NH Race: The OSCE consider an exit poll discrepancy to be prima facie evidence of tampering

Chris Matthews: Raw EXIT POLL Data 'Indicated Significant Victory' for Obama in NH

ABC News: 'It is simply unprecedented for so many polls to have been so wrong. We need to know why'

Clinton Optical scan 91,717 52.95%
Obama Optical scan 81,495 47.05%

Clinton Hand-counted 20,889 47.05%
Obama Hand-counted 23,509 52.95%

This from a report on the OSCE's 2003 elections in Georgia (the former Soviet Republic):

A parallel vote tabulation (PVT) conducted by ISFED according to a dependable methodology, and an exit poll which resulted in similar findings, provided electors with an independent verification of the many irregularities in the election process.

Are we to believe that different criteria should apply in Eastern Europe and the U.S.?

The irony is, George Bush insisted when the exit polls didn't match the ballot box that there be a rematch in Georgia...at the same time the exit polls in this country didn't match the ballot box in his run against Kerry!!!!

THIS COUNTRY IS COOKED!

Are we to believe that different criteria should apply in Eastern Europe and the U.S.?..but of course the terrorist nation of Israel was not attempting to place their puppet in office in eastern Europe at the time so..naturally we need to have different criteria here in the former U.S.A..

The fraud of those in power is always swept aside, ignored, and washed over with ease in this nation. Why is this the case?

Simply because none of the undereducated college grads in this country are willing to stand up and demand anything. Therefore we get nothing (except screwed).

Remember, Chekoslovakia, Romania, Sumatra, the philipines, China, Chile, El Salvador, Nicuraqua, Poland, Georgia, Bangladeshwhere the students, unions, religions, mothers, farmers, commoners, and sometimes even police and soldiers marched together on the sats of power, the homes of the corrupt, the ministry's of the nations elite crimmlinal class, and other symbols of tryanny. Everyday people gathered in numbers greater every time they assembled until one day in each case the ordinary people prevailed in subverting the political machines that kept there boots grinding them into the land in servitude.

How about current modern day events. The monks in Mynamar, The people in kosovo, the citizens of Tibet, the Lakota of the United States, all of these people are openly challenging the corruption in their country's. They demand open investigations, they take to the srteets inspite of strong arm police and military tactics used to quell disssent. Do they stop?

What about Bhutto in Pakistan? The rest of the world gets what they demand but, here not a soul from the Churches, the Univeritys, the Unions, the working class, the poor, the middle class, or even the almost wealthy will not step away from the magic glowing box of deceit long enough to even consider that a change is needed.

yep, here in the good ole USA the corrupt who steal on the grand scale, murder with impunity, and take your history and heritage by lying to all of you from the moment you are born.

It is insane to think that if you wait, someone else will do it for you. We live in a place where we wait to find out what Lindsay Lohan is going to do next. Come on this nation is stupid and doomed because we all expect it to be the other guy who will save the day.

There is plenty of reasons to fear, because Underdog is not real.

Get off your ass and do something, today.

Seems to me Diebold switched vote tallies from Obama to Clinton and I wouldn't be surprised if McCain and Paul's totals were switched as well.

As per neocon CFR orders.

There must be only hand counting in open public view which is the first step on wresting back democracy and freedom to the people.
