Putin 'Narrowly' Averts US Nuclear Armageddon

By: Sorcha Faal, and as reported to her Western Subscribers

Russian Military Analysts are reporting today that this past weeks 'Sudden-Summit' between Presidents Putin and Bush in the United States has 'narrowly averted an American nuclear Armageddon' in which the Americans were planning a massive atomic strike upon Iran.

Putin was advised immediately prior to the 'Sudden-Summit' by Russian Military Commanders that the United States had issued the orders for a nuclear strike on Iran, and which has been further confirmed by the Washington Times News Service, and as we can read:

"International radio operators picked up large numbers of coded Air Force communications being sent around the world on June 26 that indicated some type of military activity was about to take place.

A U.S. military official said the radio traffic was monitored from the Air Force Global High Frequency System (GHFS) that some observers regarded as "extraordinary" because of the unprecedented length of messages. They were sent to Air Force commanders at Andrews Air Force Base; Wideawake Airfield on Ascension Island; Elmendorf Air Force Base, Alaska; Andersen Air Force Base, Guam; Hickam Air Force Base, Hawaii; Lajes Field in the Azores; Offutt Air Force Base, Nebraska; Salinas Air Base, Puerto Rico; Thule Air Base, Greenland; and Yokota Air Base, Japan. All are sites of GHFS ground stations.

The messages appeared to be emergency action messages, coded communications sent by the Joint Chiefs of Staff to U.S. Air Force strategic nuclear forces.

The messages sent June 26 included 174 characters, much longer than normal 30-character messages, and amateur radio monitors say they have not seen the size of this message since the 1991 Persian Gulf War."

Upon his learning of the Americans planned nuclear attack on Iran, Putin ordered an 'immediate' flight change to the United States while he was in route to Guatemala for the 2014 Olympic Games announcement, of which Russia was announced the winner.

These reports state that Putin was 'blunt' with the American War Leader Bush in stating that any nuclear attack upon Iran's nuclear facilities, being built by Russian nuclear engineers and technicians, would be viewed by Russia as attack upon Russia itself.

These reports further state that the planned American nuclear strike upon Iran was to coincide with Israel's long-planned invasion of Syria, and which their military forces are currently massed in what is described as the largest 'war games' on the Golan Heights since Israel's capturing of this Syrian territory during the 1967 Six Day War.

Russian political analysts state the War Leaders of the United States are 'frantic' to engage the entire Middle East in Total War as the support for their present wars has eroded their standing among their citizens with over half of the American people are now calling for the impeachment of both President Bush and his Vice President Cheney.

Of great concern to the American War Leaders, also, is the impending invasion of Iraq by fellow NATO Member Turkey, and as we can read as reported by the International Herald Tribune:

"Turkey's government and military have agreed on detailed plans for a cross-border operation against Kurdish rebels based in northern Iraq, the foreign minister said Friday.

Foreign Minister Abdullah Gul urged the United States and Iraq, which oppose a Turkish military move into Iraq, to crack down on rebels of the Kurdistan Workers' Party, or PKK. But he said Turkey was ready to stage an offensive if necessary.

"We have decided how to act, everything is clear," Gul told private NTV television. "We know what to do and when to do it," he said without providing details."

To the greatest concern, however, facing the American War Leaders is the fast coming implosion of their economy due to the massive strain of their war budget, and which is now approaching $1.4 trillion, and which has destabilized the World's banking system leading many experts to believe the American banking system will be the 'first to go' and could likely lead to a Global Depression.

Sadly though, it is acknowledged in these reports that Putin's 'warnings' to Bush this past week resulted in a delay only of the Americans planned attacks against Iran, and which the American War Leader 'strongly suggested' that if Putin was concerned about Russian casualties in Iran perhaps they shouldn't be their in the first place.

As the World continues its mad plunge towards the nuclear abyss, one can only wonder what could possibly stop this insanity from happening.
