

About us Money Links Great Sites Great Quotes Our Logo Must Reads Old Blog
Home » Blogs » Greg Bacon's blog

"I have more Jewish grandchildren than anyone."

This is what America has become. A nation led by Israeli loving fifth columnists who will do ANYTHING to please their masters in Tel Aviv. Like Israeli-firster Speaker of the House Pelosi, who never misses a chance to kiss her Zionist Master's derrière. Here's a small sampling of Pelosi's traitorous activities performed in service to that racist and apartheid Jews only state of Hate, Israel:

Start an illegal and immoral war in Iraq to protect Israel's flank?

No problem.

Run up huge debts to keep this immoral war for Israel going and going? No problem.

Stick with the "official" story of how 9/11 was pulled off by some cave-dwelling madmen and not look at the overwhelming evidence that 9/11 was an inside job, pulled off by Zionists and Neocons?

No problem.

Appear at any number of Jews only conventions so that leaders like House Speaker Pelosi can show she can out-Jew even the Zionists in attendance?

No problem.

Repeat numerous Zionist lies about Iran's peaceful pursuit of nuclear power?

No problem.

Promise her Zionist Masters that she, Pelosi, the Speaker of the House and one of the most powerful women in America, will gladly invade another country, Iran, at Israel's behest?

No problem.

Getting tearful when she talks about some member of the ZOF--Zionist Occupation Force--yet never mention in public the thousands and thousands of American kids she has sent to their deaths fighting wars for Israel?

No problem.

Electing to Congress Americans who put America first, second and third, and tell the world's most dangerous, violent and psychotic nation, Israel, that you're the problem and not the solution in the Middle East?

PROBLEM.

Speaker Pelosi, Speaker Itzik talk tough on Iran at Hadassah conclave

By Tom Tugend

As the personification of women's empowerment, two of the most influential female politicians in the United States and Israel stood on the stage, greeted by the cheers of more than 1,800 delegates to the 94th national Hadassah convention.

Nancy Pelosi, speaker of the House of Representatives, and Knesset Speaker Dalia Itzik had telling messages, embroidered with some warm personal touches.

Pelosi let it be known that she was a mother of five and grandmother of seven, and later noted, "I have more Jewish grandchildren than anyone." (A pardonable exaggeration, since she has only two Jewish grandkids, who, however, serenade her with "Happy Birthday to You" in Hebrew.)

Itzik couldn't quite match Pelosi, but countered with her three children, all Jewish.

On the occasion, though, what was most on the minds of the two speakers was the threat posed by Iran's nuclear ambitions.

"We must take the madmen in Tehran seriously," Itzik urged. "Their nuclear plans threaten not only Tel Aviv, but also New York and Los Angeles."

Pelosi called for "far-reaching and tighter sanctions that recognize that Iran is a danger to the entire world," adding that global security "demands that Iran give up its nuclear ambitions."

The San Francisco Democrat, who led a bipartisan congressional delegation to Israel in May to help celebrate the nation's 60th anniversary, demanded the return of Israeli hostages held by the Iran-supported Hamas and Hezbollah terrorists.

She said that the wife of hostage Eldad Regev had presented her with a set of her husband's military dog tags.

"I wore the dog tags when I was meeting the kings of Jordan and Saudi Arabia and the president of Syria," she said.

Pelosi also warmly praised the work of the Hadassah Medical Organization and its two medical centers in Jerusalem.

Noting that the Hadassah hospitals were open to anyone, regardless of race or religion, she told the delegates, "Hadassah accepts all patients, not because they are Jewish, but because you are Jewish."

Pelosi also called for Jewish community support for a series of health-related bills, ranging from stem-cell research to Medicare reform, which passed both houses of Congress, but were vetoed by President Bush.

"But it won't be long until these bills become law," she promised. "The next president will sign them."

Hadassah's national president, Nancy Falchuck of Boston, standing between Pelosi and Itzik, referred to them jokingly as "Stereo Speakers" and praised them as pioneers who had shattered the glass ceilings in their respective countries.

Hadassah, the Women's Zionist Organization of America, has some 300,000 women members in the United States and an additional 30,000 male associate members.

The four-day convention at the Bonaventure Hotel ended Wednesday, July 16, after a crammed program of sessions, workshops and plenary addresses on current politics, the future of medicine, anti-Semitism, women's health, information technology, being green and projects in Israel.

The opening event with Pelosi and Itzik concluded with a lengthy video presentation intertwining the histories of the State of Israel and Hadassah, from 1948 to the present.

Posted in 9/11 AIPAC Apartheid Israel Hadassah Wars for Israel zionism Greg Bacon's

blog Login or register to post comments

Comment viewing options

Threaded list - expanded Date - oldest first 50 comments per page

Select your preferred way to display the comments and click "Save settings" to activate your changes.

Pelosi's Commitment to Serve Israel

This is all very good, but there is one ever so small problem: Nancy Pelosi has been elected to serve the interests of the United States, not of Israel!

It is time to keep the US members of Senate and Congress accountable for their obligations under the US Constitution. They should be entitled to have their personal likes and dislikes like anyone else in a free society, but they are not entitled to serve foreign interests which conflict with those of the US. If they do they are outright traitors and should be dealt with as such.

I am afraid that the US servitude to Israel has nothing to do with AIPAC and its function as a "lobby". Lobbies are legitimate, they simply promote special interests of those who organised them. In the end it is up to the politicians whether or not to take their arguments into consideration when making decisions.

In respect of AIPAC the term "lobby" is utterly misplaced. A lobby promotes and canvasses ideas, it does not manage people. We have Sharon's word for it that "We the Jewish people control America, and the Americans know it".

<http://www.mediamonitors.net/khodr49.html>

Lobbyists do not destroy political careers of those who do not tow the line and they do not burn down their houses. Ruthless mob chiefs do.

It is safe to assume that there is no member of Senate or Congress who is not utterly compromised because of crime and/or sexual immorality. The jews are good organizers and they work together integrating their financial interests in sexual prostitution with political prostitution.

The former governor of New York Eliot Spitzer did not lose his political career because of a fling with a prostitute. Had he not been promiscuous he would most likely not have been elected governor in the first place! He lost his job because he fought predatory lending (in which field the jews just incidentally have a certain role). He probably lost it because of this article:

<http://www.washingtonpost.com/wp-dyn/content/article/2008/02/13/AR2008021302783.html>

The only way that the jews can control America is by making sure that only those who are compromised, who can be blackmailed, are elected into office. How would you ever control people of integrity? That is why we do not see any of those in politics!

Therefore, forget the idea that the Bush administration, the Senate or the Congress have any role in protecting the interests of the United States. They have not. Forget that AIPAC is a "lobby". It is not. It is the Board of Governors of the North American Dependencies of the World Wide Movement of Zionists.

One of the legal criteria for recognition of foreign, sovereign nations is that they are de facto in control of their geographical area. If you apply this criterion to the US it is doubtful that it still deserves to be diplomatically recognized as a sovereign nation!

If the Americans do not take back their country it will be gone, in shame and under indescribable pain and suffering, probably just months from now! So fight! In this situation another civil war seems to be the optimistic scenario compared with total annihilation in a nuclear WWII started by Israeli/US nuclear aggression on Iran, an aggression which will render both of them doomed!

Made Brani | Sun, 2008-07-20 17:34

AIPAC has nothing to do with US Policy? WTF?

I am afraid that the US servitude to Israel has nothing to do with AIPAC and its function as a "lobby". Lobbies are legitimate, they simply promote special interests of those who organised them. In the end it is up to the politicians whether or not to take their arguments into consideration when making decisions.

Sorry, but have to disagree with your posting that AIPAC has nothing to do with US servitude to Israel.

They own and control the election process, using means like the one below.

They have successfully kept the Congress from making AIPAC register as agents of a foreign government.

The only way to get rid of this Jewish hand slowly choking the life out of America is to rise up violently and take the traitors down.

Either that, or get used to fighting an endless series of wars for Israel.

AIPAC Congratulates Itself on the Slaughter in Lebanon

By JOHN WALSH

"My fellow American," Howard Friedman, President of AIPAC, begins his letter of July 30 to friends and supporters of AIPAC, "Look what you've done"! After warning that "Israel is fighting a pivotal war for its life," by which he means Israel's wanton slaughter and all-out destruction in Lebanon, Friedman condemns "the expected chorus of international condemnation of Israel's actions" and Europe's call for "a cease-fire immediately." Then he exults: "only ONE nation in the world came out and flatly declared: Let Israel finish the job. . . That nation is the United States of America--and the reason it had such a clear, unambiguous view of the situation is YOU and the rest of America Jewry." (All emphases in the original here and below.) Here I must take issue with President Friedman since I bet that most Jewish Americans, in contrast to the AIPAC crowd, were horrified by the slaughter in Lebanon. In fact if anyone other than President Friedman wrote this, he would be accused of fabricating a Jewish plot and labeled a nutty conspiracy theorist and scurrilous anti-semitic.)

"How do we do it"? President Friedman asks a little further on. The answer is "decades of long hard work which never ends." Not only is it hard work--but it's eternal. However, President Friedman is not content with generalities and gives us some of AIPAC's trade secrets. Here are two notables:

"AIPAC meets with every candidate running for Congress. These candidates receive in-depth briefings to help them completely understand the complexities of Israel's predicament and that of the Middle East as a whole. We even ask each candidate to author a 'position paper' on their views of the U.S.-Israel relationship--so it's clear where they stand on the subject." (Would it not be great to see these "position papers"? I wonder how many candidates would release them? And what do the candidates get for all this effort? A pat on the back?)

"Members of Congress, staffers and administration officials have come to rely on AIPACs memos. They are VERY busy people and they know that they can count on AIPAC for clear-eyed analysis.. We present this information in concise form to elected officials. The information and analyses are impeccable--after all our reputation is at stake. This results in policy and legislation that make up Israel's lifeline." (Another way to read this is that the pea-brained hillbillies who make up most of the Congress can be led by the nose if the memos are simple enough. Testimony to this fact enters my mailbox, as I write, in the form of a must-read interview with Noam Chomsky, which details just how distorted the discussion of Israel and the war on Lebanon has become in the U.S.)

President Friedman's letter continues with more headliners: "Unfortunately, our work has just begun"! "Hizballah must be defeated." And finally, "The war is a diversion"!!!! This last section argues that the war in Lebanon is a "distraction," to "divert attention away from Iran's nuclear weapons program"! (In case you haven't noticed President Friedman loves exclamation points, which leads one to wonder whether a good dose of lithium might not be in order.) But this "analysis' is hopelessly confused since Israel started the war on Lebanon using a minor border skirmish as an excuse - as Chomsky points out in the interview alluded to above. It leaves one wondering about AIPAC's analyses. Are they "clear-eyed" as Friedman claims, or wild-eyed?

President Friedman closes with the exhortation: "Now is the time for us, American Jews, to stand up and tell our elected officials that they must demand Iran halt its pursuit of atomic arms." In other words, next stop Iran if AIPAC can swing it. And in that lies a great danger. The Bush administration is losing ever more of its base and only the neocon establishment and AIPAC remain securely in its camp. (Even some of the born-again are deserting.) With the November elections coming, Rove and Bush desperately need AIPAC support, and so they may be even more susceptible than usual to its demands for going after Iran. Indeed this is a dangerous time.

Greg Bacon | Sun, 2008-07-20 19:54

Must Reads . . .

Why is it so HARD to find a JOB?

Why freedom isn't 'free'

Why life isn't 'Fair'

How the rich get richer

Home Sweet Hoax - the Myth of 'Home Ownership'

The Myth of Scarcity

The Simple Truth

It ain't racism when it's the truth!

by Grim Reaper

The Mother of All Myths

Why believe your LYING eyes?

Can't afford food? Eat EQUITY

Money 101

The Origins of Fractional Reserve Banking

The Fed: One Ring to Rule Them All