RIOTING BEGAN IN GREECE on December 6 2008 after police shot and killed 15-year-old Alexandros Grigoriopoulos in a run down section of Athens.

The teen's death triggered a fierce reaction across Greece. Thousands of rioters rampaged through Athens as angry youths set the Athens Court House on fire with petrol bombs. Broken glass and burned-out wreckage were strewn throughout Athens' streets.

The rampage intensified, when on December 19 2008, twenty masked protesters hurled (<http://voanews.com/english/2008-12-20-voa13.cfm>) Molotov cocktails at the French Cultural Institute, signaling the spread (http://mostlywater.org/fears_unrest_spreading_across_europe) of unrest throughout Europe. The attack on the French Institute preceded scheduled demonstrations involving student groups & rallies by Greek trade unions. Multiple strikes (<http://www.dw-world.de/dw/article/0,,3889190,00.html>) by labor unions, teachers, doctors, and air traffic controllers have been an ongoing occurrence throughout Greece since the conflagration began.

The strikers are angry over the Karamanlis-led government's handling of the economic crisis. The unions want higher wages and pensions & broader social spending. Greece's two largest unions, the General Confederation of Workers & the Civil Servants Union, had already planned public demonstrations in protest of the failing economy long before (<http://respectuk.blogspot.com/2008/12/general-strike-brings-greece-to.html>) the shooting of the young teenager.

The unrest that has gripped Greece these past two weeks has been spilling (<http://news.scotsman.com/world/Fears-of-unrest-spreading-across.4790369.jp>) into the rest of Europe, raising concerns that it could be a trigger (<http://news.scotsman.com/world/Fears-of-unrest-spreading-across.4790369.jp>) for opponents of globalization, disaffected youth, and others outraged (<http://eureferendum.blogspot.com/2008/12/its-economy-stoopid.html>) by the economic planners of the EU. Beginning December 15, 2008, protesters in Spain, Denmark and Italy smashed shop windows, pelted police with bottles and attacked banks - while in France, cars were set ablaze outside the Greek Consulate in Bordeaux. Protesters warned about a looming "insurrection."

In their ongoing crackdown (http://www.cio.com/article/456587/EU_Cracks_Down_on_Internet_Child_Porn) on Internet usage, The EU's Law Enforcement Agency, "Europol," is leaking allegations (<http://www.pressandjournal.co.uk/Article.aspx/984211?UserKey=>) that many of the protests were organized over the Internet. Europol points (<http://news.scotsman.com/world/Fears-of-unrest-spreading-across.4790369.jp>) to one Website in particular which Greek protesters use to update each other on the locations of clashes. The EU's center of operations, the Federal Republic of Germany, has just passed a controversial bill regarding the use of the Internet for 'terrorist operations' - a broad definition that will target civil dissenters.

BIG BROTHER COMES TO GERMANY

GRANTING GERMAN POLICE NEW POWERS to fight 'terrorism,' the German parliament's upper house approved (<http://www.dw-world.de/dw/article/0,,3888772,00.html>) a controversial bill on December 19, 2008. Critics say the bill infringes on people's civil liberties.

Dubbed by German journalists as the "Big Brother Law" (<http://www.spiegel.de/international/germany/0,1518,596807,00.html>) due to the bill's provisions allowing online surveillance and personal computer confiscation, the Interior Ministry in Berlin defends (<http://www.spiegel.de/international/germany/0,1518,596807,00.html>) it as a necessary step to "protect" the country from the dangers of international terrorism.

The Big Brother Law requires (<http://www.dw-world.de/dw/article/0,,3888772,00.html>) a judge to authorize police access to a suspect's personal computer and to oversee the search of data. It also clarifies the jurisdiction for such searches between the federal government and state authorities.

Germany's Federal Criminal Police Office has been studying whether they could either enter premises to plant monitoring devices in computers or send viruses to the computers via the Internet so that police investigators could covertly read the hard disks. Alarmed by the bill, German lawyers are concerned (<http://www.dw-world.de/dw/article/0,,3888772,00.html>) that "someone will always be listening."

DESIGNED FROM THE BEGINNING

AS THE GREEK RIOTS CONTINUE, many financial experts contend (<http://thetrumpet.com/index.php?q=5746.4104.0.0>) that the Greek government can do little to fix the nation's economy. Arguing that Greece's fate was sealed (<http://thetrumpet.com/index.php?q=5746.4104.0.0>) when it joined the European Union in 2001 and adopted the Euro, analysts say that a Greek boom and bust leading to social unrest was "designed from the beginning."

Bernard Connolly, a British economist and former member of the European Commission, who authored, The Rotten Heart of Europe (<http://www.international.se/emucon.html>), exposed the truth about the European Union and its Rothschild-run, European Central Bank, headquartered in Frankfurt Germany:

"The mission of the European Central Bank is to provoke a financial crisis. The purpose of the crisis will be, as Prodi, then Commission president, said in 2002, to allow the EU to take more power for itself.

The sacrificial victims will be, in the first instance, local banks and investors in countries such as Ireland and Club Med. Subsequently, Germany and British taxpayers will bear the burden of bailouts that a newly empowered EU economic government will ordain." View Entire Story (<http://thetrumpet.com/index.php?q=5746.4104.0.0>) Here (<http://thetrumpet.com/index.php?q=5746.4104.0.0>) .

In a little known rusty colored building in Basle, Switzerland, a small sign by the steps leading to the front doors tells you it is private property. Other than that there is nothing specific which marks it as being the most important building in the world. For the unassuming building houses the Rothschild-run, Bank for International Settlements (http://www.womensgroup.org/2000bis_20010217.html) , also known as the BIS.

The Rothschild-run (<http://euro-med.dk/?p=3423>) BIS dictates to all banks of EU member-states specific terms by which cross-border banking is to be transacted. The regulations dictated by the BIS are outlined in their BIS Quarterly (http://www.cssf.lu/fileadmin/files/Dossiers/Adequation%20fonds%20propres/press_release150104.htm) (See right hand column) by their subsidiary, The Basle Committee On Banking Supervision (http://mountainmentorsassociates.com/files/Progress_on_Basel_II_implementation_BIS_May_2007.pdf) .

International control is what the Jewish bankers are all about. And that control is soon to intensify when the Rothschild-sponsored EU begins to put out the fires raging in Greece...

Dear Faithful Readers -

May Christ (the reason for the season) bless you all as we are upon the threshold of the holy day which celebrates His precious birth.

"God became man that man can enter into union with God," the Holy Orthodox Church fathers assert. And this is the goal of our salvation, "deification in Christ," according to the One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church," - the Orthodox Christian Church into which Christ led me into after some 26 years in the Jews for Jesus / Messianic Jewish scenario.

This "deification in Christ" is very different than the Protestant assertion of salvation, "To glorify God forever." For this is man's autonomy apart from God. But in "union with Christ," autonomy no longer exists.

On another note, I am happy to see that most of you are following the new Comments Guidelines by staying on topic. I promised that I would enforce this guideline and for the most part I have done just that.

What irks me the most are comments that simply say "go to this link" and see "this." These comments will be deleted.

I have stated many times that the Comments Section is extremely popular. But off-topic texts and link-related comments have drawn criticisms from many readers. Thus to keep the Comments Section a popular "read" - the guidelines will be enforced.

It is now almost 4 AM and I will repost the guidelines after I now say my prayers, go out for a jog in the morning mountain air, and after some spiritual readings in the Bible and the Church Fathers and some history, I'm going to go to bed...

Love you all — +Brother Nathanael

As Clifford Hugh Douglas, the founder of the Social Credit school said 'The Money Power does not, and never did, want to improve the money system. Its consequences in war, sabotage and social friction are exactly what it desires.' Why? It is because the Financiers believe that they are the only ones capable of governing mankind properly. - from <http://michaeljournal.org/isittheend.htm> (<http://michaeljournal.org/isittheend.htm>)

The supranational sovereignty of an intellectual elite and world bankers is surely preferable to the national autodetermination practiced in past centuries. - David Rockefeller - from <http://www.rense.com/general17/quote.htm> (<http://www.rense.com/general17/quote.htm>)

But when pressed to say ultimately who ruled this higher order, she replied simply 'SATAN'.

In the course of this history-making interview, Rakovsky made it clear that the key to the power of this higher order was money. Rakovsky said, 'Money is power, the only power.' - from section 'Rakovsky' at

Remember, O gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to your protection, implored thy help or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly to thee, O Virgin of Virgins and my Mother; to thee I come, before thee I kneel, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my (our) petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me (us). Amen. - from Theotokos God-bearer at

'The world struggle is not political or economic. Rather, it is religious and theological. It is either God or atheism.'

U.S. 5 Star General Douglas MacArthur to visiting Catholic Bishop Fulton Sheen in Allied Occupied Japan

All has been revealed to you; my plan has been prophetically announced to you at Fatima and, during these years, I have been carrying it out through my Marian Movement of Priests. This has been revealed to you in its gradual preparation.

This century of yours, which is about to end, has been placed under the sign of a strong power conceded to my Adversary. Thus, humanity has been led astray by the error of theoretical and practical atheism; in the place of God, idols have been built which everyone adores: pleasure, money, amusement, power, pride and impurity.

Truly Satan, with the cup of lust, has succeeded in seducing all the nations of the earth. He has replaced love with hatred; communion with division; justice with many injustices; peace with continuous war. In fact this entire century has been spent under the sign of cruel and bloody wars (see references A & B below), which have claimed millions of innocent victims...

All has been revealed to you; my plan has been pointed out to you even in its painful realization. Humanity has fallen under the domination of Satan and of his great power, exercised with the satanic and masonic forces; my Church has become obscured by his smoke which has penetrated into it. Errors are being taught and propagated, causing many to lose true faith in Christ and in His Gospel; the Holy Law of God is openly violated; sin is committed and often even justified and thus the light of grace and of the Divine Presence is lost; unity is deeply split apart by a strong constestation against the Magisterium, and especially against the Pope; and the wound caused by painful lacerations becomes ever wider. - The Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, the Most Holy Theotokos via Fr. Stephano Gobbi, Milan, Italy, December 31, 1997, from To The Priests, Our Lady's Beloved Sons available from <http://www.mmp-usa.net/main.html> (<http://www.mmp-usa.net/main.html>)

All has been revealed to you; my plan has been foretold to you especially in its wonderful and victorious fulfillment.

I have announced to you the triumph of my Immaculate Heart in the world. In the end my Immaculate Heart will triumph.

This will come about in the greatest triumph of Jesus, Who will bring into the world His Glorious Reign of Love, of Justice and of Peace, and will make all things new...

The moment has come for you to come out from your hiddenness in order to go and shed light upon the earth.

Show yourselves to all as my children for I am with you always. Let the Faith be the Light which enlightens you in these days of darkness, and let zeal alone consume you, zeal for the Honor and Glory of my Son Jesus.

Fight, Children of the Light! Because the hour of my battle has now arrived.

These are the last days of this era spoken about by our lady at Fatima.... Soon her Immaculate heart will triumph... The antichrist will arise in 2009 and have a brief reign until Our lord cast him and all his evil friends into hell... Then the glorious era of peace will come... (Apocolapse 20)

863. Fr. Joseph December 22, 2008 @ 7:56 pm

Dear Steven,

Back in 33 A.D. or thereabouts, the Lord informed St. Peter the Apostle that Satan got his wish to sift them all like wheat, but that He had prayed for St. Peter so that when he recovered he could strengthen his Apostolic brothers.

In 1884 A.D., the Lord informs the successor to St. Peter the Apostle, Pope Leo XIII, that Satan once again got his wish to sift them and the entire Church like wheat.

In 1917 A.D., the Woman who gave birth to her Son asked for the successors to the Apostle, the Bishop of the Church, to perform a public and solemn Consecration of Russia to her Immaculate Heart.

If that were done, Satan's head would be crushed once and for all, there would be world peace, and all generations of people on earth would be loudly proclaiming her praises, thus fulfilling the Prophecy 'all generations will call me blessed'.
