Larry Silverstein and 9/11

All the evidence suggests that 9/11 was an Israeli false flag operation, carried out with the assistance of key individuals and elements within the United States by a Zionist elite. One of these individuals is Larry Silverstein, who purchased the 99 year lease on the World Trade Center complex in July 2001 and who oversaw control of the complex before and during the attacks, along with Australian real estate tycoon Frank Lowy of Westfield America. Silverstein and Lowy are good friends, and Silverstein has been a director of Lowy's Westfield America since May 1997. Silverstein is connected to the Zionist elite in Israel in numerous ways, most notably via his close association and friendship with no less than three former Israeli prime ministers, namely Benjamin Netanyahu, Ariel Sharon and Ehud Barak. Silverstein is especially close to Benjamin Netanyahu who was in New York on the morning of 9/11, and who fathered the "war on terror" doctrine. According to Haaretz.com, "Many Israeli politicians are acquainted in one degree or another with the 70-year-old Silverstein." It's via these channels that Silverstein was uniquely placed to assist Israeli intelligence and the Zionist mafia in Israel and America with carrying out the 9/11 attacks.

As an American born Jew, Silverstein is committed to Jewish causes. He was chairman of the board of the United Jewish Appeal (UJA) and remains a member of the executive committee, along with his wife, Klara, who is also a founding member of the Jewish Women's Foundation. His son, Roger, and his daughter, Lisa, are also UJA contributors. Roger Silverstein, director of leasing for WTC 7, serves on the executive committee of the Real Estate Executive Division of the UJA, and his daughter Lisa is co-chair of the UJA (source). According to it's website, the UJA is the most successful local charity in the history of the United States, and has raised millions of dollars in support of the Jewish community and the state of Israel.

Larry sits on the board of trustees for the Museum of Jewish Heritage, a "living memorial to the holocaust", and is on the "$500,000 and above" list of contributors (source). He's also contributed generously to the Jewish Children's Museum via Silverstein Properties, and is a supporter and benefactor of Tzivos Hashem, a Jewish children's organisation. He's a member of NYU's board of trustees and according to this article by Christopher Bollyn, he also holds or held a senior position in the Anti-Defamation League (ADL), founded to stop discrimination against, and defamation of, the Jewish people.

Silverstein has investments in Israel; in fact, in 1992 he co-founded the Israel Export Development Company (IEDC) which sought to facilitate safer investment in Israel. Interestingly, in an article called "Iran Policy Part of Long-Term Plan: Plot to Cripple Iraq, Iran Part of Globalists' New World Order Strategy", Michael Collins Piper states that Newt Gingrich's wife was on IEDC's payroll in 1995:

In early 1995 the then-newly elected Republican House Speaker, Newt Gingrich, long a vocal advocate for Israel, gave a little-noticed speech in Washington before a gathering of military and intelligence officers calling for a Middle East policy that was, in his words, "designed to force the replacement of the current regime in Iran . . . the only long-range solution that makes any sense."

That the then-de facto leader of the "opposition" Republican Party endorsed this policy was no real surprise since, at that time, Gingrich's wife was being paid $2,500 a month by the Israel Export Development Company, an outfit which lured American companies out of the United States into a high-tech business park in Israel.

Marianne Gingrich was hired in '95 as Vice President for Business Development by Silverstein's IEDC, the same year her husband became speaker of the house. It was around that time that Newt Gingrich's foreign policy views became staunchly pro-Israel and opposed to Israel's perceived enemies, even to the point where he publicly called for the CIA to overthrow the Iranian government, as referred to by Piper in his article. That was well before 9/11, and his views haven't changed. His wife had no experience in international trade, and before that appointment she was an image consultant for BeautiControl Cosmetics (source), but of course, she denied it was a political payoff. From this Dec 1995 article:

According to an article by Connie Bruck in the New Yorker of Oct. 9, "IEDC is trying to win approval from the Israeli government to manage a free-trade zone, and the Israeli government is highly dependent on United States aid—something that Gingrich is in a position to affect." It is no coincidence that despite drastic budget-cutting this year, Congress has left aid to Israel intact.

Bruck Describes the IEDC as an offshoot of the Institute for Advanced Strategic and Political Studies (IASPS), a hawkish arm of the pro-Israel lobby in the U.S. Marianne Gingrich works closely with its president, Robert J. Loewenberg, who is also chairman of the board of the Koret Israel Economic Development Fund, which assigns interns to key congressional offices. According to Bruck, Loewenberg writes lengthy diatribes in the IASP newsletter attacking the peace process, return of the Golan Heights to Syria, and "left-wing politicians and bureaucrats." He supports the immediate move of the U.S. Embassy to Jerusalem, which Gingrich is asking Congress to endorse.

So Gingrich was staunchly supporting Silverstein's IEDC and its agenda, and the state of Israel in general, but his beauty consultant wife's employment as Vice President for Business Development was not a payoff, even though Silverstein told the The Wall Street Journal that Newt Gingrich was one of several members of congress who were lobbied to support his company's proposal. We'll call it a favor then.

Silverstein's political views are supposedly "left-leaning", but in this article by Barry Chamish, it's written that Silverstein supported his friend Ariel Sharon of the extremist Likud Party in Israel's last election, which of course makes perfect sense. Especially in light of the fact that Larry is such good friends with Likudnik Bibi Netanyahu that they'd speak on the phone every Sunday (other reports say daily). At the time of publication of this Haaretz article he was "the largest private donor to Hillary Clinton", rabid supporter of Israel, which bought him "an open door to the office of the junior senator from New York". So if Silverstein's dollars go to Hitlerly in the next US election, that too will make perfect sense, given that she is the best "left leaning" candidate for Israel and supports the Zionist doctrine of regime change and endless war in the middle east on Israel's behalf.

Larry Silverstein has received a lot of attention since 9/11, and his involvement has been well-documented. Four members of his staff were killed in the attacks, but as stated in the aforementioned Haaretz article, "he himself was saved only because a meeting he had scheduled that morning with officials of the Port Authority on the 88th floor of [WTC 1] was canceled at the last minute". He went to a doctor's appointment instead, and later stated "I had said to my wife, sweetheart, cancel my doctor's appointment. I have so much to do at the Trade Center.. She got very upset and told me I had to go. As it turns out, that saved my life." Lucky Larry Silverstein. One of George W's 9/11 connections is via Silverstein's hiring of Securacom (now Stratasec) for the management of electronic security of the WTC complex. The president's brother, Marvin Bush, was on Securacom's board of directors, and his cousin, Wirt Walker III, was CEO. Securacom was also responsible for the security of United Airlines Inc and Dulles International airport at the time, both of whom had starring roles in the 9/11 attacks. But perhaps the most incriminating piece of evidence against Larry was offered up by himself in his famous interview with PBS for a documentary called "America Rebuilds". What he says is with reference to WTC 7, which collapsed without having been hit by a plane and which he owned prior to taking out the lease of the WTC complex.

"I remember getting a call from the...er...fire department commander, telling me that they were not sure they were gonna be able to contain the fire, and I said, 'We've had such terrible loss of life, maybe the smartest thing to do is pull it.' And they made that decision to pull and we watched the building collapse."

"Pull" or "pull it" is established demolition jargon

used in the industry, but Silverstein tried to back out of his Freudian slip thusly, through a spokeswoman for Silverstein Properties:

"The Commander told Mr. Silverstein that there were several firefighters in the building working to contain the fires. Mr. Silverstein expressed his view that the most important thing was to protect the safety of those firefighters, including, if necessary, to have them withdraw from the building."

So by "pull it" he meant "withdraw [the firefighters] from the building". Not likely. The weekend before the attacks, the electricity in at least one of the towers was shut off, ostensibly to permit upgrading of the computer network cables (which could've been done without shutting down the power at the main terminal). That sort of action isn't taken without the knowledge of the owner; it could've only happened via direct or indirect instruction from Silverstein. To carry out the 9/11 operation the WTC security system would have to be temporarily disabled, thus the power-down.

All the pieces of evidence fit together neatly when viewed as a whole; the fingerprints of the Israeli Mossad and operatives of the Zionist elite are all over the 9/11 attacks, and Silverstein's complicity was key.

The circumstantial evidence prior to any of this pointed to Israel. It was just apostasy to say so however and even we muslims had to back US policy in Iraq or be labeled "anti" everything including our own freedom.

It is so, so, SO obvious. Anyone who doesn't get this is apparently quite insane or absolutely brain dead.

In any event...they will roast in hell for an ever. That much is for sure and a tiny salve for the heart.

Thanks for the article.

Surah 100. Al-'Adiyat (The Courser, The Chargers)

By the (Steeds) that run, with panting (breath),

And strike sparks of fire,
And push home the charge in the morning,
And raise the dust in clouds the while,
And penetrate forthwith into the midst (of the foe) en masse;-
Truly man is, to his Lord, ungrateful;
And to that (fact) he bears witness (by his deeds);
And violent is he in his love of wealth.
Does he not know,- when that which is in the graves is scattered abroad
And that which is (locked up) in (human) breasts is made manifest-
That their Lord had been Well-acquainted with them, (even to) that Day.?

Crazy Sura that one. Peace.

If Silverstein isnt dragged

If Silverstein isnt dragged out in the street and hung by true Americans with the rest of the Neocons and media, America will be washed away with the scum of the ocean.

More Junk From A Junkie

While you mention that Silverstein is a former chairman of the United Jewish Appeal Federation of New York, you do draw attention to the fact that Lewis Eisenberg is also a former chairman of this Jewish organisation which acts as fundraiser for hundreds of constituent Zionist groups based in Israel and America. Eisenberg is the former chairman of Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, and it was he who oversaw the negotiations that resulted in the lease of World Trade Centre buildings 1,2,4,5 and 9 plus 400,000 square feet of retail space being transferred to Silverstein and Lowy. Lewis Eisenberg is a key Zionist player in the September 11 attacks in New York since it was Eisenberg who personally arranged the privatisation of the World Trade Centre complex. Thus without Eisenberg's personal involvement, it is debatable whether Silverstein could have acquired ownership of the World Trade Centre in the first place.

Silverstein Properties and Westfield America tabled a $3.2 billion bid for the 99-year lease to the World Trade Center in January 2001, but were outbid by Vornado Realty Trust who were prepared to pay $50 million more, and Vornado was duly selected as the winning bidder in February 2001. Vornado, however, then informed the Port Authority that the company were hoping to reduce the length of the lease to 39 years. The Port Authority warned Vornado that if the company did not agree to the original terms, and sign a contract within 20 days, the authority would then immediately end negotiations with Silverstein. Ultimately, the Port Authority board decided that it would not agree to the revised terms and began two weeks of negotiations with Larry Silverstein - negotiations which Lewis Eisenberg oversaw. On 19th March 2001, Lewis Eisenberg released this statement:

"In connection with the net lease of the World Trade Center, on February 22, 2001, the Port Authority entered into an exclusive negotiating period with Vornado Realty Trust. During this period, Port Authority staff and its advisors, J.P. Morgan, Cushman & Wakefield and Milstein Brothers Realty Advisors have worked with representatives of Vornado to complete the contract and associated transactional documents. In view of the lack of a final agreement at this time, the Authority's Board of Commissioners has instructed staff and our advisors to engage in exclusive negotiations with Silverstein Properties and Westfield America to conclude a 99-year net lease transaction."

Silverstein's bid of $3.2 billion was finally accepted by the Port Authority of New York and New Jersey, on 24th July 2001. The role of well-connected Zionist Lewis Eisenberg in 9-11, although not mentioned in your article, cannot be ignored. So, why have you completely ignored Eisenberg?

You also make reference to the security arrangements that were in place at Dulles International airport at the time of the attacks, but fail to make any mention of the security arrangements that were in place at Logan International Airport, from where American Airlines Flight 11 and United Airlines Flight 175 both departed en route to the North and South towers of the World Trade Centre. Given that not only Logan, but ALL airports from where the aircraft used in the attacks departed, were serviced by one Israeli-owned company (ICTS), it is rather odd that you draw attention only to Marvin Bush's security company and completely ignore an Israeli-owned security of whom most of its employees are former Shin Bet officers. Perhaps you just didn't know - you are, after all, very much the new kid on the block when it comes to investigating Zionist crimes.

"All the evidence suggests that 9/11 was an Israeli false flag operation, carried out with the assistance of key individuals and elements within the United States by a Zionist elite," you declare, but if all the evidence suggests that 9-11 was an Israeli false-flag operation, then why did you until recently, publicly state that 9-11 was an 'inside job', and why did you then contradict yourself by traipsing round MySpace "proclaiming vociferously" to 'friends' with whom you are acquainted that 9-11 was an 'inside-out job'?

You appear to be very confused as to what type of a job 9-11 was, and your only consistency is your inconsistency. You appear to have finally come round to my way of thinking, and have at last deduced that '9-11 was an Israeli operation', but still you cannot quite make the transition from the Alex Jones-supporting, Loose Change-promoting, Mark Dice-respecting Infensus Mentis to the Mark Glenn-promoting 'anti-Zionist' Crimes of Zion.

I won't allow you to Mr. O'Connell...oops...sorry...Mr. Linton.

You really shouldn't have came here and declared war on me, and for as long as you continue to use Wake Up From Your Slumber as a base to launch attacks on me whenever I post comments on someone else's blog, you can expect to be repaid in kind.

p.s. You forgot to plug your other Google blogspot! Hardly surprising given the junk that you have published there speaking of junk.....seen any flying saucers or wee green men recently? 12 foot shape-shifting Lizardmen from the dimension perhaps? Had any interesting conversations with spacemen?

The money path

Following the money obviously leads to Mr. Silverstien. I recall finding out that bomb sniffing dogs were removed from the Towers the Thursday before 9/11, and the previous weekend before both towers were closed for maintenance, which took till that Sunday afternoon. Can they really get away with parading a controlled demolition before millions of people, and then tell us that those buildings just fell down in 10 seconds from upper floor fires? Contrary to complicit corporate media opinion, the jury is still out on whether or not they can get away with that one.
