

Union of North America (UNA) Amero Pattern Coins.

A currency union, similar to the European Union "Euro" has been proposed for North America (it is sometimes called the "North American Union", or "NAU"). The name of the new currency is the "Amero". The Wikipedia encyclopedia article has additional details about the "Amero". This has been the source for many conspiracy theories tied in with other proposals such as the "Canamex Corridor".

These private-issue fantasy pattern coins will be struck as an annual series, starting in the latter part of 2007.

Collectors can order them at www.dc-coin.com .

The 2007 designs feature various Seated Liberty obverses and a similar Eagle & Globe reverse.
