I have stated here in the past, that unless 3 Carrier and 2 Strike Groups were present, there would be no attack on Iran: with the arrival of the Nimitz Carrier Group in the next 30 days and the Reagan, Roosevelt and Truman Carrier groups also available within such time frame, Iran is in serious danger of being attacked...

Anyone in their right mind would think that attacking Iran would be a far greater mistake than the Iraqi war, but the US administration is run by WAR CRIMINALS and everything is possible....

...cowards of the JEWSA would hesitate to attack any country which is armed and organized.

how about this we have three bits of information.

- US is pressuring Iran as if they will attack them. (they certainly try to give the impression that they will).
- Brits are pulling out some of their troops out of Iraq.
- US is sending new troops into Iraq.

my conclusion is, US will do something within Iraq, that Iran is going to be unhappy about, and will want to get involved. Possibly related to trying to "disarm" (or liberate) the Shiites.

so the idea is they want to make Iran believe that they are "looking for an excuse to attack Iran" so that Iran will behave and sit idly by while their Shiite brothers are being massacred in Iraq.

Now Brits are normally in Shiite regions, which are supposed to be more peaceful. But if US starts serious operations against shiite militia, that will no longer be the case. So they need more soldiers, and Brits need to get out of the way.

I am not sure this is the right explanation. But one of the two logical explanations that suit the given data.

Also it gives a date on when the action will escalate: May, as that is when the Brits will pull out.

1,000 of them are going to Helmand province to combat the Taliban spring offensive.
