STOP HIM BEFORE HE KILLS MORE!

There is a serial killer living in the White House. He has spent the past six years successfully plotting the deaths of thousands upon thousands of people. Like others who kill without conscience, he remains unmoved by the ongoing bloodshed and destruction he has caused. And now, he is about to do it again.

Someone has to stop George W. Bush before he kills more!

Serial killers sometimes respond to inner voices telling them what to do. George Bush gets personal messages from his God and PNAC. His wars with Afghanistan and Iraq were planned and orchestrated by the war profiteers and ideologues who placed him into office in 2000. The regional chaos they needed to justify American military action in the region is going according to plan, and now the next stage is ready for launching. Any day now, the Bush Doctrine will be used to justify a killing machine that is gearing to attack Iran.

Someone has to stop him before he triggers a final Armageddon.

At TvNewsLIES.org, we believed this might happen before the last midterm election. We saw the handwriting on the proverbial wall, but were a bit early in our prediction. Right now, especially because George Bush is clearly denying that Iran is on his hit list, we are convinced that the plans are already in motion.

Every major corporate media outlet is reporting that there is 'evidence' of Iran's role in supplying sophisticated weapons to the Shia in Iraq, and in assisting in the killing of American troops. We've all been there and done that. Not a shred of evidence supporting those charges has been presented to the Congress or the public, but the rhetoric gets louder and louder. Iran's nuclear capability is touted as a threat to the US and the region, despite the reality that any nuclear strike by any nation would result in its immediate annihilation. Logic has been buried, and terror threats have once again been broadcast to the public.

Someone has to stop him, and soon.

Dick Cheney, Chief Puppeteer and War Monger in the WH, recently stated that the President does NOT have to listen to Congress or the people of the nation. The Decider, it seems, can do whatever he pleases and the rest of us be damned. He does NOT have to listen to anyone at all, and that is becoming more and more obvious. This morning, three former military leaders issued a dire warning to George W. Bush....and he is not about to listen to them at all.

The letter was sent to the Sunday Times of London by retired Army Lt. Gen. Robert Gard, a former military assistant to Defense Secretary Robert McNamara, retired U.S. Marine Corps Gen. Joseph Hoar, a former commander in chief of U.S. Central Command; and retired Navy Vice Adm. Jack Shanahan, a former director of the Center for Defense Information. These experienced and concerned officers warned that attacking Iran “would have disastrous consequences for security in the region, coalition forces in Iraq and would further exacerbate regional and global tensions.” They cautioned that “the current crisis must be resolved through diplomacy,” and they urged the President to “engage immediately in direct talks with the government of Iran without preconditions.”

Did you hear about this on your network news today, or did you hear discussion after discussion about Iran’s role in aiding the insurgency and the danger of its nuclear program?

The fears of these three men, like the advice of the Baker-Hamilton Iraq Group, are being ignored – as were the voices of those who warned against the tragic and failed war against Iraq. Afghanistan, Iraq, Iran and Syria all are on the PNAC hit list that would supposedly lead to American military domination of the Middle East. The plans were set in rapid motion when these madmen got their ‘new Pearl Harbor’ on September 11th, 2001. And here they go again.

The serial killer we know as George W. Bush was installed in the White House to do exactly what he is doing now. He is on the loose and about to strike again.

He has to be stopped before he kills more. He has to be stopped quickly and legally.

Whatever that takes.

Yeah, I said I’d stop commenting. I can’t help it. Must be the caffeine.

Let’s be realistic, OK? These demonic bastards will NOT be stopped by any legal means.

Bush’s approval rating—at least the most recent one I know of, which is from late January, 2007—was 28%. That’s swirling-around-the-toilet stuff we’re talking about. And one poll I read said that 66% of Americans were opposed to Bush’s infamous escalation in Iraq.

But do our representatives* care? Oh sure, there are some proposed measures with teeth going through congress, but will they gain traction? I’d eat my shoes if they did.

So, assuming we’re breathing air and not fecal matter, what does this mean? It means that as Americans, we’re being overridden, ignored, sold out, lied to, and cast aside. It means the people who supposedly represent us are answering to someone other than us.

I honestly don’t think it’s going to get any better until it gets much worse. I frequently say that “It’s time for another tea party!", but I'm not sure who gets it. The sleeping giant sure as hell won't "get it" for some time, if ever. Maybe when we're all choking and frying to death and scavenging through garbage for sustenance we'll all collectively get it.

* I really need to find a new word to use in place of "representatives". Clearly, they do not deserve this label. I'm open to suggestions.

How about our "Misrepresentatives?"

I am really scared that there is going to be another 9/11 or mini 9/11 in order for the American People to get behind Bush's trek into Iran. Although the Helicopters being shot down today, might help Bush's cause, something happening here at home will probably win the knee jerk support needed, it worked before right?
