You really cannot make this up!

Whether you are for the recount or not. Then Kuninch gets left out of the Debate last night because you know he would have pounced on those clowns with WAR, I guess GE (defense Contractor) did not want any part of that!

POSTED on RP FORums:

Hello Volunteers!

On our California Conference Call earlier this evening, I mentioned that I had been informed that the Granny Warriors' PayPal account had been frozen at the last minute by PayPal and the freeze prevented the transfer of the fee for the New Hampshire vote recount. I promised to verify this information and I have now done so.

I am informed directly by the Granny Warriors that PayPal did in fact freeze the funds earmarked for the Recount Fees! So, now you know who to blame for the failure to get a recount of the New Hampshire vote count. PayPal. The application for a recount of the New Hampshire vote required a deposit of $55,600 to the New Hampshire Secretary of State no later than 3:00 P.M. this afternoon, January 15th. A huge and successful effort by the Granny Warriors raised the money and they ordered the transfer to the Secretary. However, at the very last moment, PayPal FROZE THE ACCOUNT and did not transfer the money. The deadline for payment of the deposit passed and the recount application was rejected for lack of payment.

Emergency efforts by our folks on the scene in New Hampshire to push the recount through the Secretary's office were not successful and a lot of frustration has been expressed on both sides as a result. The problem was not with the Secretary of State for New Hampshire, it was with PayPal. I understand that the matter may remain unresolved and a recount may still be possible. I am hoping for additional information early Wednesday, January 16th.

I am sure that PayPal will have a lot of excuses, but lame excuses are not acceptable under these circumstances. Here is the PayPal contact URL:

Thank you to the Granny Warriors and to the others on the ground in New Hampshire who went beyond the call of duty for the recount and a big BOO to PayPal. We should remember who our friends are. And we should also remember which companies, organizations and people act to oppose our fight for Liberty and Self-Determination. I will pass along more information as it becomes available.
