‘Suicide’ of Anthrax Scientist—Another Mossad Frame Up?

August 4, 2008 — crescentandcross

The last week of July, all across America could be heard an almost audible sigh of relief as headlines blared the news on the hour every hour that ‘he’ had finally been caught, the ‘he’ in this case being the infamous bioterrorist (unknown and unnamed up to this point) who sent deadly anthrax through the US mail system a mere week after the attacks of 9/11, leading to the deaths of 5.

What should have been heard across America however was a disquieting ‘hmmmm,’ as Americans scratched their heads and pondered the likelihood that the story being fed them concerning the ‘suicide’ of Ft. Dietrich bioweapons lab scientist Bruce E. Ivins was just another in a long string of lies, that it was not a suicide at all, but rather just one more cog in a Zionist-organized cover-up that has continued now for almost 7 years, beginning with 9/11.

There are good reasons for Americans to be skeptical about the recent news concerning the ‘suicide’ of bioweapons researcher Bruce Ivins (undoubtedly destined to be dubbed ‘Dr. Anthrax’ now that he is not here to defend his name) not the least of which is the timing of this event. In the first case, the news of his death arrived only a month after the US government was forced to pony up almost 6 million dollars to Steven Hatfill, the bioweapons researcher whose good name and reputation were destroyed as a result of the US Justice Department naming him a ‘person of interest’ shortly after the attacks when the only ‘evidence’ linking him to the infamous crimes came from a mouthy disinformation agent named Barbra Rosenberg. Secondly, it is a mere month before the anniversary of 9/11, and the fact that for the last 7 years the largest criminal investigation in US history (codenamed ‘Amerithrax’ for maximum effect) has turned up a big goose egg does not help things at a time when Uncle Sam is suffering from a serious credibility problem, both at home and abroad.

Those not recognizing the relevance of the aforementioned case involving Hatfill should keep in mind that the US DoJ losing a civil case against him (despite the scant news coverage it received) is like the town crier announcing to all within earshot that the case involving the anthrax attacks is not closed, and that the killer (or killers) is still on the loose. Obviously, given that the FBI always ‘gets its man’ this is gravely embarrassing, to say the least.

But more importantly, as any good cop will testify, a case not closed means a case still open, which means going back to square one and reviewing the evidence all over again in the hopes of finding something possibly missed. Obviously this means looking at information certain entities (and particularly those interested in dragging the US into Israel’s dirty wars) can’t afford to have exposed to public scrutiny, and in particular the evidence revolving around a certain Lt. Col. Phillip Zack.

For those who bought into the made-in-Israel storyline following the 2001 anthrax attacks that ‘the Ay-rabs did it,’ Zack was a researcher at the same Ft. Dietrich bio-weapons lab where the now ‘suicided’ Bruce Ivins worked. Along with Zack and Ivins was also one Ayyaad Assaad, an Egyptian-born scientist who became the butt of a concerted anti-Arab, anti-Islamic campaign organized and executed by Zack and some of his cohorts at the lab who collectively called themselves ‘the Camel Club’. A few days after 9/11 an anonymous letter turned up at a Marine base in Quantico Virginia accusing Assaad of being a terrorist planning biological attacks against America. According to Assaad’s testimony to the FBI agents who interviewed him, the personal information contained in the letter could only have been written by a co-worker at the lab, and surprise, surprise, a few days later, anthrax turns up in the mail. Furthermore, a security film caught Zack entering the Ft. Dietrich facility after hours at a time he no longer worked there, and more importantly, caught him on tape entering a secure section of the facility where the very same strain of anthrax used in the attacks later turned up missing. Given that the anthrax attacks amounted to the use of a weapon of mass destruction against the United States, naturally investigative eyes were on all persons considered relevant to the case, and—almost as if on cue—just about the time Zack and his anti-Arab bigotry started to circulate as clues in the case, the previously-mentioned Barbara Hatch Rosenberg floated the idea that Steven Hatfill should be put under the microscope, which he was, while all investigation of Zack slipped out the proverbial back door, never to be mentioned again.

In sum, Hatfill being exonerated means all bets are off and that more-likely culprits stand a good chance of being reconsidered for their possible (or probable) roles in the anthrax attacks following 9/11. More importantly though, it also means possible public exposure of the fact that the anthrax attacks were part of a carefully-coordinated false flag operation cooked up in the petri dish called Mossad headquarters aimed at inflaming Americans into going to war against Israel's enemies, specifically Iraq.

And then, like a bolt out of the blue comes the 'suicide' of one Bruce Ivins who worked at the facility, and along with this a truck load of 'evidence' to suggest he was the culprit. Court testimony from a social worker claiming he was a dangerous psychopath planning on killing scores of people given a mere week before his 'suicide', along with the supportive testimony of psychiatrists who supposedly examined him.

Those who think it really is an open and shut case of suicide on the part of a guilty culprit should ask a few questions. If he really was 'the guy', why was he allowed to keep his security clearance at the weapons lab where he worked and (more importantly) where other infectious diseases that could have been used in additional attacks on America were stored? If he truly was about to be indicted for the anthrax attacks, why was he not scooped up by the FBI immediately, lest he flee the country, or worse, 'go out in a blaze of glory' as the previously-mentioned social worker claimed he swore he would do? Was Ivins about to go public with information he had concerning the real person (s) behind the attacks? And more importantly, where is Lt. Col Phillip Zack, the anti-Arab bigot filmed going into a secure area of Ft. Deitrich where the Ames strain of anthrax used in the attack was stored, after hours, where few (if any) witnesses could be found? Can rational persons assume he is sitting on a beach somewhere in Israel, far away from this discussion and--more importantly--from this investigation that the US DoJ is now saying will be closed as early as this week?

To anyone who recognizes the proclivity towards lying, frame-ups and cover-ups that exist on the part of Israel's friends in Washington DC, the case involving Ivins wrecks of yet another in a long line of similar crimes. Just as Iraq was framed for 9/11 when not a microbe of evidence existed tying the two together, so too does it appear Bruce Ivins been framed for the anthrax attacks in order to protect the identity of the real perpetrators, the emphasis falling on the synonym of the second half of that word--'traitors'.

Sadly--and despite the fact that the present made-in-Israel wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have cost them dearly--Americans will no doubt assume (as planned) that the suicide of the bioweapons scientist indicates his guilt. Just like Israel's assassination of JFK (blamed on Lee Harvey Oswald) to Israel's attack on the USS Liberty (that both the Jewish state and John McCain Sr ruled was an accident) to Israel's role in 9/11, Americans will move on with their lives like dutiful little sheep, not realizing that the death of Ivins, the war, and the rising cost of fuel, food and just about every other necessary commodity are all directly related to each other.

Meanwhile, in places like New York, Tel Aviv and Washington DC, the persons responsible for all the aforementioned planned chaos will get together, and amidst smiles, snickers and handshakes and plot the next event designed to shyster American parents into sending their beloved sons and daughters off to fight and die for the Jewish state.

Another excellent article, Mark, gets right to the point and leaves people in no doubt that, once again, the real criminals and mass murderers are getting away scot free thanks to yet another convenient "suicide". When oh when will the sheeple wake from their sleepwalk to hell?

Keep up the good work.

A fellow scientist, and co-worker of Ivins said on Democracy Now (as a source of news, usually to be relied upon as a leftside roundup artist/gatekeeper operation in the Zionist-Communist 'revolutionary' exterminations of the Christian and Muslim populations of the world) that she knew Ivins very well, and that he was one of the more stable and reliable scientists she had known. In short, she said there is no way he suicided himself over these obviously false charges.

She made the point that the FBI lab [after certifying that Ken Starr's fishy blue dress was indeed a little fishy--bert] has now 'discovered' that, using a brand spanking new DNA technology, developed just for this case, that the strain of anthrax used on 911 was exactly identical to the strain of anthrax that Ivins was working on. So, this scientist-coworker of Ivins asked the question: Because it is well known among scientists in the industry that anthrax have DNA (doh!), why would Ivins release anthrax which has his DNA fingerprints all over it? She noted that, if someone wanted to use anthrax, he would sneak in after hours and cop some of material from a co-worker's lab area, and then use that to frame them up, and point the DNA-finger away from themselves.

I was just reading a 3-vol set of CFR books by Degras called The Documents of the Communist International. In the 1930s, when W's psychosexual bedmate, Chairman Mao, needed arms and weapons, to defeat the Christian forces in China, led by Chiang Kai-shek, he came to ... and got his financing and weapons from the United States. (That would be the same bankers and Army brats who financed the Hoover administration.) I mention this because in the 1920s Trotsky wrote a book, In Defence [sic] of Terrorism, wherein he argued that communist radicals are free to, and must if they can, use state-sponsored terrorism, including sacrifice of millions of their own kind, if it will further the communist agenda, which ultimately is to destroy all remnants of the Christian and Muslim system of values. Meanwhile, McCain is sprouting campaign phrases like, he wants his administration to be 'great leap forward!!!' Obama is of course no different — they are both 1920s style Trotskyites, willing to use whatever means, anthrax or whatever else, to achieve their ends.

Hello!

As you point out, someone had to know details of Ivins' personal life and his personnel file to frame him. Of course, someone had to know Steven Hatfill equally well.

How many people knew or cared about Greendale before the anthrax attacks? How many people knew the Rhodesian government tried using anthrax to kill the cattle of unfriendly villages? How many people knew that Hatfill lied on his academic and military resume? All these facts, which made him appear to be the perfect patsy, came out remarkably quickly once he was set up.

One minor correction: "wreaks" is used incorrectly in this article; the spell check won't tell us that the correct word is "reeks" since both are real words.

Induction, Conclusions Thereof: Stubborn Little Things, Indeed
(Apollonian, 4 Aug 0 😊)

Mark Glenn does yet another excellent job adducing the salient facts—but he overlooks tremendously important, "slight" thing, and this is INDUCTIVE LOGIC.

Thus note inductive logic is THE essential thing for every/any investigation, and the pt. then is OVERWHELMING evidence against Israel, MOSSAD, and "Jews-media" which REQUIRES Jews/Israel PROVE they're not responsible/culpable.

For note then as Sherlock Holmes explains: "Once one eliminates the impossible, the remainder, no matter how improbable, is necessary solution set."

Thus as most un-likely culprits/suspects (like Bolivians and Nigerians) for 9-11 are removed fm consideration (at least tentatively), the MOST LIKELY suspect, Israel/MOSSAD and complicit/suck-along CIA are REQUIRED to prove they're NOT responsible, again.

And don't forget to include USS Liberty (UssLiberty.org), and the preceding "Lavon affair."

And when one thereupon observes Israelis, Jews, et al., not only don't provide satisfactory explanations, but simply spit in one's face to effect "u CANNOT suspect us as it would be "anti-semitic"—u see ur case against them is essentially proven.

But then again, u have to have confidence in ur knowledge of inductive logic, hence Western culture, don't u?

So note then what's happening, even before our very eyes: Jews/Israelis and topmost accomplices are literally getting away w. MURDER, HOW?—by means of moralism-Pharisaism, using this presumptuous moralistic pretense to have themselves absolved in minds of worshippers of this false religion known as Pelagian heresy ("good-evil"—as in "good works"). Thus Pharisaism-moralism TRUMPS truth and honesty.

Such then is degenerate process/mechanism exploited/conducted by Jews/Israel and accomplices and co-conspirators (see TheNewAmerican.com for expo/ref. on CFR-Bilderberg conspiracy) presently in USA, within present historical CYCLIC phase of “Decline of the West,” by Oswald Spengler.

Hence then what West and Americans must re-learn is that basic, necessary process of INDUCTIVE LOGIC, and how it works.

For we already know who did 9-11 BY ALL AVAILABLE EVIDENCE—it’s already proven.

And we already know present dis-info about Ivins is guaranteed to be lies—as Mark Glenn demonstrates. But Mark’s work is REALLY SUPERFLUOUS, again, given what we already KNOW for absolute fact: Israelis/Jews and suckalongs in USA gov. did 9-11 and hence the anthrax attacks; everything else is mere MATTER OF DETAILS.

CONCLUSION: Again, the real issue is re-introduction to Americans, et al., for INDUCTION, truth, objective reality, and Pharisaist-moralist lies and fallacies, etc., by which Israel/Jews continue to get away w. murder and mass-murder. Humanity must re-learn Induction, for thematic example, just to save their very lives. Honest elections and death to the Fed. Apollonian

I’ll give you half marks for this. The holes in the official Ivins suicide story are all sitting there waiting to be poked ... and you’ve poked a few of them. But on the other hand:

Do you have any evidence implicating Mossad? And if so, why didn’t you mention any of it?

NOTE to bert and others:

Please do not use this: “[sic]” after the word “Defence”. It is a proper British spelling of the word “Defense.”

“Do you have any evidence implicating Mossad? And if so, why didn’t you mention any of it?”

It’s got all the hallmarks of mossad. 😊 See, that’s all the MSM ever needs to blame bin Laden. by now I think it’s safe to blame mossad for just about anything that anyone tries to pin first on muslims then on americans, as is the case iwth the anthrax and with 9/11 itself now that the fake truth movement is in full swing claiming Bush knew and let it happen. If you can throw the saudis and pakistanis under the bus too thats just icing...

What is forgotten in all of this—After one week,the FBI investigating 911 attacks,all agents transfered to Anthrax killings. The other is FBI proposed to the daughter of $2.5 million and a fancy car ,if she would rat on dad. It smells,notice hardly any talk on major all Jewish news media?

When I saw this reported on the news ( the ‘suicide’ of Ft. Dietrich bioweapons lab scientist Bruce E. Ivins ), I told my wife that that man was innocent, that it was a Jew named Dr. Zack

I Posted this on the Mother Jones website, and the next day Alex Jones had this exact same thing as one of his news articles.

All of this reported on WHATREALLYHAPPENED.COM

THE HIDDEN ANTHRAX LETTERS SUSPECT

The FBI knows of a man who was caught entering the lab where the Anthrax used in the letters was kept, after he had been fired for a racially motivated attack on a co-worker. So, why is the FBI wasting its time with Steven Hatfill? News Story identifying Dr. Philip Zack as the man caught entering the Anthrax storage area at Fort Detrick without authorization. In this story, it is reported that Dr. Zack was caught on a security tape making an unauthorized entry into the Anthrax storage area.

Foreign press picks up story that Anthrax letters were sent by American bio-war scientist ... and that the FBI is dragging its feet on the case.

FBI'S PRIME SUSPECT ON ANTHRAX LETTERS IS JEWISH! No wonder they were dragging their feet.

Salon's story of the attempt to frame Dr. Ayaad Assaad, an Egyptian, for the Anthrax letters.

So it looks like all we are getting is another big lie reported by our government!

The Jewish Supermob must really be worried that your site, Mother Jones, Alex Jones and other's, are getting the truth out about this falsely alleged anthrax murderer, who they claim committed suicide. They are worried that the truth today is so lightning fast! To eventually counteract all that we are doing to stop them, or at least slow them down a bit, they will install a Vice President, who will soon after the election, be the first Jewish President. I always figured that it would be the Jewish devil Joe Lieberman. But a new Vice Presidential name has been added to the list by McCain. His name is Eric Cantor, the only Jewish Republican in the House, and of course Cantor is a supporter of strong US-Israel relations. He was put on the spot as to which country he would support in a war, the U.S. or Israel? See his answer on Youtube. This is really good. How long do you figure it will be before McCain has a heart attack, after appointed President?

Eric Cantor supports wiping Israel off the map. If you believe this please give me a call, I have some ocean front property in the desert to sell you, real cheap.

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fdrZ7vglD1M>

The Jewish supermob will officially have one of it's own running Amerika soon. Then they'll probably start the roundup on people like us!
