Hand Count Shows 15% For Ron Paul

From Devvy Kidd
By zooamerica
1-10-8

Ron Paul needs to get his attorney to file an injunction today to stop certification of the vote.

This would have placed Dr. Paul in 3rd place, just as the polls were showing before the primary

The computer counted votes are the problem.

Not a single hand count township showed less than 10%

Supposedly, Ron Paul got 8% - this does not make sense.
