Sept 25, Bush will speak at UN, expected to present lying justifications for attack on Iran

Yesterday's march and mass die-in and arrests at the Capitol brought a more determined edge to stopping the war. Cindy Sheehan called on everyone to die-in at the Capitol, and thousands of us did. The Iraq Veterans Against the War led 187 people to jump over police barricades where they were arrested and held overnight. Many people were sporting orange bandanas saying "Drive OUT the Bush Regime".

We brought only 2000, and sold out by noon. The bandanas were being bootlegged by mid-afternoon, a sign that orange is catching as the color of resistance.

I walked among the crowd talking about the crimes of the Bush regime, and distributing the World Can't Wait Iran quiz for people to take on the bus ride home. I estimate 20,000 people, including a lot of youth, especially a lot of 18 year old freshmen and high school students.

Given the renewed threats against Iran, we should all be strategizing how to prevent the air attack the Pentagon is planning. Read:
