimizing of National Socialist atrocities in a manner designed to disturb the peace."

Asked in an interview with the Catholic publication Kreuz (Cross) if he was a "Holocaust denier," Lerle said that such a question belongs in the realm of religion. He pointed out that while one could deny the Holy Trinity, the Virgin Birth and the Resurrection of Christ, the so-called Holocaust had become a state-mandated article of faith in which questioning of the manufacture of bars of soap and lampshades out of human tissue by the National Socialists had become a punishable offense.

"I did not live during the Hitler time," he said. "But I learned the Nearly everything we've been told about National Socialist Germany is a lie.

Unravelling the Holocaust lie is only the beginning of what turns out to be a virtually endless series of false accusations, smears, innuendoes and projections of paranoia.

Their lies are so numerous, they have become impossible to hide any longer. The holohoax are the clothes of a naked emperor. When the big lie crumbles, the jew will stand naked before the world. - Ground_Control - Liberty Forum

The hell that was visited on the Germans and their neighbors was started, as wars mostly are, not by one particular country--least of all Germany, the chief target of the war--but by a conspiracy of international financial interests. Mugwort - Lliberty Forum

THE CIVIL WAR WAS NOT ABOUT SLAVERY! IT WAS ABOUT TARIFFS!

And other issues. And the Emancipation Proclamation did not free a single slave.

That, too, is "historical nonconformity."

I wrote an essay in 2005 called _The Three Worst American Enemies of Freedom_. I personally think the best part of it is the documentation. There are some fabulous books referenced, mostly historically nonconformist. Please check it out.

Wow, posting instructions in Spanish, cool :)

I was taught about the Holocaust too. I remember being 7 years old and seeing a documentary on TV which showed a pile of dead children, one of which wore black leather shoes just like mine. I read The Diary of Anne Frank early on as well.

Now all sorts of lies about the Holocaust are being exposed left and right. At best the Frank diary was doctored with a ballpoint pen that was not available at the time it was supposedly written, and at worst it's a fake; there were no gas chambers, they were built by the USSR for propaganda and character assassination of an entire nation; the numbers of dead at Auschwitz and Treblinka have been adjusted down by extremely significant amounts -- millions--; some claim there were more Jews in post WW2 Europe than before (WTF!!!); Zionists refused to bail out the Jews of Europe for a paltry 2 million dollars; Israel is a squatter, a major planetary troublemaker and a human rights criminal; and on and on and on it goes. It's bad to be lied to, but when a child's sense of empathy and indignation is so severely abused in this manner, all one comes to feel is the utmost contempt for the deceivers and stony disbelief in any of it. This truly is tragic and sickening. This will cast an ugly shadow over Holohoaxers for centuries to come.

Was that pile of dead children, German children? We now know people have mislabeled pictures of this sort before. Who knows?
