Latest Al-CIA-duh graphic backfires, wildly popular with regular Americans

WASHINGTON, D.C. - It appears that the neocon's latest attempt to beat the drums for an Iranian attack has backfired badly. A recent computer graphic showing a post apocalyptic Washington, D.C. has generated a positive response in what is commonly called "flyover country", the vast area between the east and west coast.

A poll taken Saturday showed that 72% of those surveyed reacted positively to the picture. Comments like "Good, glad to be rid of all those bloodsucking parasites" made by Mable Goyson, age 72, of Frankville, Kansas, were widely heard. Truck driver Mike Sufferingson, who recently lost his address and lives in his truck, said " Now that IS change I can believe in! No more taxes!!"

None of the neocons were available for comment on the survey results.

"Washington is laid to waste. The Capitol is a blackened, smoking ruin. The White House has been razed. Countless thousands are dead. This is the apocalyptic scene terrorists hope to create if they ever get their hands on a nuclear bomb. The computer-generated image below was posted on an Islamic extremists' website yesterday...."

... I loved Fallout 2 and intend to play Fallout 3.

If I'm caught playing Fallout, would that make me suspicious?

Most certainly, unless you happen to be working at that time for Rita "Kopy" Katz ;)

U.S. analysts said a lot of effort had been put into the video - entitled Nuclear Jihad, The Ultimate Terror - with graphics, music, and clips of different leaders and groups.

The same expertise seems to have gone into creating this image of a devastated Washington.

Haha, what dipshits, the image is from a computer game and the FBI didn't even know it. Maybe they thought it was created in a cave somewhere in the White Mountains.

The "Master Race" Speaks and you'd best listen

Perhaps the "Master Race" showed what DC would look like after a MOSSAD false-flag op to let us GOYIM know who is in charge.

And if you don't get down on your knees and offer praise to Israel and her Zionist handlers, then the Fallout 3 pic is going to become a reality.

A briefcase sized nuke in DC this Fall would give the Bush/Cheney Junta the excuses it needs to impose martial law and invade Iran.

Plus, if they time the blast, they can wipe out most of Congress and the Supreme Court, leaving only Junior and the "Dick" around to rule the nation by executive fiat.

That scenario might sound crazy, but to me, the last 7+ years of the Bush/Cheney Junta is what's crazy.

The White House cornerstone

The cornerstone for the White House was laid on October 13, 1792 in a Masonic ceremony headed by freemason President George Washington.

Don't be surprised to see a scene like the computer graphic above occur on 10/13 - the anniversary of the arrest of the Knights Templar for heresy by King Phillip IV (Phillip the Fair) in 1307.

The Continuity of Government will continue under a secret document by the same name which will implement the structure of the police state built under the zionist Chertoff's Homeland Security front.

"Don't be surprised to see a scene like the computer graphic above occur on 10/13 - the anniversary of the arrest of the Knights Templar for heresy by King Phillip IV (Phillip the Fair) in 1307."

Which happened on a Friday, and from that the term "Black Friday" was coined.

Greg, that is a great comment. But, I am thinking that if this were to happen it would make for less "red tape" in rounding up Bush and Cheney. Less hurdles, like our useless Congress and Warped Judicial...

Anyone want to fathom the same depiction of the once great city of NY's political scum of the day?

I just cannot see you folks not blowing the shit out of most good stuff to spite yourselves without doing some serious house cleaning in many of the super cities of America today.

AZ to Claymore re Postville

On a different topic, I followed up on that DHS / ICE raid on the kosher meat plant (Agriprocessors Inc. in Postville Iowa), the largest immigration raid in U.S. history.

Sure enough, not one company official was charged with anything, but hundreds of desperate Guatemalans were imprisoned.

78 percent of the 968 workers were using false or fraudulent Social Security numbers. The Social Security Administration sent five different letters to Agriprocessors, notifying them of Social Security number discrepancies for each tax year from 2000 to 2005.

Yet the Jews claim they didn't know that any of their employees were illegal aliens.

The nice thing about arresting workers, and letting employers skate, is that the government can say there are 12 million illegal aliens in the USA, so it's impossible for the government to do the job that taxes pay for.

But not to worry, the owner of the Postville plant, Aaron Rubashkin, promised to conduct his own investigation into his crimes. The plant was closed on the day of the raid, but the next day it was operating again. Sweet! (Chertoff didn't want any interruption of kosher meat to his fellow zionists.)

A Department of Transportation investigation found that a Jewish supervisor was forcing workers to buy cars from him, and was registering the cars under falsified identities. Workers were forced to buy at least 200 cars in this manner.

And yet no charges were filed against the supervisor.

The place must have been a hellhole overseen by Jewish slave-masters. OSHA logs show records of incidents that led to five amputations, dozens of reports of broken bones, eye injuries and hearing loss at the plant between 2001 and 2006.

And let's not forget the violation of child labor laws. (I wonder how many of those Guatemalan girls were impregnated by Jewish taskmasters.)

Recent developments

In a news release dated January 23, 2007, 2,700 pounds of frankfurters offered for sale in the Northeast were voluntarily recalled as having been under-processed[15]. In September 2005, the company's employees voted to join the United Food and Commercial Workers union. When the company refused to bargain, the union filed an unfair labor practice charge with the National Labor Relations Board. The company claimed that most of those who voted are undocumented aliens, arguing that undocumented aliens are prohibited from unionizing because they do not qualify as "employees" protected by the National Labor Relations Act. "Because the company's argument ignores both the Act's plain language and binding Supreme Court precedent," the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, in a case argued October 19, 2007 and Decided January 4, 2008, denied the company's petition for review. [16].

Pollution

On August 31, 2006. Agriprocessors signed a consent decree where they essentially admitted discharging untreated sewage into the Postville system, in violation of Federal and Iowa State law and paid a $600,000 fine for violating waste-water regulations[17][18][19]

Starting in 2004, city authorities started an investigation against Agriprocessors due to complaints from local residents that they routinely deposited untreated effluence into local rivers in breach of regulations. On August 31, 2006. Agriprocessors signed a consent decree[20] and paid a $600,000 fine for violating waste-water regulations.[21]

And this:

Feds: Drugs made at kosher meat plant

Published: 05/13/2008

Federal authorities charged that a methamphetamine laboratory was operating at the nation's largest kosher slaughterhouse and that employees carried weapons to work.

According to the application, a former plant supervisor told investigators that some 80 percent of the workforce was illegal. They included rabbis responsible for kosher supervision, who the source believed entered the United States from Canada without proper immigration documents.

Hell i can' even go five miles over the speed limit without getting nailed.

These Hasidic fucks can cook meth and violate immigration laws with impunity without fear of reprisal.

Maybe I should let my hair grow long, dye it black and have it curled.

Top off that look with one of those funny looking caps and I could commit crimes at will without worry.

Yes, the rabbis not only knew the immigrants were illegal they were running a much larger human trafficking operation out of China to the US.

You may recall the 'Jewish State' is listed as the world's number one sex trafficking nation.
