Is the U.S. a colony of Israel?

In a recent article I asked the question "Is Israel the 51st State?". The question I should have been asking is "Is the U.S. a colony of Israel?".

Just what is this special relationship between the U.S. and Israel?

What do you call a relationship where one country pays tribute to another? And where one country sends its men and women to fight to defend the interests of another?

Here I'm using the word tribute, in the sense of "a historical payment made periodically by one state or ruler to another, esp. as a sign of dependence", not "an act, statement, or gift that is intended to show gratitude, respect, or admiration".

So what does this special relationship remind you of?

- A vassal state? "A person or country in a subordinate position to another." As in a vassal state of the Roman empire.
- A colony? "A country or area under the full or partial political control of another country, typically a distant one, and occupied by settlers from that country."

And don't be confused, it is not Israel which is a colony of the United States, it is the United States which is a colony of Israel. Just as we were once a colony of Great Britain.

We need to declare independence from Israel, just as we declared independence from Great Britain when they tried to suck us dry of our resources, and tax us to support their wars, and draft our men to fight for them.

Choosing a colonial Governor

At the AIPAC conference the candidates for the position of appointed colonial governor of the United States each gave a speech explaining why they would be the most able to maintain the "special relationship". We had John McCain saying that he would go to war for Israel at the drop of a hat, and Hillary Clinton proclaiming how much she loved Israel.

But the clear winner was Barack Obama who promised to deliver the allegiance of the American people that have flocked to his message of "change", while maintaining the illusion of an independent United States of America.

May God help USA.

We need a federation of Israel-Palestine soon with one man one vote. We can't waste more time defending the Israeli's foolishness attacking another country. Iraq war was started by Israel Lobby; we are the one who is paying for the war by our blood and money.

America, best government money can buy.

No, but really it is. This is oversimplified. We have similar if not identical arrangements with a lot of countries (Taiwan, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, India, etc) Its just that Israel has the best intelligence in the world and therefore are capable of highest bid/lobby.
